Candidates Feted; Officers Installed

Goddess candidates were guests of the Hillsboro Business and Professional Women's club at their dinner meeting Friday night at the Grange hall. Mrs. Marguerite Linn, the club president, presided.

The Goddess candidates, dressed in pastel formals, were seated together at a special table beautifully decorated with summer flowers. Group singing of welcome songs was led by Mrs. Maude Stannard with the candidates responding with a song by their group alone. Mrs. Joyce Lusby, chairman of candidates committee, introduced the candidates and told the organization sponsoring each one.

Two speakers were on the program for the evening. Mrs. Idylla Manley, executive secretary of the American Red Cross, told the members and guests about the Red Cross Blood program and urged all who can to register as blood donors for the next Bloodmobile visit here, October 24.

Dr. A. O. Pitman explained the Socialized Medicine program which has been presented to the present session of congress, and answered questions members asked concerning socialized medicine and the various health insurance programs now available. Dr. Pitman stated that the voluntary health insurance plan for prepaid medical care is here to stay and is preferred to the compulsory health insurance program now before congress which is, in his opinion, a threat to health and freedom. According to Dr. Pitman, 87,000,000 people in the U.S. have some type of voluntary health insurance with the greatest increase in members coming in the last four or five years.

New officers were installed in a simple but impressive ceremony during the business meeting, which followed the dinner. Those installed by Mrs. Hazel Huffman, junior past president, were Marguerite Linn, president; Eunice Kimmerle, first vice-president; Sylvia Barnes, recording secretary; Edna Siegrist, corresponding secretary; Merle Selfridge, treasurer; and Elizabeth Birdsell, director. At the end of the ceremony, Mrs. Huffman presented the president, Marguerite Linn, with a bouquet of red carnations.

The president appointed Jennie Hurd, Eunice Kimmerle, and Jean Cady to consider and present plans for places for future meetings at the next meeting which will be the picnic meeting possibly at the home of Eunice Kimmerle.

Mrs. Linn announced that 600 roses had been sent to Virginia Moore, Hillsboro club's delegate at the Regional convention at Seattle, to be distributed to the delegates attending. The roses were donated by John Teufel, Newshams, Hill Florist. The Teufels also furnished the flowers for the table decorations for the dinner meeting.

The program for the evening was in charge of the health and safety committee with Mrs. Carrie Elliott as chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Lusby on the Goddess Candidates committee are Mesdames Frances Maas, Margaret Abts, Maude Stannard and other members. Candidates ball will be held Saturday night at Shute park auditorium.
