District Sunday School Meeting Bethany Sunday

BETHANY—The district Sunday school convention will be held Sunday, June 4, at 2:30 p. m., in the Bethany Presbyterian church. Rev. Frank Friesen, pastor of the Bethany Baptist church, will be the speaker and the theme of the convention will be "All Scripture is by Inspiration," and sermons for both afternoon and evening will be from second Timothy, chapter 3, verses 16 and 17.

The evening services will be held at 8 o'clock in the Bethany Baptist church. Rev. Simon E. Forsberg, pastor of the Cedar Mill church, will be the speaker. A massed chorus from all the community churches will furnish the music for both afternoon and evening services. Practice for the massed chorus wlil be held at 8 p. m. Friday at the Bethany Baptist church.

Plan School Remodeling

A meeting of directors and patrons of the Union school was held the first of last week to discuss the remodeling of the school. A sinking fund was voted, but a definite decision as to just what charges will be made will be decided upon at the annual school meeting June 19.

Ladies' Missionary Guild of Bethany Baptist church has postponed the meeting from this Thursday to June 8 at the guild room in the church.

Food Demonstration Slated Cedar Mill

Use of the pressure cooker for home canning of non-acid food and the use of the food dehydrator will be demonstrated to the women of the Cedar Mill district June 6, at 1:30 p. m., in the Grange hall by Mrs. Cecelia Van Winkle, war food assistant.

Beaverton High Graduates 82

BEAVERTON—Graduation exercises for 37 boys and 45 girls were held at Beaverton high school Friday evening. The following program was given: Processional, Marilee Pomeroy and Dorothy Riggs; invocation, Rev. Francis Sturtevant; pledge to the flag; welcome, "Meditations of the Graduate," Robert Myers, class president; vocal solo, Grace Rich; comments, "Understanding the Graduate," Norman Bishop; girls' sextet, Grace Rich, Marilyn Walker, Helen Randall, Lorraine Denney, Ann Hathaway, Roberta Pomeroy; open forum, "Memories of a Democracy at Work," Kimball Sinclair, leader; senior ensemble, girls' sextette and James Blake, Jack Marges, Alfred Boyles, Lee George, Eugene Springer, Charles Walker; introduction of award winners, Floyd Carlson; presentation of diplomas, W. H. Grauer, chairman Beaverton school board.

The young people's group of St. Cecelia's Catholic church held a social meeting in the church basement Monday evening. They will give a dance party at the Huber hall Friday evening.

Outdoor robberies have been committed in Beaverton recently. A half cord of wood and flowering plants were among the things stolen.

A daughter was born to Rev. and Mrs. Francis Sturtevant at Emanuel hospital in Portland May 19.

Mother in Hospital

Mrs. C. O. Haines of Haley, S. D., has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Hildah Highbe. She is now in a Portland hospital.

Mrs. Henry Nelson is visiting her sister in Hollywood, Cal.

P.-T. A. Group Names Officers

CEDAR MILL—At the last P.-T. A. meet of the year, May 25, at the school house, the following officers were installed by Mrs. Margaret Stroeve for next year:

Mrs. Claude Cover, president; Mrs. Carl Stark, vice-president; Mrs. Jack Brietenstein, secretary; Mrs. Ernest De Young, treasurer. All officers were presented with carnation corsages.

It was decided to have cafeteria lunches during the entire school term next year, and to hire a cook at $5 per day. A larger electric range will be installed and a committee was appointed to arrange for this. Mrs. H. A. Ward is chairman to be assisted by Mrs. W. C. O'Conner and Mrs. A. R. Pearson. The fruit and vegetables for the cafeteria will be canned at Holloway's custom cannery in Portland and the P.-T. A. wants volunteers to work in preparing the produce when it is time.

Sundbergs Return

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sundberg returned this week from Fort Sill, Okla. Mrs. Sundberg has been vacationing there. He will remain for a short furlough before returning to Fort Sill.

Transportation to Be Arranged

Anyone interested in helping during the busy season at the Hillsboro cannery may contact Mrs. A. R. Pearson to arrange for transportation. A number of ladies expect to assist a day or so each week.

L. E. Spencer has purchased a homesite from Herman Jenne and is moving the old nursery house, which will be made into a dwelling.

Charels Walters, who was home from coast guard service recently, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Walters instead of James Walters as stated last week.

Adams Home on Leave

Gerald Adams has been home on leave from San Diego visiting his wife, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams were given a surprise bridal shower May 20 by the Misses Doris, Rose and Delores Katterman.

"DESERT SONG," starring Dennis Morgan and Irene Manning, is now showing at the Hill theatre.

Churches Sponsor Daily Vacation Bible School

BEAVERTON—A daily vacation Bible school will be held by the churches in Beaverton, beginning June 12, in the Church of Christ. All children from primary to 15 years are eligible. There is no fee, but a "nickel drill" will be held each morning. The school will close June 23 with a progtram open to all.

Rev. E. E. Martin spoke at the Nazarene church Sunday evening. He has been district superintendent during the past nine years.

Mrs. H. A. Hartshorn, retiring president of the Beaverton Community Garden club, and Mrs. A. R. Ringe, vice-president, will represent the club at the Oregon federation garden clubs' annual convention at the Portland library, June 6.

Club to Hold Flower Show

The Beaverton Garden club will hold its annual flower show in I. O. O. F. hall, June 3, from 2 to 8 p. m. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George Davis on Canyon drive, June 16. The club will also visit the Norrbo gardens on that day.

Hilda Balfe is home from the hospital, recuperating from an appendectomy. A young nephew, living with Mr. and Mrs. C. Balfe, is also recovering from a similar operation.

Hospitalized Son Improving

A recent letter to Mr. and Mrs. Balfe from their son Philip, who has been hospitalized over seas, states that he is much improved and hopes before many months to come home on a citation furlough.

Jobs Daughters Install Officers

Jobs Daughters will hold installation of officers Monday at 8 p. m. at the Masonic temple. Dorothy Connell will be honored queen; Janet LaDue, senior princess; Dorothy See, junior princess. There will also be a program and refreshments. The meeting is open to the public.

Leaguers Attend Portland Rally

SCHEFFLIN—The north central zone rally was held at Calvary Lutheran church in Portland Sunday. Willene Kerkman served as secretary for the day. Rev. W. Wangerin of Vanport led a panel discussion on the place for the Junior in the League today. Refreshments and entertainment were furnished by the host society. The vesper service by Rev. W. Wangerin closed the session. The next rally group will be guests of the Trinity League of Hillsboro.

The north central zone of the Walther League is sponsoring a skating party at the Oaks rink in Portland Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Caughman entertained Sunday in honor of Mrs. Daisy Peterson and daughter Hal of Seattle. Places were laid for nine.

Heinrichs Hold Reunion

The home of W. F. Heinrich was the scene of a family reunion Sunday. Thomas George, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Laurel Heinrich of Spokane, Wash., was baptized by Rev. C. J. Krueger. Sponsors were Miss Bernice Vadnaise and Don Kerkman. The occasion was also the birthday anniversary of Henry Vadnaise.

Wouldn't Trade

Don Cawrse, who has by now seen a great deal of the world, reports that he would not trade any of it for Oregon. He is now in New Guinea, having previously been in Australia.

Mrs. Joseph Cawrse accompanied Mesdames Schearer, Leming, Appleton, and A. Connell to the home demonstration conference in Corvallis May 23 and 24. These ladies found the conference highly instructive and returned home with renewed vigor to meet their homemaking problems.

Mrs. Maud Jackson of Portland spent the week-end with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cawrse.

Receives Pin

Willene Kerkman received a silver pin for her third donation in the Red Cross blood bank Monday.

Lien Transferred

Raymond N. Lien has been transferred from training at University of Colorado at Boulder, Colo., to the U. S. naval training station at Great Lakes, Ill. He is a Washington county man.
