Large Increase On Insurance Benefits Shown

Monthly federal old-age and survivors' insurance checks for residents of Washington county show a net increase of almost 50 percent during the nine months ending September 30, according to James E. Peebles, manager of the Portland field office of the social security board.

Family insurance monthly benefits show an increase in the nine months' period of 47 percent and child benefits an increase of 55 percent, as compared with 10 percent increase in monthly benefits to retired workers.

The 486 monthly insurance benefits now in force in the county is at an annual rate of over $112,000. This amount goes to 232 retired workers age 65 or past; 57 wives 65 or past of retired workers; 177 widows and children of deceased wage earners; 19 widows age 65 or past of deceased insured workers and one dependent parent of an unmarried deceased wage earner.

Laurel Growers Harvest Walnuts

LAUREL — Walnut harvest is in full swing in this community, with just a fair crop reported in most of the orchards.

Mrs. Howard Dickey, who taught school here last year, visited Mrs. Elma Dickey and others last week, accompanied by her husband, who returned from overseas duty recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Mercer returned from a hunting trip Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hopper, who have been farming the Tesch place, have rented a farm in Scoggins Valley and will move there soon.

F. L. Brown and granddaughter, Patricia McNay of Forest Grove, attended the Oregon State college-University of Washington football game in Portland last Friday.

Stephen Watkins visited his sister Jeanne and cousin, Douglas Hood, in Portland last week-end. While there he attended the OSC-University of Washington football game and the Christian Youth rally.

Mrs. F. L. Brown visited her daughter, Mrs. B. G. McNay, and family at Forest Grove last Thursday and Friday.

Several from here attended a charivari on Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Shuck of Chehalem Mountain Sunday evening.

Mrs. Murphy and son of Seattle, Wash., have been here to harvest their filbert crop, which is the orchard across the road from the Parr prune orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wood of Grand Coulee, Wash., Mrs. Bob Schmidt of Eugene and Mrs. Lena DeWolfe and Mrs. Tillie Elliott of Gervais visited last week at the F. X. Nibler and F. D. Coolidge homes.

Laurel Sunday School Classes Hold Contest

LAUREL — Friendly Corner and Broadcasters classes of the Sunday school at the Evangelical church are having an attendance contest for this quarter. Sunday the score was 48 to 43 in favor of Friendly Corner. Everyone is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. John Watkins and John's cousin, David Hood, who was recently discharged from the navy, all of Portland, spent the week-end at the Amos Watkins home.

Pupils of the Laurel school will have a day's vacation Friday (tomorrow) as the teachers will attend the tri-county teachers' institute at Vernonia.

Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Brown entertained with a dinner party Sunday in honor of the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Jack Erickson. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Rosevear and Arkle Rosevear of Hillsboro, Jack Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Coolidge and Dale, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Brown and children.

Mrs. F. L. Brown, Mrs. George Rosevear and Mrs. Jack Erickson are sisters.

Get Discharges

Boys from this community who are home from service are Billie McNay, Bob Spiering and Gregory Nibler.

Walter Adams and his father of Pumpkin Ridge visited in this community last week. They formerly resided on the Tesch place. Walter has just received a discharge from the navy.

Mrs. L. S. McMillin attended the high school P.-T.A. tea October 16.

Attends Anniversary

DIXIE MOUNTAIN — Mrs. C. L. Nelson of this community left Tuesday for Issaquah, Wash., where she is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. C. Brady, and family and also to attend the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Brady's silver wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Brady's friends arranged a surprise party for them, at which they were presented with many lovely gifts. There were 18 guests present.

John Brady, Rdm. 3/c, who has been on duty with the coast guard in the Aleutians for 29 months, is at present on a 30-day leave prior to being assigned to duty in the 13th naval district. Rdm. Brady returned to Seattle on a tramp ship with several hundred other service men, and has been based at Rainier National park. It was from here that he was given his leave just in time to make it possible for him to attend his parents' anniversary celebration.

Visits in California

HITEON — Mrs. W. Campbell left Tuesday for Eugene, where she will join her cousins, then go on to Berkeley, Cal., to attend the wedding of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Zimmerman, Saturday. Mrs. Campbell will go to Burbank to visit her niece, Mrs. Gay Nilson, and her sister, Mrs. A. Veenker.

be good at any of the four theatres in the county on the night of the premieres.

Although the war is over and government expenditures are being drastically reduced, the aftermath of war carries grave responsibilities that must not be shirked and makes the Victory loan necessary, MacKenzie and Christensen declared in announcing the drive. Funds are needed to pay the bills for munitions and material already delivered and used, to pay the cost of guarding Germany and Japan, to pay for the care of our wounded and disabled, to pay off and provide benefits for the 3,000,000 or more veterans to be discharged during the coming year, and to keep the lid on inflation.

Committee of business men will canvass downtown Hillsboro while the local Business & Professional Women's club will again conduct the campaign in the city residential districts. Quota for the Hillsboro school district is set at $64,800.

Plans for the coming campaign were outlined last Thursday evening during a meeting of the county war finance committee and special activity chairmen at the Heidelberg Inn, Beaverton. Present were Christensen and MacKenzie, both of Hillsboro; Laver and Bob Coe of Banks; Paldanius, Katherine Desinger, Hugh McGilvra, Alf O. Johnson, Henry Shelton, Louis Busch, and Mrs. H. E.
