Willene Kerkman Bride of the Rev. Erwin A. Gerken

Zion Lutheran church, Schefflin, was the setting of a beautiful and impressive wedding ceremony Saturday afternoon, August 17, at 2:30 o'clock, when Miss Willene Elsie Kerkman, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Herman D. Kerkman, became the bride of the Rev. Erwin August Gerken of Beaverton, son of the Rev. and Mrs. August Gerken of Marysville, Ohio. The bridegroom's father, who performed the double ring ceremony, addressed the couple with the words, "The Peace of the Lord Be With You Always." The church was beautifully decorated with white tapers in candelabra, baskets of white gladioli, and pink and white asters.

Mr. Edwin Kiekaefer played the wedding music and also accompanied the soloist, the Rev. F. E. Janssen, who sang, "The Lord's Prayer," and "O Perfect Love."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown with train of white skinner satin with round neckline. The net yoke was edged with embroidered marquisette ruffling. Her lace trimmed, fingertip veil was caught in a coronet of pearl orange blossom clusters. She carried a white prayer book with a spray of orchids with white streamers and stephanotis.

Miss Emily Kerkman, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and wore a gown of rose crepe with marquisette yoke edged with ruffling. The bridesmaids, Misses Gertrude and Dorothy Gerken, sisters of the bridegroom, wore identical gowns of green crepe and marquisette yoke edged with ruffling. The attendants carried similar bouquets of pastel asters. Little Misses Rosemarie and Ruth Elaine Fragmeier were flower girls. They wore identical gowns of yellow marquisette and carried baskets of asters.

Mr. Oscar Gerken was best man for his brother, and Messrs. Allen Nauss and Norman Trappe were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue crepe dress trimmed in white and her corsage was white asters and gladioli.

The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua crepe dress with corsage of white asters and gladioli.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The lovely wedding cake formed the centerpiece of the table before a buffet banked with white asters and white tapers. Miss Pearl Petersen was in charge of the guest book and Miss Alma Petersen was in charge of the gifts. Mrs. William Trappe cut the wedding cake assisted by Mrs. Albert Lankow. Miss Ruth Heuer and Mrs. J. F. Harlow served the ices. Miss Ida Gerken and Mrs. Bruno Lankow poured. Mrs. Harold Bork presided at the punch bowl. Others assisting were the Misses Pat Harlow, Ruby, Hilda, Ruth, Marion and Catherine Meinecke, Helen and Alberta Petersen, and Bernice Heinrich, Mesdames Scott Campbell, Everett Lee and W. Salzwedel.

For going away the bride wore a brown suit with matching accessories and an orchid corsage. Mrs. Gerken is a graduate of Hillsboro high school and attended Pacific Business colege, Portland. For the past four years she has been employed in the county clerk and recorder's offices. The Rev. Gerken is a graduate of Concordia college, Fort Wayne, Ind., and Concordia seminary, St. Louis, Mo. He has been for the past year pastor of Pilgrim Lutheran church, Beaverton.

After a wedding trip to Victoria, and Vancouver, B. C., they will be at home in Beaverton.

Guests from out of town were Rev. and Mrs. August Gerken and daughters, Dorothy and Gertrude, of Marysville, Ohio; Miss Ida Gerken of Napoleon, Ohio, and Mr. Oscar Gerken of Palo Alto, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bruns, Prof. and Mrs. F. W. J. Sylwester, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lankow, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lankow, and Edward and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Lankow, Victor Miller and son, Virgil, and Mrs. H. J. Trinklein, Rev. and Mrs. F. E. Jannsen, Mrs. C. F. Nitz, Mrs. M. Zagel and Irene Jahnke, all of Portland; Rev. and Mrs. F. R. Riess and Julia of Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. William Trappe and Bill of Oregon City, Edward Meinecke, Mrs. Albert Meinecke and Rev. and Mrs. J. H. Meissinger and daughter Ruth of Sherwood.

Mrs. Mitchell Honored

Mrs. R. N. Torbett of Cedar Mill entertained with a party Thursday, honoring Mrs. F. G. Mitchell, president of Circle One of Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church, on her birthday anniversary. Twenty-five ladies of Circle One were guests and presented their president with a gift. Refreshments were served.

Miss Magin Weds Warren Bascomb At Home Service

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bascomb was the scene of a quiet wedding Monday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Murle Geneva Magin, daughter of Mrs. Lomay Magin of Iowa and Mr. Magin of Eugene, became the bride of Mr. Warren Bascomb of this city. Rev. George G. Edwards performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and a few friends.

The bride wore a dress of white eyelet embroidery with corsage of pink carnations. Miss Yvonne Nelson, niece of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid, and wore a blue crepe dress with gardenia corsage. Jack Bascomb was his brother's best man.

Decorations about the room were pink and white gladioli.

A beautifully decorated two-tiered wedding cake was the centerpiece on the refreshment table. Mrs. Thomas Thompson and Mrs. Joseph Ritchey served.

The young couple went to Tillamook for a week's wedding trip, and upon their return will make their home in Forest Grove, where Mr. Bascomb is employed on the veterans' housing project.

The bridegroom, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bascomb, served three years overseas and was instructor in the army engineering department. He was a corporal at the time of his discharge.

Bridal Party Guests At Dinner Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Earle K. McCoy were hosts for a dinner party Saturday night for members of their daughter Patricias's bridal party, those who assisted at the reception, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ziegler, and a few friends.

Table decorations were tall white tapers and a lovely white aster spray.

Assisting the hostess were the Mesdames Joe Gergen of Vancouver, Max Smith, E. T. Finegan, Margaret Hall, Raymond Mohler, and the Misses Dorothy Senko, Darlene Jardee, and Eleanor Finegan.

Following dinner a rehearsal for the Ziegler-McCoy nuptials was held at the church.

RC Home Service Chairman May Assist Applicants

Red Cross chapter home service workers may assist veterans in requests for information and assistance in making application for terminal leave pay, according to Miss Cathryn Henna, director of home service in the Pacific area.

A notary's seal and the original discharge paper must accompany the application. Chapters may supply plain envelopes and stamps if necessary, but should not accept responsibility for mailing applications. Also, home service workers may assist with follow-up inquiries, requests for change of address, or other correspondence relating to the application.

Applicants who do not have a fixed mailing address should use a post office box number or general delivery, not the chapter as a mailing address.

Miss Joyce Beadles, executive secretary, with offices on the second floor of the court house, will assist servicemen in making out applications.

Attend Brother's Funeral—
