OLDTIME ENGINEER DIES IN THIS CITY

George Kirkwood, Native of Scotland, Passed Away Saturday

RAN IN ROCK ISLAND YEARS AGO

Had Lived at Home of Daughter, Mrs. W. O. Donelson, Several Years

George Kirkwood, a native of Scotland, and one of the oldtime locomotive engineers out of Indianapolis, and later on the Rock Island, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. O. Donelson, Saturday night, Nov. 22, 1913, after an illness of several weeks. He was born in Scotland, in 1837, and lived there until Nov. 14, 1856, when he was married to Janet Sommerville. The next day they left for the United States, and settled first at Indianapolis, where he learned to run a locomotive. They lived there for seven years, and later moved to Keokuk, Iowa, where he took a railway run on the Rock Island. Five years later he moved to a farm in Illinois, where he resided until 1870. In 1882 they went to Seward, Neb., and settled on a farm. They came to Oregon in 1892, and since that time resided either in Forest Grove or Hillsboro.

Four children were born to the union—John A., who died at Flat Rock, Ind., March 27, 1897; Geo. W. and Thomas S., who died in infancy, and Mrs. Mary Donelson, wife of W. O. Donelson, of Hillsboro, his sole surviving child.

Mrs. Kirkwood died at Forest Grove, Dec. 25, 1908, and since that time Mr. Kirkwood has made his home with the Donelsons, here in Hillsboro.

Two grandchildren survive—Mrs. F. J. Sewell and Earl I. Donelson, and one great-grandchild, Evelyn Sewell, all of Hillsboro.

The funeral took place Tuesday, and the remains were taken to the Portland Crematory, near Sellwood, for cremation.

CIRCUIT COURT

Judge Campbell the latter part of the week held a session of circuit court, and disposed of the following:

Watrous vs Naylor, defendant given 5 days to answer.

Dismissed—Dolan vs Phelan, suit for labor.

Paul Kreger granted a divorce from Esther Kreger.

Henry Saffron vs Jno Nyberg, suit to enjoin from operating a quarry; after hearing 13 witnesses for plaintiff and 10 for defendant, the suit was dismissed without costs to either party.

Tuesday was "citizen day" for quite a number, in circuit court, but the department of immigration has been so busy that many were sent home without being examined. The trouble has been with the many all over the Northwest who have filed final papers in the last year. The government always sends out inquiries to the witnesses, and this involves a great deal of work. Hence, the delay, and those not examined yesterday will probably have to wait until 1914.

Mrs. S. Brisbine, of Moro, Sherman County, arrived here Saturday, to visit with her daughter, Mrs. S. E. Hoover. Mrs. Brisbine says she is always glad to get back to Hillsboro, where she lived so many years.

Wm. Bagley Jr., of the Cove Oak ranch, was in town the first of the week. He is the champion trout fisherman in his section—and he has all the big hiding places spotted in the Cove Oak ditch.

Otto Schlininiskui was arrested this week, charged with stealing a shotgun from Ernest Smith, who was camping with him across the river. Judge Smith fined the young man $35 and costs.

W. A. Schilling, optometrist, of Portland, will be in Hillsboro, at Hoffman's jewelry store, Main Street, every Tuesday. Those in need of glasses, properly fitted, should see him. 36-7

Be thankful that you are alive, and that you are alive in Oregon, where the turkeys are the finest in the world.
