CHIEF OF POLICE NOTICE

Many complaints are coming to me of chickens running at large. Some people no doubt are under the impression that the city ordinance does not apply to chickens during the winter season, but this is not true. The law is effective at all times.

Therefore, this notice is to say that the ordinance regarding keeping up chickens will be rigidly enforced, regardless of person or circumstances. Too many complaints are coming in to allow the ordinance to be further violated.

Chief of Police.

NEARLY 17,000 MEN WORK IN SHIPYARDS

Saw Mills of State Getting Ready for Campaign

SPRUCE CUTTING NOW ON

Strahorn Road in Central Oregon Completes 20 Miles

Portland—Between 16,000 and 17,000 men are employed in shipyards of Oregon at the present time.

Reedsport—800,000 pounds of fresh salmon and 7300 cases canned, shipped from here by one company past season. Three companies operating.

Silver Lake—20 miles of Strahorn railroad completed.

Marshfield— C. A. Smith Co. is considering plans for converting its idle pulp mill buildings at the Coos Bay mills into apartments or a boarding house for additional employes who will be required if double shifting all plants becomes an actuality to get out spruce orders.

Sec. Dodson, of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, has been doing invaluable work for the state in connection with increasing shipbuilding lumber and airplane material industry here. Every encouragement should be given these industries.

Divide—Pilot Lumber Co. is repairing the old O. L. T. mill and will begin operations soon.

St. Helens—Citizens, city and county raise fund of $9000 to build road from here to Columbia City shipyards, where 500 men are employed, a majority of whom live at St. Helens.

Brownsville—Cannery ships 13 carloads canned goods in 1917, cars ranging from 60,000 to 90,000 pounds.

Milton—Box factory here is nearing completion.

Marshfield—Sunrise Condensery to build addition and increase output 75 per cent.

Eugene—U. of O. base hospital unit taken over into army of U. S.; $60,000 equipment assembled.

Wendling—150 men employed in rebuilding Booth-Kelly planing mill here which was destroyed by fire several months ago.

Most every town along the coast in Washington and Oregon wants the government to build a branch railroad "to haul spruce from each individual section."

Columbia City—Contracts for 8 ships for government let to local shipyards.

Columbia City—New logging camp to open several miles west of here. Will have payroll of $2,000 per month.

St. Helens Shipbuilding Co. plans to erect hotel on Sauvies Island, adjoining plant.

Oregon City—Construction of new 2-story brick structure here.

NOTICE OF FINAL SETTLEMENT

In The County Court of The State Of Oregon For Washington County.

In the Matter of the Estate of John Scharer, Deceased.

NOTICE is hereby given that the undersigned administrator of said estate has filed in the above entitled Court and cause his final account and report as such administrator, and the said Court has fixed and appointed Monday the 25th day of February, 1918, at the hour of 10 o'clock A. M. of said day, and the Court Room of the above entitled Court in Hillsboro, Oregon, as the time and place for hearing objections to said final account and for the final settlement of said estate.

Dated this 22d day of January, 1918.

DAVID TSCHABOLD,
Administrator of estate aforesaid.
HARE, McALEAR & PETERS,
Attorneys of administrator.

Peter Walters, of East Plains, was in the city Tuesday.

Tony Sinay and Jas. Loudon, of above Blooming, were Hillsboro visitors Tuesday.

Geo. Armentrout, the oldtimer of the Greenville section, was in Hillsboro Tuesday.

Harland Kelly and wife, of above North Plains, were city callers Saturday.

Arthur Vanacker, of Cornelius, was in town Tuesday. His son, Emil, is now with the American army in France.

Jas. Mahon, with the Coast Artillery, was selected to help grade papers in mathematics examination recently, held by the commandant. This is quite a distinction in artillery circles.

PRESIDENT ACTS

President Wilson has reversed the decision of the District Board, and allows Harry Hansen, son of Nels Hansen, of Bethany, to be exempt from the army. Hansen is already in the service, probably in France, and if not, in some Eastern barracks. He will be sent home at once, or as soon as the department can get the notices to the commandant where Hansen is located. Family conditions, and the agricultural claim, were the reasons assigned by Hansen for exemption.

In the case of appeal by Wm. Huntemann, of Oak Park, the President affirmed the decision of the District Board, and he will remain in the army. These are the first two claims acted on by President Wilson since the Oregon selective draft went into effect.

MARRIED MEN

"On May 18, 1917, every person subject to registration had notice of his obligation to render military service to his country. The purpose of the Selective Service Law was not to suspend the institution of marriage among registrants, but boards should scrutinize marriages since May 18, 1917, and especially those hastily effected since that time, to determine whether the marriage relation was entered into with a primary view of evading military service, and unless such is found not to be the case boards are hereby authorized to disregard the relationship so established as a condition of dependency requiring deferred classification under these regulations."

The above is sent out as a department ruling, and is of interest.

Geo. Fitzlaff, of the South Tualatin sawmill, was a city caller Monday.

W. G. Walker, of Banks, and M. Sturm Jr., of above Blooming, were city visitors Tuesday afternoon.

John Shute, a son of Mrs. Anna Shute, now enlisted, was home Sunday, the guest of his mother. He has been in the army since December 14.

Gen. Ransom Post and Relief Corps will hold a memorial service in honor of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, at the Post rooms in the court house on February 1st, at 2 o'clock P. M. The public is invited to attend.—By order of Committee.
