Union Service in City God Friday

A three-hour service will be held in the Methodist church, corner Third and Washington, on Good Friday. The service will begin at twelve noon and last until three o'clock. The different churches of the city will be responsible for various parts of the program.

There will be seven periods of approximately twenty-five minutes each. Brief messages on the seven last words of our Saviour from the ministers will be given during each one of these periods. Songs appropriate to the message will be rendered as solo, duet or by the congregation.

The public is urged by those in charge to attend this service. It one cannot remain for all, but for only one or more periods, they will be welcome to come and go. This is the first union effort of this character by the churches of the city and they want to make it a great service.

Bethany Group to Present Pageant

The pageant, in three acts, "The Beggar at the Beautiful Gate," will be presented by the young people's society of the Bethany Baptist church April 19, at 8 p. m.

The pageant is based on the story of the healing of the lame man by the Apostle Peter as recorded in Acts 3:1-10. After the beggar is healed his conversion is brought about through a series of tableaux depicting the work, death, and resurrection of the Lord. Music and singing play a definite part in these scenes. In act three Peter and John are vindicated and Christ is triumphant.

The large cast of actors and singers is comprised of members of the young people's society.

There is no admission charge and everyone is cordially invited.
