Grace Episcopal

Following the 10 a.m. Sunday service at Grace Episcopal Church, 1545 Franklin Ave., there is a reception for the new art exhibit hanging in the Parish Hall from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. This exhibit features Sheila Brown of Astoria, known locally for her black and white linoleum block prints, and her daughter, Angela Kemling of Portland, who paints bright colors in acrylic on canvas. The public is welcome.

The two artists have talked about doing an exhibit together for many years. Brown's work has been seen in many shows, but this is Kemling's first. The exhibit runs through April 29, and the Parish Hall is open for viewing from 9 a.m. to noon, Monday through Thursday.

The monthly Second Sunday Soup-Supper meal at Grace Church is served at 4 p.m. in the Parish Hall, free of charge. Those willing to help should come at 3 p.m. to set up or 5 p.m. to help clean up.

For information, call the church at 503-325-4691 or go to www.graceastoria.org

Bill Harris named Elk of the Year

SEASIDE — The installation of the 2015-2016 Officers of Seaside Elks Lodge 1748 was held March 28, when Exalted Ruler Jerry Lounsbury named Bill Harris as Elk of the Year. This is the highest award a member can receive, and was presented to Harris in recognition of his many volunteer activities, and for his dedication to the community and to Seaside Lodge.

Jerry Lounsbury

Carol Gates was named Citizen of the Year in recognition of her continued hard work and volunteerism. Treasurer Jan Jackson was named Officer of the Year for her commitment to the operation of the Lodge.

The 2015-2016 Officers were installed by the Past Exalted Rulers. The new leaders of Seaside Lodge 1748 are Exalted Ruler Jerry Lounsbury, Leading Knight John Gates, Lecturing Knight Mike Heuvelhorst, Treasurer Jan Jackson, Secretary Joan Beneke, Tiler Fred Loser, Chaplain Joy

Cruz and Trustees David Darling, Jeanne Uzelac and John Morris.

Lodge officers attended the District Deputy Clinic in St. Helens April 4. The Seaside Lodge was honored for having exceeded the per capita goal for Elks National Foundation donations, and also received credit for being third in the state for the number of students who participated in the local Hoop Shoot.

It was also announced that Margaret Neuwirth, a fifth grade student at Seaside Heights Elementary School, was the Northwest District first-place winner with her Eye Injury Prevention Poster, which will now be judged at the state level. Seth Trevino, an eighth-grade student at Broadway Middle School, won first place in the Northwest District, and second place at the state level, for his Americanism Essay Contest entry.

Stamp Out Hunger with crafty event

On April 18, Red Dwarf Graphx is sponsoring Stamp Out Hunger, a fundraiser for the Clatsop Emergency Food Bank.

This is an all-day crop for scrapbookers, card-makers and paper-crafters.

Admission is eight canned food or personal hygiene items for the food bank. Participants can come any time between 9 a.m. and 9 p.m., staying all or part of the day.

Entrance to the event also entitles them to chances for door prizes, free make-and-takes (mini workshops where they will learn new techniques or practice old ones) and lunch, which will be provided by Astoria Subway, Kips Kandy, T. Paul's Supper Club and T.Paul's Urban Café.

Participants should plan to bring their own scrapbook or card projects to work on, as well as the tools and materials needed to complete them. There will be 12 to 14 make-and-take demonstrations by local artists and others from around Oregon. In addition to the door prizes, which participants must be present to win, there will be a raffle for two grand prizes:

- A Peddler's Pack Prize Package worth more than $150.
• A Romance Package, including a night at the Cannery Pier Hotel and dinner at Bridgewater Bistro.

Tickets for the raffle are just $5 each, or three for $10. You do not have to be present to win the raffle prizes. The crop is being held at the First Presbyterian Church Fellowship Hall at 11th and Harrison streets in Astoria.

Spring is a slow time for donations. This is an opportunity to drop off canned food, pet food, pasta, rice, boxed food, or personal hygiene items for the food bank. For more information on Stamp Out Hunger, contact Bobbi Brice or Cindy Miller by emailing StampOutHunger@yahoo.com, or check its Facebook page.
