Miss Van Hyning Weds in Beaverton Church Ceremony

The Bethel Congregational church in Beaverton was the scene of the wedding ceremony of Miss Faye Van Hyning and August J. Sincick on Sunday evening, June 12, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Albert F. King officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Hyning of Beaverton. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Maria Sincick.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a white satin dress with finger-tip veil held by a headdress of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas.

Her honor attendant, Miss Shirley Van Hyning, sister, wore green organdy and she carried a nosegay of carnations, roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids, Miss Marilyn Mulkey and Mrs. James Batdorf, both of Portland, were gowned in orchid gowns and also carried nosegays of carnations. Little Joyce Van Hyning, flower girl, was dressed in yellow organdy, and carried a small nosegay the same as the other attendants. The best man was John Van Hyning, and ushers were Archie and Lawrence Davis, both of Portland. Harris Hansen was soloist, accompanied by Mrs. Barrett Randall, who also played the wedding music.

The church was beautifully decorated with gardenias, gladioli and larkspurs.

At a reception held in the church parlors, Mrs. Frank Addington poured. Mrs. LaVern Van Hyning cut the cake, and assisting were Misses Bernice and Betty Anderson, Florence Haddox and Irene Lang had charge of the guest book. The couple left on a honeymoon to Yellowstone, with the bride attired in a pink suit and white accessories, wearing a white orchid corsage. They will make their home in Portland after July 1.

For the ceremony Mrs. Van Hyning wore a gray dress with a corsage of pink and white carnations, while the bridegroom's mother chose a blue dress and wore a corsage of pink carnations.

Paul Jones Home After Guam Tour

Paul E. Jones arrived home this week after 13 months on the island of Guam. Mr. Jones is affiliated with Brown Pacific Maxon, a construction company which is completing a rehabilitation program for the navy in the island.

The navy is going all out for the island, with the construction of concrete typhoon proof building, for housing married navy personnel and barracks for enlisted men. These include stainless steel kitchens with the latest in stoves and electric refrigerators. Power utilities, water supply, docks, streets, sidewalks and street lights are all on the program, a far cry from what Guam was before the war. Orote Point, the marine base, is also undergoing much the same construction.

After September 1, the island will come under the Department of the Interior. In Mr. Jones' tour he also spent five months off the island, among the Pelew group. Before his duty on Guam he spent 14 months in Alaska.

A well earned 30-day leave will be spent by Mr. Jones with his family here in Hillsboro, and if young Haven and Sue have their way there will be a fishing trip or two.

His older son Hunt, 15, is employed at the Argus. Mrs. Jones is the former Ruth Havens of Hillsboro.
