J. W. Pomeroy, fruit commissioner for the First District, was in the city yesterday and today, with County Inspector J. V. Denny. Mr. Pomeroy and Mr. Denny are now having the orchards in Hillsboro inspected, and this will follow all over Washington County. Many orchards here will be cleaned up, or if owners refuse, then demolished entirely. The campaign will be waged relentlessly from now on in an endeavor to at least take care of those who do spray their trees. Orchards well cared always have infested trees within a short distance of them, and the birds carry both the scale and other pests. The commissioners will do all in their power to have a general cleaning up.

For Sale: A good threshing outfit—14 H. P. engine; 32 inch separator, both Aultman-Taylor makes; haybaler, chopper and water wagon; all, complete $1050; half cash, balance on time. Address "Thresher," Care Argus, Hillsboro, Ore. 34-6

The county court met Monday and made an order against heavy auto-truck hauling on Roads 345, 215, 346, A 128 and 501, from now until May 1. Service is being made on all truck owners, as the hauling is working havoc with the roads. B. L. Wilcox, F. O. Sipprell, Chester Stewart and N. A. Roodlum have already been served with process to abate. County roads A 125, A 91 and A 134 are included, and the order reaches all rock roads where auto trucks are being used. The order governing makes 4,000 lbs. the maximum load where tires are less than 4 inches; and 5000 lbs. on tires from 4 inches upward.
