Miss Hamel Bride Of Lt. R. Smith

BETHANY—A beautiful wedding ceremony was witnessed by 125 guests last Saturday at 8:30 p. m. at the White Temple in Portland, when Miss Mildred Hamel of this community became the bride of Lt. Robert Roy Smith of Forest Grove, in a double ring ceremony performed by Dr. William G. Eversen of Linfield college.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Carl Hamel. She wore a gown of blush satin with long train, and a full length, imported French bridal veil of matching blush with wreath of orange blossoms. She carried a white Bible with white orchids and streamers of white ribbon and clusters of Freesias. The rings were carried by Robert Rowe, cousin of the bride, in a large calla lily.

Mrs. Oscar Smith, sister-in-law of the groom, was matron of honor. She was gowned in an aqua satin and net formal with cap of yellow roses and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Bridesmaids, Miss Doris Heinbucher and Mrs. Vayne Smith, wore pastel blue and pink satin and net formals with caps of pink roses and white roses respectively, and carried bouquets of pink roses and white roses.

Best man was Oscar Smith, brother of the groom. Ushers were George and Everett Findley, cousins of the bride.

Misses Grace Rich and Lois Findley sang, accompanied by Miss Patricia Heinrichs. The wedding march was played by Miss Eleanor East.

The church was beautifully decorated with white gladioli, white asters and white larkspur, and lighted with white candles.

A reception was held in the church parlor. Refreshments were served by Miss Clark, a cateress. The wedding cake was cut by Mrs. Oscar Smith. Mrs. M. J. Beeler of Beaverton, poured, and Mrs. Vayne Smith, Miss Doris Heinbucher and Miss Patricia Moran served.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hamel and has lived in Bethany all of her life. She graduated from Beaverton high school, attended Pacific university, and is an accomplished pianist. She is employed in the Union Pacific offices in Portland.

Lt. Smith is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith of Forest Grove, a graduate of Forest Grove high school and attended Pacific university. He was a medical student until he entered the service. He has been stationed in Hawaii as instructor, prior to his arrival by plane in the United States for a 30-day furlough. He had previously completed 50 missions over Japanese territory; has been awarded the distinguished flying cross and air medal.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith are honeymooning, their location being a military secret, they say.
