"NOW-A-DAYS"

says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind.

He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

To those interested in the work of the American Red Cross—Considerable difficulty has been encountered in finding volunteers enough to canvass the various districts in the eastern section of the county. No doubt many individuals will not be canvassed, many of whom are still interested in the Red Cross work and would gladly pay the $1 membership fee if seen. Anyone can enroll by sending $1.00 to H. A. Deck, Hillsboro, who will send you a receipt for the same.

Congregational Church services—Bible School at 10 a. m. Worship and sermon at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., the topics, "Will a Man Rob God?" and "Called From the Plow." Christian Endeavor at 6:45 p. m. The annual congregational meeting will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 1, at 7.30 p. m. There will be reports from the various departments of the church, and other business. Besides this there will be a social hour with program and refreshments. The men of the church will provide the refreshments.

Feed Every 3rd HOG FREE

MILKOLINE FOR HOGS

PROVE at our risk that you can easily save one-third on high priced feed, cut 10 to 20 days off the feeding period and have healthier hogs by feeding MILKOLINE.

Aids Digestion Milkoline has a base of pasteurized and sterilized, modified Buttermilk. It is guaranteed not to contain any sulphuric acid or anything injurious to hogs or poultry. It helps tone up the system, making hogs less subject to disease, practically insuring gains of 2½ lbs. a head per day.

University Tested Prof. W. R. Combs while Asst. Prof. of Dairy Husbandry at Missouri University, conducted a scientific test which showed that MILKOLINE fed hogs made a profit of $2.57½ more than those not fed Milkoline. W. H. Graham, Middletown, Md., said $80 worth of Milkoline made an extra profit of $420 in 20 days. Lee Jackson, Wappingers Falls, N. Y., says Milkoline is great for shoats and sows.

Milkoline 2c a Gal. Milkoline comes in condensed form, and when fed as directed costs only 2c a gallon. It is guaranteed not to spoil, rot, sour or mould. Keeps indefinitely in any climate. Flies do not come near it. The prices are as follows: 5 gal. $7.50; 10 gal. $12.50; 25 gal. $16.50; 35 gal. $22.00; 50 gal. $40.00.

30 Day Trial Try Milkoline at our risk for 30 days—if not satisfied that it is the best farm money maker and saver you ever saw it costs you nothing. Simply send check or money order for any amount today, feed one-half to poultry and hogs in a 30 day trial; then if not satisfied return unused part at our expense and we'll immediately refund every cent you paid us. You are the sole judge, and have everything to gain and nothing to lose by making this test. Our interesting and valuable booklet, "How To Hustle Heavy Hogs To Market" will be sent free on request—your name on a card will do.

Pulp Mill Will be Erected at Silverton

Salem—Because of the general drop in lumber prices the C. K. Spaulding Logging Company has notified its several hundred employees that it must reduce the wages of common labor from $4.60 to $4.00 per day, and the wages of other employees will be cut in proportion. The Thomas Kay Woolen Mills is making a 15 per cent reduction to extend throughout the entire plant. The Phez Co. is contemplating similar action and the paper mill is figuring on slight reductions. This action seems necessary to meet the new level of prices and keep the plants in operation.
