Many from Area Enlist in Army

The Oregon district of the United States army recruiting service enlisted over 1,000 men between September 1 and October 5, thus giving them the full benefits of the G. I. bill of rights.

The enlistments include the following from this area: Hillsboro—Curtis E. Hoyle, route 3; Lyle C. Harrison, route 5; Ronald G. Haworth, 428 S. Bailey; Ray W. Mansholt, 706 S. 7th; Glenn E. Ross, routh 3; Elroy G. Schindler, 206 N. Bailey; Richard W. Van Der Zanden, route 3; Roy W. Wold, route 3.

It may only take a minute to change a lifetime.

Hillsboro Frosted But Not Severely

Hillsboro had a frost Wednesday morning, the temperature having hit a minimum of 28 degrees during the night, but it will not go into the books as a "killing" frost, according to A. W. Moore, local weather observer.

Moore said his Castor beans survived the frost and they are a usual criterion for judging the severity of the frost.

Filbert Harvesting In Final Stages

Harvesting of county nuts is in a lull period this week with filbert picking in the final stages and growers waiting for a strong rain to bring walnuts down, according to Roy Davidson, farm labor assistant.

Washington county migratory workers' farm labor camp at the southeastern edge of Hillsboro now has approximately half of its 100 family units occupied.

Truman Removes Meat Ceilings

Abandonment of meat controls, effective October 15, was announced by President Truman Monday night. At the same time he angrily assailed "selfish" politicians and said that the whole decontrol program would be speeded up.

Thus, three weeks before the congressional elections, the president altered the course he previously had set. He said it was the "only remedy" for the shortage.

The action had been urged by many within his own party. And as he castigated congressmen and candidates whom he blamed for the meat shortage and failure of controls, he made no attempt to pin responsibility solely on Republicans.

School District Changes Sought

Petitions are in circulation now calling for several changes in Washington county elementary school districts, according to Austin Scrafford, county school superintendent. One of these calls for transfer of 15 acres from district No. 19, Shute, to No. 38, Oreneo.

Another change considered is transfer of section eight from district No. 24, Bacona, to No. 51, Meacham. Other petitions call for abolishing district No. 112, Buck Mountain, with part going to Meacham, part to Pleasant View, and another part to a Columbia county district, Scappoose.

Demmin Seeks National Honors

Lester Demmin, Hilhi senior, winner of the Western Regional Future Farmers of America regional speech title last spring, will leave Friday for Kansas City, Kansas, where he will compete for national honors at the 19th annual F. F. A. convention, October 21-24.

Demmin will compete against four other regional winners for the title and is scheduled to give his oration, "Anchor Our Soil," on Tuesday, October 22. He will travel with J. B. Thomas, Hilhi agriculture instructor and F. F. A. advisor, as part of an Oregon delegation of 112 members.

Two Injured in Auto Accident Here

Arthur Gottleib of Aloha and Mrs. Horace Oslund of Hillsboro were treated at Jones hospital for injuries received in an auto collision at Fifth and Jackson at 7:30 a. m., October 10.

Gottleib was driving north and Mrs. Oslund was in an east bound car driven by her husband. Deputy Sheriff Dick Busch investigated the accident. The Aloha man received fractured ribs and Mrs. Oslund a head injury. Both were discharged from the hospital on October 12.
