County Pioneer Dies in Portland

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Masonic lodge in Beaverton for Andrew M. Kennedy, 90, a pioneer resident of that community. Death came Sunday morning in a Portland hospital.

Mr. Kennedy had lived in Beaverton for the past 67 years and in Oregon for the past 70 years. He retired from a mail carrier's job in 1925.

He was born January 29, 1858, in Sommerset county, Maine. He was a member of Beaverton lodge No. 100, A. F. & A. M.; Beaver chapter, Order of Eastern Star; Beaverton Grange; Al Kader Shrine and Gul Reazee Grotto.

Services were under the auspices of the lodge with Rev. Albert King officiating. Vault interment was in Crescent Grove cemetery.

Surviving are three children, Lancelot A. Kennedy, Beaverton; Hazel B. Goodall, St. Helens, and Agnes Luchs, Portland; 20 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren.

Pegg's Mortuary of Beaverton was in charge of arrangements.

New Cafe Opens On Main Street

The new Time Cafe, under the ownership of Vern Hale and J. C. "Buz" McDonna, 138 East Main street, across from the courthouse in Hillsboro, will have its formal opening next Wednesday.

The new cafe is equipped with the most modern fixtures and no expense has been spared in taking care of the sanitary features.

The interior has been completely redecorated in soft greys and greens. Spacious booths and large counter space will comfortably accommodate 40 people.

Forest Grove FFA Limes 20 Acres

The white fog over Forest Grove recently was the work of the Forest Grove Future Farmers as they limed 20 acres of ground northwest of the town that is to be the site of the new high school, according to Eugene Evers, FFA reporter.

The future farmers have worked 29 acres, nine of which are seeded in orchards. Twenty acres have been planted in peas and oats. The chapter also limed and planted 20 acres by the Carnation Lumber Co. in oats and vetch.

The boys made a record time for working and seeding with the aid of a new Ford tractor which they purchased last summer, and a Ford Ferguson tractor which they purchased two years ago.

Dr. Horner Rites Held Saturday

Funeral services were held October 23 in San Francisco, Cal., for Dr. Warren D. Horner, 58, prominent eye surgeon and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes of Hillsboro. His mother, the late Zilpha Warren Horner, was reared in Hillsboro.

Dr. Horner was a veteran of both wars, having served as a medical officer. He had been a faculty member at the University of California and had studied at the University of Vienna.

Surviving are his wife, Madge, a married daughter living in Boston, Mass., and one son, Douglas, a senior at Stanford university. Dr. Horner was a cousin of Kenneth Linklater of Hillsboro.
