Dora McNamee Buried Monday

Mrs. Dora Carolyne McNamee of route 1, Beaverton, died at the home of her daughter in Portland December 10. She was born April 11, 1865 in Germany and came to this country and to this vicinity direct from Germany when she was 13 years old.

Services were held Monday at the Pegg chapel in Beaverton with Rev. Albert King officiating. Graveside commital services and vault interment followed at 3:30 p. m. at the Aurora cemetery, Aurora, Ore.

Mrs. McNamee is survived by the following children: Benjamin H. McNamee, San Francisco; George P. McNamee Jr., San Francisco; Dewey J. McNamee, route 2, Sherwood, and Mrs. Ora Mayer of Portland; 11 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren. She was the sister of Henry, Charles and Paul Neift, all of Aurora; Mrs. Anna Goetz of Portland, Mrs. Emma Wilson of Gladstone, Ore., and Mrs. Louisa Keil of Aurora.

Wallace Named Personnel Aide

Couch Wallace of Hillsboro has been promoted to personnel assistant for western division of Birds Eye-Snider, according to Arthur L. Reiling, production manager for the western division. The appointment was effective December 1.

Wallace will assist Carl Miller, in charge of personnel for the division. He had served as personnel manager for Hillsboro plant for 2½ years since leaving military service. Prior to the war he was employed in the traffic department of the local cannery which operated under the name of B. E. Maling Co.

Chamber Recess Told by Kramien

Hillsboro chamber of commerce will discontinue Tuesday luncheon meetings until January 4, according to L. C. Kramien, president.

Kramien encouraged members to attend the first January meeting to hear the plans for the coming year, in order to keep them abreast with current chamber activities.

The board of directors, however, will hold its regular monthly meeting December 29, Kramien stated.

Berry Growers Set North Plains Meet

The United Berry Growers have scheduled a meeting for Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the Knights of Pythias hall at North Plains.

Prospective members from the North Plains area, Helvetia, Mountaindale and Pumpkin Ridge are particularly welcome, officials of the organization have stated. County Agent Palmer Torvend and a representative from Oregon State college will be on hand to speak on plant certification.
