REITER TAKES CENSUS

C. G. Reiter, engineer in charge of the state highway for this section, reports the following census taken July 19:

Hillsboro to Portland highway via both the routes—Oregon passenger cars, 1413; other states passenger cars, 66; trucks, 254; horse drawn vehicles, 6; motorcycles, 43. This makes a total of 1782 vehicles.

A resume shows that 1,000 vehicles of the foregoing went over the Canyon road, while 782 went over the Bertha route. The cars making the loop were 104, rounding via Newberg, McMinnville and Hillsboro.

On the Forest Grove end, passing thru from that point towards Gaston—Oregon passenger cars, 431; other states, 15; trucks, 104; horsedrawn, 54—total vehicles, 604.

The time consumed during the census taking was between the hours of 6 a. m. to 10 p. m.

District Attorney E. B. Tongue spent the past week at Wilhoit, in Clackamas county, trying the waters of the famous resort. E. B. went over on the advice of Circuit Judge J. U. Campbell, who swears by the place. Judge Campbell says the doctors gave him up a few years ago and he went up to Wilhoit to wink out. He is satisfied that Wilhoit mineral water saved his life, and he is a great advertiser for the place. Campbell takes Tongue out on a two-hour hike every day and then brings him to the springs and loads him with a cargo of water—and if you are at Wilhoit, and Judge Campbell is there, you laugh at the old saying, "you may take a horse to water, but you can't make him drink"—for you can't dodge the Court, and you will just have to drink.

Reedville believes in "taking care of its own" when it comes to disaster to any member of its baseball team. Jim Case broke his arm a few Sundays ago, at Banks, and the town gave a benefit ball game last Sunday and took in over $64 for the pitcher. On Saturday night of this week the boys will give him a benefit dance at the Huber Commercial Club rooms, and it will be a dollar a throw for tickets. The hall is donated and the music is a gratuity—and Reedville asks the folks to turn out and help the affair along and incidentally help their star pitcher in his hour of necessity.

John Kamna has bought a J. I. Case threshing outfit, principally for his own use, altho he will do a little outside work for his immediate neighbors. His separator is a 26-46 and it is operated by a tractor. Bob Hartrampf and Roy Heinrichs went out and started the outfit running Monday. Jim Thompson, of Mountaindale, bought a smaller Case separator for work up in his section, the machine being a 22-36. This is also operated by a tractor.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Myer, of San Francisco, departed for home Monday, after an extended visit with Mrs. Myer's parents, the J. L. Barngrovers, of West Baseline. Mr. Myer is a contractor in the Golden Gate city and at times has over 50 houses under contract construction. They motored North and have been visiting at Hillsboro and at Tualatin, Mrs. John Nyberg being a sister of Mrs. Myer.

J. H. Garrett, of the C. C. Store, and Fred Holznagel, of the local post office force, returned the last of the week from a motor trip as far south as the Yosemite Valley, California. The gentlemen had a fine time and saw all the wonders of nature that were to be found in that section of the golden west.

Henry David, of Forest Grove, was in the city the last of the week. David has his twenty-acre prune orchard in splendid shape, not a weed to be found in the entire tract. He says that a flood like that of a few years ago would play havoc with the orchard, as he has the soil worked to mellowness.

John W. Bailey and August Tews departed Saturday for the Bend-Prineville country, where they will look over a ranch in which Tews is interested. They expect to make their way back over the McKenzie Pass, and then motor down the Willamette Valley.

Mrs. Marie Mays and two sons, William and Paul, returned from Rockaway a few days ago and departed the last of the week for Junction City. From there they will go to Broadmead, where they will spend a few days with Mrs. Mays' brother, Wm. Hostetler.

The Woman's Relief Corps will enjoy a basket dinner at Shute Park, Friday, August 4. The members of the Post having birthdays in the second quarter will be remembered.
