Former Hillsboro Woman Injured in Bus-Truck Wreck

Mrs. Maude Mawhinney, formerly of Hillsboro and Banks, now of Portland, is in the Deaconess hospital in Salem following an injury sustained in a head-on collision Thursday between a Greyhound bus and Journal truck 12 miles south of Salem. Driver of the truck, Don Billings of Portland, was killed and five others injured.

Mrs. Mawhinney, mother of Mrs. Henry Hunt of Hillsboro, was returning from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Huber and her new granddaughter at Spring Garden, Cal., and had stopped in Eugene for a few days to visit with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Brown.

Mrs. Mawhinney's injuries consisted of a fractured left knee-cap, a fractured right ankle and severe face lacerations. Mrs. Hunt, who spends a great deal of time with her mother, reports she is getting along as well as can be expected.

The accident was attributed to a wet, slippery pavement.

Newspaper Head Honored at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Verne McKinney entertained with a dinner party Thursday night at the Legion hall honoring Mr. McKinney's mother, Mrs. Emma C. McKinney, on her birthday anniversary. Other guests were members of the Argus staff, their wives, husbands and sweethearts. Forty-two attended the banquet.

The program included vocal solos by Sally Ratcliffe, dance numbers and singing by Patty Ratcliffe, accompanied by Mrs. Cecil Miller, and a piano selection by Richard McKinney, grandson of Mrs. McKinney. Group singing was led by Sally Ratcliffe and Don Foelker, and Max Read brought in and sang congratulatory telegrams from former coworkers of the honor guest, including Mrs. W. H. (Patty) Dierdorff of Pendleton, Verlin Cochran of Palo Alto, Cal., Jerry Davidson of Redmond, Mrs. Mabel Grass and Ed Coman of Woodburn, and Howard Hillis, who is studying for his master's degree at U. of O., Eugene.

Mrs. McKinney, who has been actively identified with the ownership and publishing of the Hillsboro Argus for nearly 44 years, has been in the same business in Hillsboro longer than any other individual.

Editor Verne McKinney presided at the dinner, and short talks were made by the staff members.

Delegate to Oslo Speaker Sunday

Miss Joan Gordon was the speaker at the Sunday evening service at the Congregational church, sponsored by the Pilgrim Fellowship where the Methodist young people and adults were guests. Miss Gordon told of her experiences and impressions as a delegate to the World Conference of Christian Youth at Oslo, Norway, last summer. The whole talk was permeated with the conviction that Christians in lands that have not been torn up by war have a big responsibility in helping rebuild, not only where there has been physical destruction but where morale is low and hope all but gone.

Miss Gordon took some 400 pictures on her trip, many of which were shown during her talk.

At the close of the meeting the women of the church served punch and cookies. Those assisting were Mrs. J. T. Kovaly, Mrs. H. B. Knight and Mrs. J. M. Stretcher.

The men of the church will meet Friday evening at 7:30 for the setup meeting of the financial enlistment in support of the 1948 budget. The men will be in three groups captained by Ralph Easter, J. M. Peterson and Clyde Yount. They will meet for luncheon at the church after services Sunday, get final instructions and assignments and call from 2 to 6 o'clock with the hope of getting most of the work done that afternoon. Final reports will be made Thursday evening, November 20. The budget goal is $7000 which is a ten per cent increase over last year.

Monday evening, November 17, Men's club will meet with Charles Walker, 258 North Third avenue, at 8 o'clock. Dr. Fred Richards of Forest Grove, who is the president of the Fellowship of Congregational Men of Oregon, will be the speaker. The final report of the financial enlistment results will be given at the business part of the meeting.

There will be a Union Thanksgiving service.

Sermon theme for next Sunday will be "Paying My Rent."
