Mrs. T. A. Hughes, who died at the State Sanitarium in Salem last Tuesday morning, was buried in the Cornelius Cemetery, Nov. 17. At her last request services were held at the grave by Rev. E. A. Smith, a Baptist minister from Hillsboro. Laura M. Stringer was born in Iowa, March 16, 1861. In December, 1880, she was united in marriage to T. A. Hughes. Eight children were born to them, and six of them, with the husband, survive her.

T. W. Sain was caught on a jury last week, and it came in the guise of retribution. Just before he was caught by the sheriff he was ready to take a car home, but he couldn't resist coming to the Argus to "gaff" the editor, thereby losing his train and falling into the jury.
