Wedding Anniversary Celebrated Sunday

About 125 attended the golden wedding anniversary reception for Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Olson Sunday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock in the Veterans' hall, and offered felicitations. Their eldest son, Zenas Olson, acted as master of ceremonies and announced the following appropriate program:

Vocal solo, "Silver Threads Among the Gold," Mrs. L. C. Kramien; "Schubert's Serenade," and "Shepherdess of Sleep," by the Legion Auxiliary sextet, Mesdames L. C. Kramien, C. E. Wells, Fred Caldwell, Leon S. Davis, and John Pubols, Kathleen Nolan being unable to be present; a reading, "Old Sweetheart of Mine," by Miss Martha James; vocal solo, "I Love You Truly," by Mrs. Robert Soule, and duet, "Sweeter as the Days Go By," Mrs. Soule and Miss Theona Putnam, and a toast by Mrs. H. H. Stannard, paraphrasing Edgar Guest's poem, "It Takes a Heap of Living." Miss Mildred James was piano accompanist.

Mrs. R. L. Putnam and Mrs. Margaret Webb poured tea, Mrs. Emma McKinney presided at the punch bowl, and Mesdames Zenas and Onas Olson assisted in serving. Tea was served from a beautiful silver tea set brought from India by Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Olson. The refreshment table was decorated with brass bowls of gold colored flowers, with the centerpiece a three-tier cake of white and gold, baked by their daughter, Mrs. H. J. Ditter, and decorated with golden roses and the numeral "50," in gold. Another attractive piece on the table was a gold colored card holding $15, with 50 made with dimes pasted in the center, a gift from the Christian church, of which they are members. Many other nice presents were received by Mr. and Mrs. Olson.

The wedding certificate and old family pictures were on display. Three persons were present who had attended the wedding 50 years ago at the Kuykendall home near Yamhill on September 24, 1887. They were Mrs. Anna Olson of Gaston, a sister-in-law, and Lawrence Kuykendall and Mrs. Blanche Kuykendall Walker of Yamhill, who were children at that time.

S. E. Olson was born in Sweden June 10, 1853, and Franka Simmons was born near Yamhill on June 21, 1863. Their four children, Mrs. Pernilla Ditter of Eugene, Zenas A. Olson of Milwaukie, Onas S. Olson of Salem, and Mrs. Laveda Duncan of Tillamook were present with their families, and enjoyed a family dinner at the home preceding the reception. Their six grandchildren, Mrs. Clyda Halsell of Portland, Elizabeth Ann Olson of Milwaukie, John, Harry, James and Nancy Ann Duncan of Tillamook were all present, and their two great-grandchildren, Avanelle and John Halsell.

Rainbow Girls to Install Officers

Hillsboro Assembly No. 23, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will hold installation of officers Saturday evening at eight at the Masonic temple. Miss Louise Cruzen, past worthy advisor, will act as installing officer, and Miss Dixie Lee MacDowell, as musician. Members of Palestine chapter, Order of DeMolay, will assist in the installation ceremony. Martha Washington assembly members will be guests.

A program and dancing following the meeting have been arranged for entertainment.

Gerald VanLom to be Installed Wednesday Night

Gerald VanLom, prominent Hilhi senior student and athlete, will be formally inaugurated as the thirteenth president of the council of the Christian clubs of Hillsboro, during the first Convocation of the clubs for the new school year Wednesday evening at Pilgrim House, headquarters of the clubs. Convocation, the joint meeting of all chapters of the council, will begin at 7:30, and will be open to any who care to attend.

Guest speaker for the occasion will be Father Richard Carberry, new athletic coach of St. Mary's, Huber. Father Carberry, who was a star halfback under Notre Dame's Elmer Layden, at Dusquene University, as well as captain of the university track team, is a member of the famous football family who starred at Notre Dame and the University of Iowa. One brother is line coach at Fordham, another is freshman coach at John Carrol (Cleveland), and a third brother is head coach at South Dakota Normal. Father Carberry came to St. Mary's from Eugene, where he coached both basketball and baseball teams to state championships.

Other guests of the council for the evening will include Mayor J. H. Garrett, who will bring the greetings of the city fathers to the new head of the Christian Council; President Berneta Kummer of the Business and Professional Women's club; Leon S. Davis, secretary of the chamber of commerce, James M. Wells, an alumnus of the clubs, from the Young Men's Breakfast club; Hugh Rogers, vice-chancellor commander of the Knights of Pythias; A. H. Abts, supreme knight of the Knights of Columbus; Mrs. Fred Engeldinger and Jake Weil of Council's Advisory board. Judge Donald T. Templeton, chairman of the Advisory Board, will preside at the convocation. Past President Richard M. Abts will present the gavel to the incoming president, in the absence of retiring president Allan J. Sigler, who is in Southern Oregon, and Pastor Henry S. Haller, council advisor, will administer the oath of office.

Convocation will be closed with the ceremonies of Paradise Chapter, memorializing three members of the Council groups who passed away since the last convocation, M. Kathleen Gregg (Alphas), LeRoy Jack (C-Hi) and Shirley A. Kelley (Gammas). During the ceremony Elwood Coslett will be the soloist. Past President Bud Phelps will conduct the Paradise Chapter ritual, with Chapter Presidents Ellen Lundin, Dorothy Sohler, Arthur Iwasaki and Raymond Lair, and Council Secretary Catharine Peschka taking part.

Ireland Employes Guests at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Ireland entertained the store employes and their wives at a dinner at Nendels on Friday evening. Places were laid for twenty-seven.

Legion, Auxiliary Install Officers at Joint Meeting

Officers of Hillsboro post, American Legion and Auxiliary were installed Tuesday night at a special joint meeting of the post. Britt Nedry of Tigard, past district commander, was installing officer for the Legion and Mrs. Emma McKinney, past president of the Hillsboro Auxiliary, officiated for her group. William Dierdorff acted as and Mrs. A. H. Busch was sergeant-at-arms for the Auxiliary.

Legion officers installed included Jake Weil, commander; Arthur Kroeger, first vice-commander; Fred Engeldinger, second vice-commander; A. J. Foelker, adjutant; Russell Tisdale, finance officer; Carl Russell, chaplain, and Guy Rosecrans, sergeant-at-arms.

Leon Davis was presented with a gold star for having procured the most members last year, Mr. Nedry making the presentation. H. L. MacKenzie, who received second prize, a silver star, was not present.

Mrs. Fred Engeldinger was installed as president of the Auxiliary, and other officers installed were Mrs. Leon S. Davis, first vice-president; Mrs. John Pubols, second vice-president; Mrs. Fred Amacher, secretary; Mrs. E. A. Griffith, treasurer; Mrs. R. D. English, chaplain; Mrs. C. D. Hudson, historian, and Mrs. Ethel Powers, sergeant-at-arms.

The program, which was announced by Thurston Johnson of the Legion committee, included the singing of the Star Spangled Banner, led by Russell Morgan; songs by the Auxiliary trio, quartet, and sextet, accompanied by Miss Mildred Janes; tap dancing by Dorine Foelker, with Velma Abendroth as acompanist; accordion selections by Dale Busch, and singing of A. E. F. songs, led by Russell Morgan with Mrs. Kathleen Nolan as accompanist.

Mr. Nedry was accompanied from Tigard by Mrs. Nedry and son, and Mrs. Bert Hagen.

Rebekahs Observe 86th Anniversary; Couples Honored

The Rebekah lodge celebrated the eighty-sixth anniversary of the organization Tuesday night, with a business meeting and entertainment.

Mrs. Cora E. Heaton gave a talk on the founding of the Rebekah lodge, and musical selections were given by Harry Pearson and Paul Oliver. Gloria McGuire entertained with a tap dance.

Honored during the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Merrell and Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Olsen, who recently celebrated their golden wedding anniversaries. After receiving vases from Mrs. E. M. Bowman, they were taken to an old-fashioned garden prepared by the F. L. girls. A bouquet of roses was given to each lady while Minerva Fuller sang "An Old-Fashioned Garden."

Following addresses by officers, moving pictures of I. O. O. F. picnics in Oregon and of the Rose parade were shown by A. J. Lenon, editor of the Pacific Odd Fellow.

State officers present included Edythe Florence Kelly, past president of Rebekah Assembly of Oregon and of the Past Presidents' association of Rebekah Assembly; Joe Eckley, deputy grand master, grand lodge of Oregon; J. P. Watts, grand marshal, grand lodge of Oregon; Nettie Greenough, past department president, Ladies' Auxiliary of Patriarch Militant.

Auxiliary Has First Meeting Tuesday

First meeting of the new year for the Auxiliary to the American Legion will be held Tuesday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, in the Veterans' hall on Main street. The officers, who will officiate for the first time, will also act as hostesses.

Announcement of the year's committees will be made by the president, Mrs. Fred Engeldinger. Members are urged to start the new year right by attending the meeting.

Sea Scouts Enjoy Cruise Sunday

Sea Scouts of the Ship Rainbow enjoyed their second fall cruise up the Columbia river Sunday. They left the Portland Yacht club base about 6 a. m. and reached government island after four hours sailing and rowing. They left the island at two, after dinner and a rest, and arrived at the sea scout base about 4 p. m. A stiff breeze carried them most of the way downstream, and several times on a starboard tack the lee gunwale of the ship was awash. T. G. Bronleewe Sr. was a guest on the cruise.

Mrs. J. O. Robb and Marvin Robb left Wednesday for a few days' stay at the Robb farm at Yoncalla.

Miss Helen Pearson, teacher at Cloverdale, spent the week-end with relatives in Hillsboro.
