Reedville Church Women Elect Officers

REEDVILLE—Church Women's association met Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Anna Lingman in observance of the World Day of Prayer, with an attendance of 14. Mrs. Otto George had charge of the program, on the theme "That ye should show forth the praises of Him who hath called you out of darkness into His marvelous light." An offering of $10 was received for missions. Preceding the program a brief business session was held, when new officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: Mrs. Anna Lingman, president; Mrs. Frank Nelson, vice-president; Mrs. Otto George, re-elected secretary; Mrs. Loren Slade, re-elected treasurer. Refreshments were served, with Mrs. V. F. Perry as co-hostess.

Furlough Ends

Staff Sgt. T/3 George Orville Meese, who visited his stepfather and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Altig, while on a brief furlough, left last Tuesday for Camp Crowder, Mo. He recently was listed in the "Who Is Who?" in the 500 army signal corps at Camp Crowder.

Christian Endeavor young people held a Valentine party Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Kincheloe. Valentines were auctioned, which added $7 to the church building fund. Games and refreshments were enjoyed. Fourteen attended.

Mrs. Olinger Dies From Severe Burns

Word was received in Reedville Wednesday of the death that morning of Mrs. M. Olinger, a former resident, at the Astoria hospital following severe burns a week before. Funeral services will be held at 2 p. m. Saturday at Donelson & Sewell chapel. Commitment will be at Riverview Abbey, Portland.

Mrs. Mary Olinger was critically burned when her clothing ignited as she was dressing by a heating stove last Wednesday morning in her cabin at Cannon Beach. She was rushed to an Astoria hospital in an effort to save her life, and where opiates were administered to relieve pain. She was in ill health while here and accompanied her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Churchley, when they moved to the beach several weeks ago, to be near her daughter. She had been a Reedville resident for 30 years.

Reedville PTA Holds Founders' Day Program

REEDVILLE — P.-T.A. met Friday night in the music room of the schoolhouse in observance of Founders' Day, with an attendance of 50. Mrs. L. Harris reported the present membership 107. Mrs. E. LaRue, reporting on county council held at Gaston February 13, said seven were present from Reedville. Mrs. O. George reported more than $105 in receipts from the rummage sale held February 10. W. Heinrich gave the history of P.-T.A. and was in charge of a candlelighting program in which seven candles represented love, hope, courage, co-operation, wisdom, diligence and comradship, each of these defined by seven members as essential qualifications of parents in providing "a good life for every child." The group then retired to the basement dining room where past P.-T.A. presidents were guests of honor. Refreshments were served. Mrs. E. J. LaRue was chairman of the committee in charge. A cake made by Darleen Hill of the 4-H Cooking club and a box of chocolate candy were auctioned. The money will help buy a new range for the school kitchen.

however, took Newberg 37-33 at the close of the first half and rate slight favorites to cop the pennant. Other league games take Tigard to Tillamook and Forest Grove to Beaverton.

Hillsboro dropped the last two games in a row this week—27 to 25 to Newberg here Friday night and 48 to 41 at Tigard Tuesday night. Battle with the Tigers was a nip and tuck affair from the start with Newberg freezing the ball during the last minute and a half of play to protect a two-point lead. Half-time score was 15-9 favoring Newberg.

Hilhi trailed most of the game against Tigard. The Spartans got under way in the last five minutes but were unable to overtake Tigard.

Spartan "Bees" ran their string of victories to 11 Friday and Tuesday by trouncing Newberg B's 47 to 28 and then lacing Tigard 48 to 39. In both games the locals came from behind in the last half to win. Holznagel was high point man of the Newberg encounter with 14 points. Top honors at Tigard went to Clark with 23 counters.

New Sport Loop Not Considered

Proposal to include the Hillsboro Spartans in a new prep athletic league suggested by Oregon City and Milwaukie is not being considered by local school officials, according to John R. Cox, Hilhi principal. The suggestion was made in connection with the withdrawal of Oregon City and Milwaukie from the "No-Name" league Saturday.

Teams considered for the new conference included Gresham, Hood River, St. Helens, Newberg, Hillsboro and Astoria in addition to the two schools proposing the loop.

Hoop Tourney Set Here March 2, 3

Representative in the state basketball tournament at Salem from districts 9 and 10 will be determined in a single elimination tournament scheduled for the Hilhi gymnasium March 2 and 3, according to an announcement this week by Principal John R. Cox. Games between the seven entrants are slated for Friday night and Saturday afternoon and evening.

Teams represented will include Forest Grove, Hillsboro, Tigard and Beaverton from district 10 and Tillamook, Astoria and Seaside from district 9. Paul Warren and Frank Bashor, both of Portland, will be the officials for the series. F. C. Stalley of Hilhi will be timekeeper and Ed Coman of the Hillsboro Argus scorer.

Rod and Gun Club Organized Locally

John R. Cox was elected president of the Hillsboro Rod & Gun club, which was organized Tuesday night at the local chamber of commerce. Noel Bennett was selected as secretary-treasurer.

The club will meet once each month and was organized to aid in the promotion of fish and game legislation. The organization meeting was attended by 36 sportsmen.

Local People at Opening of Bank

Commercial Bank of Tillamook in which a number of Hillsboro men are interested as officers and directors was opened for public inspection Saturday and for business Monday morning. A large crowd, including quite a few from Hillsboro, attended the open house Saturday. It was estimated that 4,000 people attended the opening Saturday.

The furnishings of the new bank are similar to those in the Commercial National bank here. W. C. Christensen, president of the Commercial National, is also president of the Tillamook bank and is spending much of his time for the first month over there. Other local men, all identified with the official family of the Commercial National, serving as officials of the Tillamook bank are: J. L. Searcy, vice-president; M. P. Cady, R. R. Easter and Lester Ireland. A. H. Olson is cashier and manager and Wilbur H. Paynter, assistant cashier. Olson and Paynter were formerly associated with the bank here. Ruth Fowler, from the local bank, is over there temporarily to help set up the books and Helena Hiscock, who has been with the bank here for several months, has been transferred to the new bank and will have charge of the bookkeeping.

A traffic accident in a fog pocket on the way home resulted in slight injury to Mr. and Mrs. Searcy and Mrs. Earle Bowman.

Grade School Hoop Tourney Under Way

Washington county grade school basketball tournament, with nine teams in competition, is now under way at St. Mary's gymnasium. Winner of the tourney, which opened Monday night and will finish Friday night, will represent the county in the invitational tournament at Hill Military academy in Portland March 9 and 10.

Schools competing are Aloha-Huber, Reedville, Forest Grove, Banks, North Plains, Sherwood, Tualatin, St. Mary's and Tigard.

See Crucial Game

Quite a few from Hillsboro were in Corvallis Saturday night for the crucial basketball game in which Oregon State defeated Oregon 45-43 to go into a tie for the championship of the Northern division of the Pacific Coast conference. Some of them were there for the week-end. Among those going down were Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Bronleewe, Miss Jodie Hershey, Al Bogue, John R. Cox, Homer Settlemier, Harold Meyer, Walter Henry, Don Guerber, Jack Siegrist, Bob Amacher, Willie Laird, Dave Eheler and Walt McKinney.
