Reedville Girl to Be in Recital; School Board Officers Elected

By Mrs. Anna Taylor

REEDVILLE — Maud Ross Sardam will present Ida Lou Hagg and Elsie Berberick in a piano recital Thursday (tonight) at 8:30 o'clock in room 302 of Ainsworth building, in Portland. Miss Hagg will give the following numbers: Organ Prelude in G Minor, Bach-Siloti; Fantasia, D Minor, Mozart; Sicilinao, Bach; Nocturne, Op. 32, No. 1; Prelude Op. 28 No. 21; Polonaise, Op. 26, No. 1, Chopin; Intermezzo, Op. 118, No. 2; Notturno Op. 54, No. 4, Grieg La plus que lente Debussi; Tango American, Carpenter. Friends are invited to attend.

School District No. 29 held its annual meeting June 21 at the school house. W. Heinrich, the retiring chairman, was elected director for a term of three years. Charles Stubbs is the new chairman and Al Larrance is the third director of the board. Anna C. Taylor, present incumbent, will serve as clerk for another year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Imlay and daughter Kathleen left Wednesday by motor car for California, where they will visit relatives and friends in San Francisco and Sacramento indefinitely.

Body to be Shipped Home

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Frost last week received a message from the government, stating that the remains of their son Pfc. Rolland Frost, left Manila on the ship Sergeant Morris E. Crain, which will arrive soon in Oakland, Cal. Pfc. Frost was killed in action on Luzon more than three years ago.

Eleven pre-school children received health certificates at the recent clinic held for local children in the offices of the county health department in the court house at Hillsboro. Parents who failed to take their pre-school age children at this time must get the certificates from their family physician before entering school.

Phyllis McGeorge underwent an emergency appendectomy Sunday at Jones hospital, Hillsboro. She is recovering nicely.

Nancy Heinrich and Gertrude La Rue of the local clothing and cookery clubs respectively and Donald and Duncan McInnis of Reedville dairy club returned Friday after attending the 4-H summer school held for ten days at Corvallis. Nancy was chosen house president of "The Pines," the residential hall for girls. She also served as usher at assemblies held during the session.

Group Chooses Name

"Tri-N-Will," is the name chosen by the newly organized young adult women's group which met last Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Archie Brownlee. They discussed ways and means of raising funds for equipping the church kitchen as their first project and purchased a gas range last week as a nucleus. Refreshments and a social hour followed the business session. Twenty were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Gale and children left last week for The Dalles, where they plan to vacation and visit relatives for some time.

Church Women's association met the president, Mrs. Frank Malcolm. Reports given indicate that members have started on work for the bazaar. Mrs. Otto George displayed samples of greeting cards for all occasions for which she is taking orders, to swell the church building fund. Mrs. Anna Lingman led devotions. Mrs. John Wheeler presented the topic on "World Citizens," emphasizing the fact that the Jews are not a race but a religious organization. A social hour and refreshments followed. Thirteen were in attendance. This was the last regular meeting until fall. Annual picnic will be held in July.

Mrs. Helen Manary of Norfolk, Va., left Wednesday by plane for her home, after a six weeks' visit at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kelly and Miss Margaret Imlay. Mrs. Manary is a former Reedville resident.

Danny, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schmitke of Dallas, is staying with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Trachsel, while his parents are enjoying a month's vacation in California, Utah and other western states.

Allen Lambert came home last Thursday from Jones hospital where he underwent an appendectomy two weeks ago.

Native Daughter Dies in Centralia

Mrs. Rose Butler, 95, died Thursday at Centralia, Wash., and funeral services were held Tuesday in that city.

Mrs. Butler, who celebrated her 95th birthday March 21, had made her home the past few years with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Frost, at Centralia. Mrs. Frost was formerly Myrtle Butler of Hillsboro.

Deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. N. Beeks, who crossed the plains in 1847 and settled on a donation land claim near Hillsboro, where Mrs. Butler was born on March 21, 1853. She was married to Thomas Butler in 1871, and moved to Klickitat county, Wash., in 1874. She had lived in the state of Washington since that time.

She is survived by five children: Mrs. Amy Veath and William Butler of Rainier, Wash.; Mrs. Thomas Wheeler, Yakima, Wash.; Mrs. E. G. Sherwood of San Diego, Cal.; and Mrs. E. B. Frost of Centralia; also a sister, Mrs. John Palmer of Naches, Wash., and 14 grandchildren.

New Bank Executive Is Well Known Here

J. C. (Rusty) Rule, one of the Northwest's pioneer installment credit loan executives with nearly 20 years experience in the automobile and appliance field, has been elected assistant vice-president of the First National bank of Portland, President Frank N. Belgrano announced.

Rule, who has served one company throughout his previous business career, is well known in the Hillsboro area through his work with loan automobile dealers. He will join the installment credit loan department of the First National July 1 and will have administrative duties in the department's business development and advisory service.
