Mrs. Batchelar Attends Luncheon War Bond Workers

Mrs. H. D. Batchelar, war activities chairman of the Business and Professional Women's club, attended a luncheon Monday at the Multnomah hotel in Portland, arranged by the women's division of the Seventh War Bond drive. Miss Maybelle Blake of Washington, D. C., the national women's director; war bond chairmen from all over the state, and other workers in bond drives were in attendance.

Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, state leader of the Oregon women's division, had resigned, and State Director E. C. Sammons announced her resignation with regret, stating that Mrs. Helen MacVeigh, assistant director, had been appointed to succeed Mrs. Dunbar. Dr. Peter H. Odegard, chief aide to Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau, presented Mrs. Dunbar with a national citation for her distinguished work in bond drives.

Mr. Odegard was the luncheon speaker, and stated that of the $110,000,000 quota, 50 per cent will be E bonds, $2,000,000 more than in any previous bond drive.

Mrs. Batchelar stated that contrary to the oft repeated remark that most of the bonds were cashed as soon as purchased, it was announced that of A, B, C and D bonds, 82½ per cent were still uncashed, and of the E and F bonds 87.45 per cent were uncashed.

Mrs. Homer Simantel is convalescing at home after spending a couple of days in Jones hospital last week.

Lois Jean McCool and Mrs. Gene Bandeen of near Hillsboro, spent last week at Rockaway and reported fine weather there.

Chorus, Orchestra Present Program

Hillsboro Union high school chorus and orchestra were enthusiastically received at the George White servicemen's center in Portland last Sunday.

The orchestra opened the program with the "Student Prince" medley, followed by Ernest Bloch's "America" sung by the chorus as a memorium for President Roosevelt.

Trio numbers were sung by Catherine Enschede, Barbara Jean Dunaway, and Allene Amacher, accompanied by Joanne Baldwin. Their numbers demanded encores. Solo numbers were sung by Norma Lakson, Jack Shearer, and Kathleen Imlay respectively, and were received with much appreciation.

The next performance for the high school music department will be the band concert to be held at the high school auditorium May 11, at 8:15 p. m.
