BENJ. SCHOLFIELD CALLED BY DEATH

Pioneer of 1852 Succumbs From Stroke of Paralysis Sunday Eve

WAS FOR YEARS NORMAL REGENT

Funeral Took Place Wednesday Afternoon, at Cornelius M. E. Church

Benjamin Scholfield, pioneer of 1858, died at his home in Cornelius, Sunday evening, June 24, 1917, after being a sufferer for some time from paralysis. His last stroke came Sunday, early in the day, and the end came that evening.

He was born in Illinois, June 20, 1840, and crossed the plains to Salinas County, Cal., in 1852, making the trip across the plains by ox team. He remained in California six years and then came to Oregon. He settled between Hillsboro and Cornelius, and for many years was prominent in the affairs of Washington County. He was one of the original organizers of the First National Bank of Hillsboro, and for some years was a regent of the Oregon State Normal at Monmouth.

Four years after coming to Oregon he was united in marriage to Sarah Vilena Hall. The widow and the following children survive—Mrs. T. S. Cornelius, Astoria, wife of County Judge Cornelius; W. T. Scholfield and Mrs. E. J. Ward, of Staff, Montana; Mrs. Wm. A. Goodin, of Cornelius; Mrs. A. E. Yoder, Portland.

A brother, John Scholfield, Supreme Judge of Illinois, survives.

The funeral took place Wednesday, at the Cornelius M. E. Church, at 2 o'clock, and interment was in the Hillsboro cemetery.

Mr. Scholfield was one of the substantial citizens of the county, and he was always intensely interested in public affairs. He was noted for his integrity and strength of character, and counted his friends by the hundreds.

Do you want a homestead? If so, can locate you on some fine ones in Central Oregon. In time these will be valuable. A few left of 160 acres each.—Wm. B. Delsman, Box 206, Hillsboro, Or. Phone City 102. 9-tf

Hundreds of silos are being built in the county this year, supplementing the many constructed last season. The making of ensilage is to be the big feature in county dairying, and the beauty of it is that it is a money saver in more ways than one.

For Sale: A Ford car in good repair. Cheap for cash or bankable note.—Apply A. L. Holcomb, 6 miles N. E. of Hillsboro. Tel. Farm 307. 14-6

Capt. Margettes, who is married to a niece of Mrs. J. A. Imbrie, of Hillsboro, is now aide to Gen. Pershing, in command of the Americans in France. Capt. Margettes speaks French deliberately, and speaks for Pershing. The other day he addressed the French soldiers for Gen. Pershing and he was greeted with salvo after salvo of applause. Mrs. Margettes has been residing at Ft. Myer, Va., for several months, and goes to join her husband in France at the first opportunity. The Captain has visited the Imbries in this city. He has been in the military service for the United States for many years, and was a Lieutenant when he visited in Hillsboro.

For Sale: Twenty-one acres, 1½ miles north of Hillsboro; 15 acres cleared; good buildings; orchard; mail and milk routes; telephone; rock road; creek.—M. E. Watson, Hillsboro, Oregon, Route 1. 10-16

Hay buyers who handle thousands of tons of product in Washington County are unanimous in asking that farmers allow their product to cure before baling. Last year numerous tons were sold that meant loss to buyers, and they are getting more than chary these times, when inspection is close, owing to the scale of prices. All hay should really go through a 30-day period in the stack before baling. If this is not done buyers in Portland will force a differential on the prices between hay baled before properly cured and that which is not baled until it has gone through the sweat.

Green Hale came out from Portland a few days ago to put his Summer home into shape for occupancy. He and Mrs. Hale will spend the better part of the Summer here, and their son, Wm. Hale, and family, of Illinois, will be their guests for a period.

Dance at Helvetia Hall, Saturday night, July 7. Sneed's orchestra. Feuerstein Bros., Managers. 15-6 z

Miss Helen Johnson, of Eugene, was a guest of Miss Minnie Morrill, the last of the week. She departed Saturday for a trip to Michigan, and will make several stops along the route.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Simms, East Hillsboro, June 26, 1917, a son.

LAST CHAPTER

The last chapter of the O. & C. land fight has closed. Judge Wolverton has ordered the mandate of the Supreme Court spread on the court records here in Oregon and it is now finally and irrevocably settled. The government will pay the back taxes and proceed with the sale and settlement of the lands, and then the proceeds will be distributed as follows, Washington County getting in on nearly 18,000 acres:

First—The Government is to be repaid the amount it pays out for taxes.

Second—The railroad company is to receive $2.50 an acre for the land as it is sold, from which amount, however, is to be deducted all sums that heretofore have been received by the company through sale of lands in the grant in excess of $2.50 an acre.

Third—Twenty-five per cent. of the remainder is to be paid to the State Treasurer of Oregon to become part of the irreducible school fund.

Fourth—Twenty-five per cent. is to be paid to the treasurers of the 19 land grant counties to be used for the common schools, roads, highways, bridges and port bonds.

Fifth—Forty per cent. is to go to the United States reclamation fund.

Sixth—Ten per cent. is to be paid into the Treasury of the United States.

Federal Reserve Bank Close at Hand

THE FHDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM is about to establish a Branch Bank in Portland as further convenience and and added protection to its Member Banks. This will permit The Hillsboro National Bank to become even more adaptable to the needs of the farmer, merchant, manufacturer and household.

If you are in need of assistance in planting, cultivating or marketing, come in and let us hear of your problems. Now is a good time to open that bank account here, too.

He left Wells, McPheeters and Garrett in fine spirits and as bronzed as Indians. They return by auto.

SPANISH WAR VETS IN ENCAMPMENT HERE

Third Regiment Band Came From Clackamas Yesterday on Holiday

SESSION OF 9TH ANNUAL MEETING

Encampment Close Tonight With Big Military Ball at Moose Hall

The Oregon Spanish War Veterans convened here yesterday for their ninth annual encampment, and with them was the Ladies' Auxiliary. The main body came in at 9:25, and march through town to the court house, where the sessions were held. With them was the Third Regiment band from Clackamas, the first musical aggregation that has ever visited Hillsboro. The Boy Scouts Drum Corps of 30 little chaps was also in the parade, and remained over today.

Mayor Wall welcomed the veterans in a stirring speech, and he was supplemented by Hugh Rogers, commander of the local camp, and Mrs. L. W. Hyde, for the ladies of the auxiliary. Responses were made by Elmer Lundborg, of Portland, and Cora Thompson, president of the State Auxiliary. Dr. L. W. Hyde sang the Battle Hymn of the Republic, and with that the session settled down to business.

Last night there was another parade, and the vets put on a serpentine parade, a third degree proposition.

The band captured the town off the reel, and two former Hillsboro boys are members—Ted Baldra, and young Clow, a son of Wm. Clow. All the Third Regiment boys from Hillsboro were here, and were in the parade yesterday, returning at midnight in machines driven by Fred Sewell, Dr. Robb and Peterson Bros.

Gov. Withycombe is expected tonight to deliver an address, and the session will wind up with a big ball in Moose Hall, at which some of the Third Regiment, together with enlisted men, will be present.

Forest Grove has had a big week, the state G. A. R. being in encampment there, this being supplemented by a Fireman's carnival. Hundreds of Civil War vets, with their wives, and the Relief Corps were present and the town gave them splendid reception.

The Spanish War vets today elected officers—Clyde R. Nicholson, Portland, Dept. Commander; Robert S. Greene, Albany, senior vice dept. com.; Jas. E. Brockway, Portland, junior vice; Geo. H. Carr, Portland, deputy inspector; Robt. Kumerow, of Salem, judge advocate; Dr. L. W. Hyde, of Hillsboro, surgeon; Rev. E. A. Smith, Hillsboro, chaplain; Elmer Lundborg, Portland, patriotic instructor; Capt. L. A. Harms, Portland, marshal; F. A. Mead, McMinnville, historian.

After election the annual joke of arresting Ed. Hawker, alias "Doc Yak," was pulled off by Deputy Sheriff Alexander—and Yak put up old No. "348" as surety for his release, and left Little Yutch, better known as Hugh Rogers, in charge of the machine.

For sale: Two horses, weight, 1100 or over.—Otto Ganquin, Tigard, Ore. 15-7 z

Attorney C. J. Schnabel, of Portland, was out today, on legal business.

Alby Therriault, formerly of Hillsboro, now of Warland, Mont., is visiting here for a day or so.

A. L. Holcomb and wife, of Bethany, were city visitors Wednesday.

Summer Kindergarten—This is still open to new members, 3 to 10 years; 11 and 12 years accepted, also. On Friday afternoon, from 3 to 4 o'clock, a Mothers' meeting will be held at the Cong. Church. All mothers and friends are invited. Please extend the invitation to any who may be considering the training work.

Mrs. E. T. Helms entertained last Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Walter H. Davis, of Everett, Wn. Those entertained were Mesdames Fred J. Sewell, Grover Combs, Leonard Brown, W. N. Harris, W. H. Paisley, Will Atcheson, Will Bowman and C. M. Powell.
