

POINT of view

'What are your summer travel plans?'

"I'm going to go out and about in Oregon during the summer, then I'm driving to Alaska at the end of summer. It's nice up there that time of year — no mosquitoes."

Frank Satterwhite, Astoria

"We don't have any plans. But if I could, I'd go somewhere tropical. I've never been out of the U.S. Somewhere where there are white beaches and clear blue water, and you can see to the bottom."

Hannah Bryan, Astoria

"Two camping trips — one to Silverton, and one to Crater Lake. We're pretty big fans of camping."

Astoria students score $1.8 million in scholarships

The Daily Astorian

The graduating seniors this year at Astoria High School raked in $1.8 million worth of scholarships.

Astoria High School Scholarships Inc. contributed more than $200,000 to 70 seniors during its awards banquet early last month at the Liberty Theater.

Each graduating senior took home at least $1,000, from memorial funds, previous graduating classes and local businesses like Lektro, which gave $1,000 to each of Astoria's 11 valedictorians.

Astoria Police to host 'Coffee with a Cop' conversation

The Daily Astorian

Astoria Police officers will host an informal community conversation, "Coffee with a Cop," at 8:30 a.m. July 20 at 3 Cups Coffee House, 279 W. Marine Dr.

All community members are invited to the event.

"Coffee with a Cop," will provide an opportunity for community members to ask questions and learn more about the police department's work in Astoria's neighborhoods. The event will provide an informal, neutral space to discuss community issues, build relationships and drink coffee. The majority of contacts law enforcement has with the public happen during emergencies, or emotional situations, according to the police, and those situations are not always the most effective times for relationship building with the community. Some community members may feel that officers are unapproachable on the street.

"Coffee with a Cop" is meant to break down barriers and allows for a relaxed, one-on-one interaction.

"We hope that community members will feel comfortable to ask questions, bring concerns, or simply get to know our officers," Police Chief Brad Johnston said. "These interactions are the foundation of community partnerships."

"Coffee with a Cop" is a national initiative supported by the U.S. Department of Justice, Office of Community Oriented Policing Services. Similar events are being held across the county.

The program aims to advance the practice of community policing through improving relationships between police officers and community members one cup of coffee at a time.

OBITUARIES

Antti Severi Rahkola

Astoria

Aug. 17, 1931 — July 3, 2015

Antti Rahkola passed away at home on July 3, 2015, of heart failure. He was born in Kalajo-ki, Finland, to Tuomas and Olga Rahkola. After his education, he served in the Finnish Army, where in addition to his service he earned a national title in boxing. On return to his hometown, he became a truck driver and met and married the love of his life, Eila Annalisa Piukkala. They were wed on June 20, 1954, and celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary this year.

The young couple, with two young children, immigrated to Minnesota in 1958. Antti worked in construction and mill work. As his family grew, he built a new home in Esko, Minn. In 1969, he moved the family to Astoria, Ore. He said "you don't have to shovel rain in Oregon."

He worked at the Astoria Plywood Mill among many fellow Finns. In 1971, he welcomed his sister's family from Finland. The Vedenojas added seven members to the household, so that there were 18 family members under one roof. All lived in relative harmony for six months, when the Vedenojas moved into their own home.

He is survived by his wife, Eila; children, Anne (Rick) Stickel, Marjo Dunagan, Anita (Jyrki) Talus, Karin (Bob) Blair, Allan and Tina (Tom) Lips; grandchildren, Griffin, Johanna, Stan, Raija, Pete, Anna, Max, Edie, Mackenzie, Maggie, Lillie, Victoria, Ryan and Evan; and great-grandchildren, Brock, Henri, Eila, Brooklyn and Greta. In addition, Antti has a sister, Rauni, in Ontario, Canada; a brother Arvo (Eeva) in Finland; and a sister Raili (Reino) Vedenoja and family in Astoria, Ore.

He was preceded in death by a son, Thomas; and a granddaughter, Grace.

Antti enjoyed his family, fishing, growing Finnish potatoes and visiting local businesses along with his dog, Pearl. Antti always had a humorous comment for everyone he met. He will be missed by all, but his love will be felt through generations.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, July 11, 2015, at 2 p.m. at Peace Lutheran Church, 565 12th St., Astoria, Ore., followed by a reception at the church's fellowship hall.

Donations can be made in Antti's memory to Peace Lutheran Church, or to a charity of your choice.

Caldwell's Luce-Layton Mortuary is in charge of arrangements. Please sign the online guest book at www.caldwellsmortuary.com
