Rebekah District Meeting Attended By Large Crowd

"A very successful convention" was almost the universal announcement of those who attended the annual session of the Rebekah district convention held at Scholls Saturday. The assembly room was made attractive with immense bouquets of flowers.

Morning program included opening at 10 in the Rebekah degree by Ruby Lodge of Scholls; and seating of convention officers by Forest lodge. After the introduction of the Grand Lodge officers, four tots, dressed in quaint costumes, presented Mrs. Bailey, assembly president with bouquets of flowers, each reciting an appropriate verse. A solo "Roses! Roses," was sung by Mrs. Ruth Christenson. Mrs. Audrey Heaton of Scholls extended a cordial welcome, and genial response was given by a member of Beaverton lodge. Hillsboro lodge presented the past chairmen present with lovely gifts.

Reports from the different lodges showed them all in a flourishing condition and responding to the government by purchasing war bonds. Forest Grove was decided upon for a meeting place next year. Lunch was served at noon.

Afternoon session opened with the flag ceremony and singing "America," followed by "a school of instruction."

E. M. Bowman of Hillsboro gave a short talk, and Mrs. Ethel Bailey, assembly president, in her address stressed especially the I. O. O. F. home in Portland and the fine work the home is accomplishing. Mrs Cora Heaton of Hillsboro, past president of the Rebekah Assembly, was also a speaker.

Officers elected for next year's convention are: Ethel Beard, Forest Grove, chairman; Ina Bowman, Hillsboro, vice-chairman; Alura Hines, Forest Grove, secretary; Eva Ortman, Forest Grove, L. S. to C.; Cora Heaton, Hillsboro, R. S. to V. C.; Ruby Myers, Beaverton, L. S. to V. C.; Edna Hancock, Gaston, conductor; Dee Darling, Forest Grove, musician; Kathleen Moore, Scholls, I. G.; Rosa Humburg, Beaverton, O. G.

Shown in the Window

"Do we know our onions?" Since the two large onions were displayed in the window last week by Fred Varenhorst of Hillsboro, Anton Krevanko of route 1, Hillsboro, brought in two Bermuda onions weighing one and three-quarter pounds each, and Max Smith of Hillsboro brought in a Bermuda weighing two pounds. A freak tomato shaped like a doughnut was brought in by Mrs. Stella Westwick of Forest Grove. Another interesting exhibit in the window is a house carved on a quince by Mrs. Lulu Miller of Hillsboro, using her fingernails as carving tools.

The Silver Star awarded Cpl. Ralph Hess for gallantry in action is also on display in the window.

Couple Married Sherwood Church

Miss Lillian LaVerne Underwood, daughter of Mrs. Mary Underwood of Reedville, became the bride of Mr. Clarence Dean Langer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Langer of Sherwood, at a beautiful ceremony Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the St. Francis church of Sherwood. Father Thiele officiated.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John Underwood, was dressed in white satin with veil and carried a white Bible with streamers and gardenias.

Little Verna Lee Moser, niece of the bride, was flower girl and was dressed in blue silk with short veil to match, and carried a nosegay.

Gloria Langer, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a dress of pink silk with short pink veil and carried pink gladioli.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Adrian Hornecker, sister of the bride and Mrs. Joe Berger. They wore silk dresses of blue made boufant style with short veils to match, and carried bouquets of lavender and white gladioli.

Mr. Wallace Langer, brother of the bridegroom, was best man.

The ushers were George Underwood, brother of the bride, and Mr. Ivan Elsner.

The wedding march was played by Miss Maxine Cady. The soloist Mrs. Frank Underwood, sang "Ave Maria" and "On Perfect Love."

The bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Underwood, was dressed in black with white accessories and wore a corsage of white gladioli.

The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. F. Langer, was attired in pink and wore a corsage of white gladioli.

The church was beautifully decorated in pink and white gladioli.

A reception was held at the Aloha Grange hall for 200 guests. The bride cut a beautiful three-tier wedding cake. Those assisting in serving were Mrs. Robert Carson, Mrs. George Underwood, Mrs. Don Riggs and Mrs. Julian Golden, sister of the bride.

The young couple left for a wedding trip to Seaside. For going away the bride wore a brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The bridegroom attended Sherwood high school and is a farmer in the Sherwood district, where the young couple will make their home.
