Phone Lines Buzz; Results Negative

Washington county telephones were buzzing last week in an attempt to locate the "get-away" car of Albert Coussens and Miss Jeanne LaHaie who were married Tuesday morning at Verboort.

Many of the wedding party's friends were disappointed when they were unable to locate Coussens' automobile last Monday and Tuesday. It is reported that those who participated in the search met with negative results.

Now it can be told that the car was in Ken MacLeod's garage between Main and Washington on Sixth in Hillsboro.

New Building Going Up for Cabinet Shop

Construction was started November 12 on a 30 by 100-foot tile building for the Thompson Cabinet Works, according to H. E. Thompson, local contractor. The structure, to be completed in about three months, is going up at the corner of Second and Walnut.

The building will permit N. J. Thompson, owner of the Cabinet Works now located at 238 E. Washington, to complete expansion plans, it was pointed out. Plans call for a show room and office, a gluing room and machine shop. A 30 by 30-foot basement is also planned.
