Seal Sale Funds Climb to $9977

Proceeds of the Christmas Seal sale to date is $9,977.24, according to a report given by Mrs. Zola Morgan, executive secretary of Washington County Public Health association, at a meeting of that group Thursday night in her office. She also reported that Mrs. M. C. McKercher, county vice-president, has been assisting Mrs. Ketchum in the office on follow-up cards.

During the past month Hillsboro Health unit held an open meeting at the Congregational church with Dr. R. R. Morgan as speaker. His subject was "Health Education and Youth Conservation," and a large group from other county health units and organizations attended. Beaverton and Banks have had especially lively meetings, she said. She also attended a meeting of the Scholls Junior Women's club and explained the health program.

Garden Home P.-T. A and McKinley Women's club have requested that the Mobile R-ray unit come to their communities.

Fred Scherer, director of Social Hygiene education, talked before the Forest Grove P.-T. A. January 21, and C. J. Fink was speaker at the Tigard health unit meeting January 23.

Clyde Yount, president, announced that a nominating committee would report at the annual meeting in April.

Next meeting will be March 6.

Local Folk Back From Trip South

Dr. and Mrs. J. O. Robb and Mrs. Elmer I. Johnson returned Saturday night from a six weeks' trip to Arizona and California. They enjoyed several weeks at the Monte Vista ranch at Wickenburg, Ariz., which is the center of guest ranches, and from there they made a number of side trips around Arizona. The local people stopped to see the J. W. Kelleys, alias of Hillsboro, at Phoenix, but they were out of town at the time.

The last two weeks were spent in Southern California and they visited Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Sullens, formerly of Hillsboro and now of Claremont, who wished to be remembered to their friends here. The trip back was made by way of the Redwood highway.

Miss Heard Bride Of Roy Phelps Saturday Evening

In a candlelight service in the Downtown Tabernacle in Portland Saturday evening at 6 o'clock, Miss Roberta Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Heard of Banks, became the bride of Roy Phelps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Phelps of Portland. The double ring ceremony was read by Rev. Thomas Wyatt, pastor of the Tabernacle, before a setting of lighted candelabra, baskets of carnations, acacia and greenery. Lighted candles in the windows added to the attractiveness of the scene.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was dressed in white satin with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice with full skirt and train. Her finger-tip veil, edged in lace, fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a necklace of pearls and carried a bouquet of red roses with white satin streamers.

The bride's attendants were her sister, Miss Arlene Heard, in a yellow formal, and Miss Edwina Phelps, the bridegroom's sister, in a green formal. Both carried large nosegays of red carnations and yellow acacia with yellow satin streamers.

Misses Mary and Martha Phelps, sisters of the bridegroom, in pink and blue formals respectively, with gardenia corsages, lighted the candles. Little Carol Dean, in a yellow dress, was train-bearer. Freddie Mentze, in a white suit and carrying a white pillow, was ring-bearer, and little Cheryl Dean, flower girl, wore a blue dress and carried a basket of rose petals which she scattered in the bride's pathway.

Daniel Maryott was best man, and ushers were Don Hale, Roy Bakke and Gayle Shook.

Preceding the ceremony, Miss Ruth Holbrook, wearing a pink formal, sang "O Promise Me." Miss Holbrook and Miss Gladys Roberts, in a yellow formal, sang "Saviour Lead Me." The wedding music was played by Marvin Frye.

A reception was held in the evening at the Royal Neighbors hall in Banks. The room was decorated with green and white festoons of crepe paper, bouquets of greenery and lighted candles.

Mrs. Irwin Schlegel cut the bride's cake after the bride cut the first piece, and Mrs. Ernest Behrman served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. William Rufener served ice cream, Mrs. Francis Upward poured, and Mrs. William Cop presided at the punch bowl. Miss Shirley Cop had charge of the guest book and Miss Kay Lien assisted at the gift table. Others assisting were Mesdames Russell Burris, Tom Engen, Cliff Sandy, Chris Rieben, Harve Shook, Henry Gilbert, George Saxton and Fred Wolford.

Miss Mary Phelps caught the bride's bouquet.

After a few days at the beach they will make their home in Portland, where Mr. Phelps is employed and is attending school.

For going away the bride wore a gray suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of Banks high school, class of 1946, and a member of the Methodist church. For the past several months she has been employed in Portland.
