George Bagley's Memory Honored By Fellow Pythians

Honoring the memory of ex-Judge George Bagley, whose recent death sorrowed bar associates, relatives and friends throughout the state, the following resolution was passed recently and released for publication this week by the Phoenix lodge, Knights of Pythias:

"George R. Bagley became a member of Phoenix lodge No. 34, Knights of Pythias, in Hillsboro, Oregon, in 1895. He was Chancellor Commander of this lodge in 1904.

"The death of Knight Bagley has removed from this community a man who was an outstanding of honor and integrity in all things; also, a man who was pre-eminent for his legal learning and judicial temperament and one who had attained a state-wide reputation for fair and impartial decisions in all matters presented for his determination.

"He was a man who practiced the lessons of friendship taught by our Order.

"The members of his family have our deepest sympathy in their sorrow and bereavement.

"Now, therefore, be it resolved that in his passing the community has lost an outstanding citizen, the state a distinguished jurist, and the members of this Order a true brother Knight and loyal friend. Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge and a copy sent to the family."—R. Frank Peters, L. A. Long, committee.

Miss Howard Bride Of Mr. Kalkwarf

With decorations of palms, ferns and white chrysanthemums, the Methodist church was the scene of a beautiful vesper candlelight ceremony when Miss Bernice Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Howard, became the bride of Mr. Robert Kalkwarf, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kalkwarf, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Rev. Alexander Hawthorne officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of ivory slipper satin with a train. Her fingertip veil was held by a wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of rosebuds, sweetpeas and bouvardia.

Mrs. Eldon McLeod, the bride's sister, was matron of honor and wore a dress of Madonna blue satin. She carried a nosegay bouquet of roses and sweetpeas. Miss Carolyn Kalkwarf, sister of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Robert Coe were bridesmaids. They wore frocks of blue and yellow taffeta and corsages of rosebuds and sweetpeas. Little Dianne Robinson, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and was dressed in pink taffeta. She carried a basket of pink sweetpeas and bouvardia.

Robert Coe acted as best man. Ushers were Eldon McLeod and Edward Robinson.

Professor Lorance Dossett of Eugene sang "Until" and "Because" accompanied by Miss Lucille Fisher. Miss Fisher also played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Harry Kalkwarf of Portland presided at the coffee urn. Mrs. Perry Anderson served the wedding cake and Miss Evelyn Steinke served the punch. Assisting about the rooms were Mesdames Ed Forman, William Bucher, O. A. McLeod and Misses Esther and Florence Freeman.

The bride and bridegroom are graduates of Hillsboro high school. Mr. Kalkwarf is employed in the local J. C. Penney store. After a short honeymoon trip, they will be at home at 363 E. Oak street, Hillsboro.
