The grapple of the armies in Europe will tighten within a few weeks, and the carnage of the past will be but a fraction of that which will ensue. In this Christian age it seems that it is the fashion for multitudes of men to shoot each other, while it is a crime for the individual in civil life to get the scalp of his neighbor.

After all, the one big thing that should help times, as a matter of fact, is that millions of American money usually spent in touring Europe will be spent at home. Already Col. Clark Wood, of the Weston Leader, has announced that he will forego his usual stunt of climbing the Alps this year.

Washington County gives promise of a splendid crop this season, and as a result farmers are jubilant. Grain and grass look better than for years, and the copious rains, while hindering work, have been a godsend for the seed already sown.

Gov. West is on trial for damages connected with the Copperfield closing. They ask for $4500, and the governor-that-was says that while he hasn't a cent it makes him feel rich to be sued for so large an amount.

Now that Secretary Bryan has started to encourage Loganberry juice as a beverage Oregon should come to its own. F. J. Williams is thinking of sending a case of celebrated manufacture back to Washington, D. C.

GARRIGUS-REYNOLDS

A very interesting wedding was celebrated at Orchard, Wash., Sunday, April 11, when Rev. J. Garrigus was married to Mrs. Caroline Reynolds.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. R. Parcel, of the M. E. Church of Orchard, in the presence of more than 40 relatives and friends of the couple, including many of the children and grandchildren of the bride and groom. Numerous, useful and beautiful presents were received, and a sumptious wedding feast was served.

Those attending the wedding from this county are: Messrs. and Mesdames A. B. Garrigus Wm. Ingles, R. Lapschat, Forest Grove; Mrs. Albert Friday, of Banks, John Donald, Vivian and Vula Garrigus, Carl, Nora, Glen, Lowell and Ralph Ingles, Leonard and Lowell Lepschat, Ada and Alice Friday.

Rev. Garrigus is erecting a dwelling in Orchard where they will make their future home.

Rev. Garrigus is well and favorably known in Washington Co., having lived for about 35 years in the neighborhood of Banks, settling there when the country round about was a wilderness.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Wirtz, of Forest Grove, April 12, 1915, a son.

Born, to Adolph Schweinfurth and wife, North Plains, April 12, 1915, a son.

Mrs. C. S. Parker and son, Stuart, of Portland, are guests at the Lilligard home, near Laurel.

Mrs. Sam Weil and Miss Christina Olsen were Woodburn visitors, Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Bayfield Pooley, Hillsboro, April 13, 1915, a daughter.

Mrs. Harry Inglebritzen, of Tacoma, was a guest of her sister, Mrs. Leonard Brown, the last or the week.

W. F. Young, of Sherwood, was in the city Tuesday. He is one of the original hopgrowers of his section.

John Kamna, of Farmington, was in town Monday. He says that Spring grain never looked better at this time of the season.

John Wirtz, who has been a citizen of Forest Grove ever since he was out of short trousers, was in town yesterday.

H. B. Dauchy, of Banks, passed through town yesterday enroute to Battle Ground, Wash., to finish up a carpenter contract.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Cornelius arrived in the city the first of the week. Mr. Cornelius went on to Shiperherd's Springs for a week and Mrs. Cornelius will visit here and at Banks, with relatives.

MEN, you chew tobacco for the satisfaction and comfort you get from it. "Right-Cut," the Real Tobacco Chew does satisfy. Gives you the taste, the substance of rich, sappy, mellow tobacco. Seasoned and sweetened just enough.

That's why "Right-Cut" users tell others about it. You'll like it better than the old kind.

Take a very small chew—less than one-quarter the old size. It will be more satisfying than a mouthful of ordinary tobacco. Just nibble on it until you feel the strength chew that suits you. Tuck it away. Then let it rest. See how easily and evenly the red tobacco taste comes, how it satisfies without grinding, how much less you have to spit, how few chews you take to be tobacco satisfied. That's why it is The Real Tobacco Chew. That's why it costs less in the end.

It is a ready chew, cut fine and short shred so that you won't have to grind on it with your teeth. Grinding on ordinary cardied tobacco makes you spit too much.

The taste of pure, rich tobacco does not need to be covered up with molasses and licorice. Notice how the salt brings out the rich tobacco taste in "Right-Cut."

One small chew takes the place of two big chews of the old kind.
