A GOOD OFFICER GONE

The body of Bill Veach was sent away for burial today. He has gone to his last sleep, stricken down by a cowardly bullet, but his memory will remain green for a long time in the hearts of the many Sheridan people who knew him and liked him.

It doesn't seem quite proper to refer to him in any other way than "Bill," because he was known by that to every one in the city. It isn't a mark of disrespect, but rather one of affection for a man whom everyone liked.

Veach was a good officer. He was a good friend, and he was a loyal citizen. He did his duty every day, and was prepared for a great many years more of service to his fellow citizens had he not been summarily taken away. No higher tribute can be paid than to say that he was a man, and that he did his duty. Here's peace and a sweet rest to him.—Sheridan, Wyoming, Enterprise.

The above is a tribute paid Wm. Veach, by his local paper. Mr. Veach was killed June 13, and his remains were buried here.

UNION STOCK YARDS

Receipts for the week have been cattle, 1782; calves, 28; hogs, 4018; sheep, 8859.

An extraordinarily heavy run of cattle the first of the week, sixty-three cars being unloaded, half of these being from California points. Several cars of fed stuff sold at 7 50, grass steers 7 25, cows 6 to 6 25, spayed heifers 6 75, price on bulls ranging from 4 to 4 50.

Swine trade opened firm and remained unchanged to the end of the week's period, 8 was the average top price, with receipts of fair volume.

Sheep house action was never more brisk for the month of June than it has been for the last few days. The movement to market attained large proportions, with receipts climbing up around 9000 for the five days. Top grades of sheep and lambs in good demand, and prices steady with last week. Top yearlings 5, two-year olds 4 75, ewes 4 25, lambs 6.

TUALATIN PICNIC

A school picnic and presentation of diplomas to the Eighth Grade Graduating class was held at Tualatin recently.

The picnic supper was served about six o'clock, after which Mr. Blake, chairman of the board of directors, made a very appropriate presentation speech to the class of nine members, all being successful in the examinations.

Principal F. S. Gannett then presented to the school a large baseball pennant representing the championship, and also made a few remarks regarding industrial club work. The picnic was well attended and everyone reported a good time.

Saturday the class and Mr. Gannett went to Portland for a class picture and spend the day seeing the sights. The childrens' day program was given in the Methodist church, all present enjoying a nice entertainment.

The premium list for the Portland land show, Oct. 26 to Nov. 14, which will be issued in about ten days, will provide for about $20,000 in cash and special prizes. In addition to the premiums, specially engraved diplomas will be given. It is expected that the states of Utah, Idaho and Washington will send land product exhibits and otherwise participate in this great exposition. County and district exhibits are particularly desired by the management, also a complete showing of the various phases of the lumber industry of the Northwest. The managers have opened general offices at 408 Commercial Club Building.

R. Hornecker and family leave this week for a few months visit at Talmage, Kansas.
