District Sunday School Meet at Laurel Sunday

Sunrise Service on Easter Attracts; Union Meets Tonight

(By Mrs. F. L. Brown)

LAUREL—The district Sunday school convention will be held here Sunday. The six schools to be represented will hold their regular services in their respective churches then have a pot luck dinner in the Laurel community hall dining room at 12:30. If all could deliver their dinner baskets at the hall prior to that time, the committee would be grateful. No dishes or silverware need be brought. The afternoon program will begin at the church at 2 o'clock.

Sunrise Service Beautiful

A beautiful sunrise with only a slight bank of fog for a short time, greeted the attendants at the Easter morning service on Bald Peak. Rev. Sartwell, pastor of the Laurel church, which sponsored the event, gave the short address with prayer by Rev. H. A. Deck of Hillsboro. Special music was a chorus from Laurel, "In Glory He Appears," a solo, "My Redeemer," by Helen Mae Guenther of Mountain Top and a solo, "Sunrise," by Walter Jaquith of Scholls. Just as this last song was being sung the sun appeared bright over the hills.

Program Interests

The Easter program given at the church was well attended. Ferns, potted plants and cut flowers were used in decorating. Program numbers were recitations by David Losli, Eleanor Whitmore and Frankie Bertalot; a skit, "What Easter Does," by the Juniors with Marjorie Will as soloist; an exercise, "Emblems of Easter," by five boys; a song by the Broadcasters class; an exercise; "The First Easter Day," by six boys; violin solo by Mrs. Evelyn Rutschman; chorus by Friendly Corner and Comrades classes, play "Resurrection and the Life" by the Broadcasters class, solo by Billy McNay.

Bible Presented

Marjorie Losli was presented with a Bible from the Sunday school as a reward for work done in her Sunday school class. Pastor Sartwell made the presentation. Elaine Whitmore was awarded a certificate and a New Testament for memory work perfectly recited.

Play April 22

"George in a Jam," a three-act comedy, will be given at the community hall here April 22 by the Laurel-Scholls Junior Farmers' union. Characters are represented by Adrian Hornecker, Velda Kraus, Ed Seus, Nadine Hergert, Clarence, Celestine and Lawrence Waibel, Patricia Kline, Evelyn Plass and Frank Setniker. The play will start promptly at 8 o'clock and will be followed by dancing. Mrs. Walter Orr, director of the play, reports that the play has been very well received where it has been given at several places in the county.

Engagement Announced

Mrs. W. L. Stevens of Hillsboro announced the engagement of her daughter, Irene, to Robert Hartrampf of Hillsboro, at a family dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Stevens at their home here Tuesday evening of last week. Miss Stevens is a former resident here, being a graduate of the Laurel grade school and of Hillsboro high school. She is also a Monmouth Normal school graduate and taught school in two neighboring districts here and at Oswego, six years in all. She was always active in community work. She now resides with her mother in Hillsboro. Mr. Hartrampf is from a prominent Hillsboro family. The wedding will be a November event.
