Auxiliary Names Goddess Candidate

Lee Anne Kramien, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kramien, was selected as candidate for Goddess of Liberty by the Legion Auxiliary at the meeting Tuesday night. The Auxiliary also named Pat Hurd and Pat Cyrus to attend Girls' State at Silver Creek Falls from June 10 to 17.

School pupils who entered the Poppy Poster contest were guests and their posters were exhibited. Mrs. E. R. McCoy, chairman of the poppy sale, presented prizes to the poster winners (which were announced in Argus of May 24) and also prizes to pupils assisting in selling poppies. Arnold Langeveer, who sold $41.20 worth of the little memorial poppies, received first prize. Mrs. Emma Ferland was co-chairman with Mrs. McCoy.

Mrs. O. C. Halvorson, chairman of junior activities, presented the following program: Piano solos by Dorothy Senko, Darleen Jardee, Sharon McGrath, and Eleanor Finegan, and violin selections by Kathryn Neule, accompanied by Connie Madsen.

The program was followed by initiation of three gold star mothers and one gold star sister.

A nominating committee, Mesdames Clem Kessinger, Adolph Foelker and Rula Connell, was appointed to report at the July meeting, which will be held Tuesday, July 10, instead of July 3 on account of "Happy Days" celebration at that time.

The date of Tuesday, June 19, was selected as the time for serving a luncheon at the Legion hall at noon. Tickets will be sold at 75 cents per plate.

Dr. Sullens Observes His Sixth Year Here

Dr. A. J. Sullens observed the sixth anniversary of his pastorate at the Hillsboro Congregational church Sunday morning. A bouquet of flowers was presented to Dr. and Mrs. Sullens, J. L. Searcy, member of the board of trustees, making the presentation. Mr. Searcy told of the growth of the church under the leadership of Dr. and Mrs. Sullens, and pledged the cooperation of members in furthering this work.

The Men's club is sponsoring a picnic for church members and their families at Shute park Sunday, June 24. There will be a pot-luck dinner in which everyone provides his own food and utensils. The Men's club will provide coffee and ice cream.

Guests at Busch Home—
Mrs. Keith Busch and little daughter Jeanne of San Antonio, Texas, arrived last week for a visit with Mrs. Busch's parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Busch. The mother will return to Texas in a few weeks, but Jeanne will remain with her grandparents for the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Busch and their guests will spend the week-end with Mrs. Busch's mother, Mrs. M. W. Thompson, and sister, Mrs. Francis Henrichs, and family at Moro.

Visit Relatives Here—
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wieber of Uniontown, Wash., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wieber. The men are brothers. The two families attended the launching of the S. S. Gonzaga Saturday. The ship was named for the Gonzaga university at Spokane, Wash., where Jerry Wieber graduated.

Dr. Lewa Ager and children of La Grande and Mrs. S. K. Jensen of San Jose, Cal., visited friends here the last of the week.

Mrs. Edna Zilley of Rockaway was a guest the last of the week at the home of her cousin, Mrs. W. G. Hare. Her aunt, Mrs. Ida Gulick, returned home with her for an extended visit.

Miss Helena Hiscocks of the Commercial bank of Tillamook was a week-end guest of Miss Blanche McCormick.

Miss Groneman Wins Scholarship

Daisye Belle Groneman won the P. E. O. scholarship to University of Oregon, according to information received by BH chapter P. E. O. of Hillsboro at the meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Arthur Connell. This scholarship is awarded through the state chapter by each local chapter proposing the name of an outstanding girl; then the state committee makes the selection according to qualifications of the nominee.

Miss Groneman, a graduate of Hillsboro union high school in May, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Groneman of 337 North Second avenue.

Mrs. Harriet L. Tisdale of Cornelius was the speaker at Monday's meeting, and gave a very interesting address on "Building for Peace."

The luncheon meeting was very well attended by members, and two visitors were present, Mrs. M. A. Lynch of the Redmond P. E. O. chapter, and Mrs. T. B. Miller of Santa Rosa, Cal.

This was the last meeting until fall.

Schneider-Millet Nuptials Held

At a candlelight ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Schneider on May 28 at 8 p. m., Frances C. Millet, daughter of J. J. Millet of North Plains, became the bride of Herbert L. Schneider, U.S.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Schneider of route 3, Hillsboro.

Rev. Gottlieb Hafner performed the double ring ceremony. Miss Lorraine Schneider and Mrs. Hans Bohren played the wedding music. A duet was sung by Mrs. Frank Setniker and Miss Schneider.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mrs. Wallace Monda, sister of the bride, with Mrs. Arnold Berger and Mrs. Bohren assisted with serving.

Mr. and Mrs. Schneider are making their home in Portland, where the bride is employed, for the remainder of his leave.

In the Window

Almost everything but the German himself is displayed in the Argus window this week in a collection sent by Pfc. Alex A. Taranoff to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alex A. Taranoff Sr. of route 2, Cornelius. The exhibit includes a nazi flag, knife, arm band, belt with insignia, ammunition belt, officer's shoulder emblem, cap or collar emblem, two German communications, and six pieces of paper money. Young Taranoff's picture is also in the window.

A Jap bolo knife was in the window last week, sent from Okinawa island by Pfc. Kenneth L. Edgett to his wife, Mrs. Ruby Edgett of Hillsboro.

In the window is also a picture of Pvt. Wallace Hughes and bride, married at Baxter General hospital at Spokane.

C. F. Williams of Hillsboro brought in a freak weed growing through the hole in a small white button. This is displayed in the window.

Here's the Quick, Easy Way to Make Marvelous
BERRY JAM

6 Cups Ground Berries (Any Variety)
8½ Cups Sugar
1 Package M.C.P. Pectin

Wash, stem, grind 3 quarts fully ripe berries, or crush completely a layer at a time so each berry is reduced to pulp. Measure exactly 6 level cups crushed berries (add water to fill out last cup, if necessary), into large kettle. Add M.C.P. Pectin, stir well and bring to a boil, stirring constantly. NOW, add sugar (previously measured), mix well and bring to full rolling boil. BOIL EXACTLY 4 minutes. Remove from fire, let boil subside, stir and skim by turns 5 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars, allowing ½ in. space for sealing with fresh paraffin.
(NOTE: For Strawberry Jam, add ¼ cup lemon juice to each 6 cups crushed berries.)
