By Mrs. G. Stubbs

ALOHA-HUBER— Aloha Grange was chosen by the Oregon State Grange as one of the most representative subordinate Granges in the state, and therefore a colored sound film was made of the Grangers at pot-luck table, and a few shots were taken of them as they entered the hall. The title of the picture is "The New Harvest" and will be available to all Grange lectures for lecture programs during 1948-49 at no cost to the Granges as the equipment and operators will be furnished by the State Grange. About 37 attended the pot-luck dinner.
