

Rollins: Seaside girl inspires Boone's honorary artist bill

Continued from Page 1A

A 2013 report by the Oregon Arts Commission, based on public school data from the 2011-12 school year, found that 23 percent of the state's kindergarten-through-12th-grade schools did not offer any arts instruction in standalone courses.

The art access rate in Clatsop County, according to the report, was 80 percent.

"We've seen a lot of our electives kind of disappear," said Trent Rollins, Hayley's father, who teaches math and physical education at Broadway Middle School.

Trent Rollins said art can help "enlighten their minds and keep them engaged and excited.'

He said his daughter, whose interest in painting started in fifth grade, has had art instruction at the Trail's End Art Association in Gearhart and with Seaside artists Judi Garrity and Dorota Haber-Lehigh.

Hayley Rollins said she spoke with Boone, D-Cannon Beach, when the representative visited Broadway Middle School last year. The bill has had first reading in the House and has been referred to the House Rules Committee.

Boone said she hopes to have Hayley in Salem to either testify for the bill or watch a House floor vote. The representative said she has been an advocate for adding art to the emphasis on science, technology, engineering and math educa-

"You see those bumper stickers saying: 'Art Saves Lives.' It's true," said Boone, who paints and has a degree in art from Portland State University. Rollins toyed with recommending April 15 as Honorary Artists of Oregon Day because it is famed Italian Renaissance painter Leonardo da Vinci's birthday.

Leaning in — as Facebook's Sheryl Sandberg might suggest — she chose April 14. "That's my birthday," Rollins said.

OBITUARIES

Ashley Nicole Beard Las Vegas Oct. 2, 1988 — Feb. 19, 2015

Ashley Nicole Beard left us way too soon, as a result of rare, incurable brain tumors. She fought an extremely long and brave battle that most would not have been able to bear. Ashley remained positive throughout many surgeries, treatments, setbacks and constant pain. She was, and will remain, an inspiration to many, demonstrating her absolute faith and indomitable spirit.

She is survived by her son, Hayden Bakes, who resides in Las Vegas with his father, Gianni Bakes, stepmother Ashley Thompson, two sisters and baby brother; her parents, Megan Schroeder (Irish) and Tony Beard, along with their spouses Mike Schroeder and Kim Beard; her sisters, Zoe Carrier, Jackie Boliba; and her brother, Jag Beard. She is also survived by her grandparents, Mike and Christy Irish, Patty Wilson (Beard); and her loving aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many friends, who all faithfully followed her journey. Ashley's lifelong friend, Roxanne Wheeler, was at her side as often as she could be.

Ashley Beard

Ashley was born in McMinnville, Ore., and was a resident of Vancouver, Wash., The Dalles, Ore., Astoria, Ore., Youngtown, Ariz., and Las Vegas, Nev.

Ashley attended Clatsop Community College, where she earned her associate degree (while enduring radiation and chemotherapy), and was a junior at Portland State University, where she continued to work online toward a degree in criminal justice until such time that she was no longer able. A beautiful spirit; a loving mother; a cherished daughter, sister, granddaughter; and a beloved friend. In loving memory of Ashley's fondness to pay it forward, we have established the Hayden Bakes Savings Account. Contributions may be made in person or mailed to: Columbia State Bank, 316 East Third St., The Dalles, OR 97058. For more information, contact Megan, Tony or Grandma Christy.

A celebration of Ashley's life will be held in The Dalles at a later date.
