The county board will make an earnest endeavor to judiciously expend the big road tax now under collection, and if the results are substantial there will be no complaint. Nine out of ten taxpayers agree that permanent roads are our greatest need, and they say they do not begrudge the money if results are obtained.

The Supreme Court of the United States has declared valid the Oregon system of direct legislation, and for once and all the matter is now settled. The big attack came from the corporations, and their course is now run. When men like Supreme Judge McBride, of Oregon, help frame laws for Oregon you may take it for granted that the measures will run the gamut of the highest court and come out unscathed. "The fool of the family" has been sustained.

Theodore Roosevelt is out for the nomination. His speech in Ohio yesterday was a ringer, and barring two or three phrases it reads like one of the old-time Bryan pronunciamentos. The world moves, and the gentleman from Nebraska seems to have a good school attendance in the governmental class.

The W. O. W. will meet in the Grange Building, upstairs, opposite the Grange Hall, next Tuesday evening. Business of importance. Members are earnestly requested to attend.

Wilbur Kirts, who is spending the Winter at his boyhood home, near Banks, was in town today. He has been at Fairbanks, Alaska, for 8 years, and will return there in the Spring.

Born, February 19, 1912, to I. E. Kelly and wife, Vinelands, a daughter. The visitor came on the father's birthday.

You have tried the rest—now try the best—best by every test best in the West—Dr. Lowe's glasses.

Peter Hoffman, the Bacona sawmill man, was in last evening.

Additional Spelling Contest Rules

11—After the first month of the contest the use of capital letters shall be observed in this contest.

12—In schools whose term expires prior to April 5th the teacher may designate some competent person who shall conduct the monthly review and report in the usual way.

13—Pupils who are necessarily absent during the monthly review may make up the work at any time before the grades are mailed.

14—In case of a tie on the part of two or more schools or divisions additional rules will be made by the committee.

The contest among the spelling classes is doing fine and splendid results are obtained. Two schools have reported that not a word was missed during the entire month's work. Thirty-four schools have reported up to the present time and all are well pleased with the plan and the work done.

AGED 72—STILL IN SCHOOL

Charles True, of Middleton, was up to the city Tuesday, on business at the court house. Chas. is now 72 years of age, and is still in school, and says he is going again next Winter. "I was up to the O. A. C. short course this Winter, and I never before received so much education for the nine or ten dollars that it cost me. It would pay every farmer interested in his work to go to Corvallis and take in the short course, every year. Seventy-two years is rather advanced for going to school, but I'll make it the "crime of '73," if I'm alive next year," is the way True expresses himself.

Now is the time to open a savings account with the Hillsboro National Bank, which has a savings department; under government supervision: 4 per cent interest paid—4 per cent on savings. $1 opens an account—$1.
