ALOHA-HUBER — The scouting family of Aloha is celebrating Boy Scout Week with a jamboree Friday, February 13. To this gala event will be coming cubs, scouts, explorers, parents and friends. The doors of the Aloha Community Baptist church basement will be open at 7:30 p. m. A program of stunts, exhibitions, quiz, and sound pictures will be presented. Super-attractions will include a hot-dog stand, candy counter, and a fish pond. This latter concession will feature values from 29 cents to $3, all for a dime. Tickets are on sale by all cubs, scouts and explorers, and also at Red & White store by Earl Hotchkiss at 25 cents each. Citizens are urged to attend and see what scouting is actually accomplishing in this community.
