Musical Program Given Friday at Coffee Club Meet

An enjoyable musical program was presented at the Coffee club Friday afternoon, including violin solos by Dean Swanson, accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Davison; accordion solos by Gladys Burkhalter; Russian folk dance by a group of B. W. Barnes school students, Mary Kramien, Marjorie Aldinger, Joan Kovaly, Phyllis Zenger, Ann Lee Bailey, Barbara Barney, Joyce Hartrampf, Ann Marie Reiling, Suzanne Searcy, Barbara Barrows, Mary Lou Anderson and Pat Kennelly, with Kathryn Reule as accompanist, and a Chinese song by Mary Kramien, accompanied by Miss Reule.

It was decided to present the Red Cross blood bank with cards to give blood donors to send to service men in whose honor the blood had been given.

Annual reports will be given at the May meeting, instead of the June meting as formerly, and officers will be nominated. Mrs. Maude Stannard, president, appointed Mrs. Fred Sewell, Mrs. C. M. Bucher and Mrs. M. Elder as the nominating committee.

The next meeting will be a potluck luncheon at 1 o'clock May 12, with the following hostess committee: Mesdames Caroline Stangel, A. J. Sullens, Ellis Taylor, C. M. Kruchek, Lois Walworth, William Vanderberg, and Clyde Yount.

Save Civilization—Buy War Bonds!

I Buy Diamonds for Investment as Well as Lasting Beauty!

Yes, many shrewd men put Diamonds right next to War Bonds on their investment schedule. Smart, too, when you can buy the wife a glorious gift, knowing that the beauty of those perfect stones will never diminish, nor their cash value fade away.

North Plains Club Booth Was "Tops" At the "Hi-Jinks"

North Plains Community club won the war bond offered by the Red Cross Camp and Hospital council and motor corps for the group making the most money at the "Hi-Jinks" Saturday night at the grange hall. This club had a booth containing chickens, garden and farm produce of all kinds, bakery goods, sewing, clothing, and hardware. Proceeds from the booth totaled $48.

Net receipts of the affair, which was held for maintenance of day rooms in camps, hospitals, and the motor corps, are not yet available, according to Mrs. E. A. Griffith, Red Cross Camp and Hospital chairman.

A dance was also given at Tualatin that night for the same purpose, Camp and Hospital fund, with Miss Zira Nyberg as chairman. Communities of Sherwood, Tigard and Tualatin co-operated. More than $250 was the result, with 500 persons in attendance.

Officer Honored At Surprise Party

Farewell Given Monday Evening For Rev. Trout

The Ministerial association of Hillsboro planned a farewell party for Rev. Clifford Trout, who is leaving next week to enter training for U. S. army chaplain. The reception was held Monday night at the Christian church with Mrs. Perry Damas, Mr. Elwood Johnson, Mrs. M. Elder and Mrs. C. M. Powell as a committee from the church.

Rev. W. T. Mugford presided at the program which included a trombone solo by Lynn Hall, solo by James Winn, reading by Mrs. Frank Betzer, solo by Mr. Shepard of the Free Methodist church, and songs by an impromptu quartet. Rev. and Mrs. Trout and Mr. and Mrs. Winn. Miss Mildred James was accompanist.

Ministers of the city churches or their representatives expressed words of appreciation for Rev. Trout's work here and best wishes for him in his new work.

Following the program, refreshments were served in the downstairs dining room. Mrs. J. V. Collins and Mrs. Elder poured.

Rev. Trout was presented with a gift of more than $100 from those present. He will leave the first of the week for Cambridge, Mass., where he will enter the school for chaplains at Harvard university.

His family will make their home in Hillsboro.
