Convention Set at Bethany This Week-end; White Cross to Meet

By Mrs. Frank Jefferies

BETHANY — Washington County Christian Endeavor convention will meet Saturday and Sunday, October 16 and 16 at the Presbyterian church. First session will convene at 3 p.m. Saturday. A banquet will be served by the Bethany Ladies Aid society at 7 p.m. with charges placed at 75c for adults and 50c for children. The evening service will be held around the tables following a merry-making session with Dorothy Howes as toastmistress. Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. Rev. Earl Morgan of the Multnomah School of the Bible will speak. Evening services will be at 7 p.m. with departmental conferences. The closing session with Rev. Morgan again speaking will begin at 8 p.m. Delegates are expected from North Plains, Helvetia, Reedville, Forest Grove, and Hillsboro as well as Bethany. Theme of the convention is "Build With Christ." Marjorie Boon and Aileen Hertwick will direct the departmental conferences.

White Cross meeting will be held October 19 at the Baptist church. Donations of old sheets and blankets for conversion into bandages is asked by the chairman, Mrs. Earl Eggiman.

Conference Report Given

Highlight of the October meeting of the Baptist Guild was a report by Mrs. Chris Rich of the conference she attended at Sioux Falls. Sixteen women attended this meeting held last Thursday at the church. Mrs. William Jenne substituted for the president, Adele Guerber, who is still wearing a cast on a broken ankle. Refreshments were served by Marjorie Keehn, Mrs. Herbert Keehn, and Mrs. Arthur Anderson.

Attend Services Here

To open this week set aside nationwide in their honor, Business and Professional Women's club members from Hillsboro attended Sunday morning services at the Presbyterian church. Rev. H. G. Dickman's sermon was on the subject: "In Business for My King." Mrs. Ed Heine was guest soloist and the choir sang a new arrangement of "The Lord's Prayer."

Bysle Gets Deer

Vern Bysle was the lucky hunter in a party composed also of Mark Cornils, Stanley Lundahl, and Carlton Eggiman, which spent opening week-end in the Tillamook Burn area. He shot a three-point buck.

Sunset Valley Wins

Sunset Valley girls team edged out the Barnes school group in a nip-and-tuck softball game Friday afternoon 12-11. The Barnes boys team was also defeated in the double-header played at Sunset Valley.

Hergert Shoots Deer

Alvin Hergert and Bill Jeffries returned Thursday from a hunting trip in the Bend area with one deer, shot by Hergert.

Chicken Pox Causes Absentees

Chicken pox is accounting for many absences among the younger pupils at Sunset Valley school.

Hurts Ankle in Ball Game

Jimmy Owens, son of Mrs. Arthur Schulz, was hospitalized for several days with a broken ankle he received during a softball game at school.

Local friends have received word that a daughter, Gretchen Susan, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Russel Jones of West Slope on October 7. The mother (nee Alma Zahler) and child are at Wilcox Memorial hospital.

Sunday Speaker Announced

Next Sunday, October 16, Rev. Louis Collins of Central Point will occupy the pulpit at the 11 a.m. service at the Methodist church. Rev. Collins and his wife, a niece of Mrs. M. E. Marsh, will furnish special music.

Last Tuesday the Women's Society of Christian Service met at the parsonage with Mrs. Arthur Hoerauf as hostess. Fourteen women were present. Mrs. Dave Croeni, vice-president, presided in the absence of Mrs. M. E. Marsh, who was ill. Mrs. Hoerauf was elected secretary of children's work.

Margaret Stoller, Mrs. Alvin Stoller, Mrs. Arthur Hoerauf and Mrs. Abe Stoller represented the local W.S.C.S. at a Caravan meeting held last Tuesday evening, October 4 at the Hillsboro Methodist church. A dinner preceded the meeting.

Mrs. Etta Jeffries received word recently that the Ina L. Curtis family, formerly of Vale, had bought a farm at Amboy, Wash. Mrs. Curtis is the former Mary Jeffries.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Jossy and family of Medford and the Donald Jossy family of Astoria visited the Fred Jossey's here last week-end.

Open House Announced

Baptist people are interested in the "Open House" at the Old People's Home to be held October 24 from 7 to 10 p.m. A program will be given at 7:45, followed by an ice cream social. Everyone with relatives or friends living there is urged to attend this annual function.

A WASHINGTON COUNTY BOOTH at the Pacific International caught the attention of many attending the show in Portland. In fact, Mrs. Richard Hill of Palouse, Wash. (pictured above) became so interested that she was caught by the photographer as she examined closely the replica of an old-time farm house interior.—(Cut courtesy Oregonian)

Sunday Services Told at Church

By Mrs. Paul Hunsberger

MT. HOME—Sunday will feature services in the Mountain Home Evangelical United Brethren church, with the morning worship hour at 11, and Youth Fellowship at 7, to which all young people are especially invited. Evening vespers at 8 will include a singspiration period, with a special message by the pastor, Rev. Paul Hunsberger.

The Schmeltzer dryer is now in operation, and nut harvest is in full swing. The Edy dryer has been running for some time. The full sacks of picked nuts standing in the orchards make a picturesque fall scene.

Couple Back from Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Youngblood returned from a motor trip through 11 central and southwest states. They covered 5000 miles, and report having found excellent roads all the way. Mr. Youngblood had a reunion with his brother in Hastings, Neb., and with his sisters in San Francisco and Bakersfield, Cal., all of whom he had not seen for 23 years.

Chicken Pie Supper Date Told

The Ladies Aid met October 6 at the home of Mrs. Cora Joyce, and began formulation of plans for the annual Chicken Pie Supper. The date for this traditional fiesta is set for the evening of November 11, and the place is the Mountain Home church. Mrs. Alec Bruce is heading the plans, and extends an invitation to all.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kirkpatrick entertained 18 guests at a dinner party on Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Aebischer and Mrs. George Moscrip made an auto trip to Seattle on Sunday.

John Schmeltzer and Harry Schmeltzer spent two days last week setting up the Washington county booth at the Pacific International. Their efforts received special recognition by way of a front page photo of their replica of an old-fashioned kitchen in the October 8 edition of the Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Hollis, and family are spending some time with the John Schmeltzers, throughout walnut pickling season.

Miss Betty Joyce returned Saturday from a trip of several weeks to the east. She spent some time with her sister, Mrs. Don Ricker, in Connecticut, and visited many spots of interest, including New York City. The return route was via the southern states, with stops at New Orleans and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jaquith were guests of Mrs. Fred Voeblke at Salem over Thursday and Friday.

Ladies Asked to Tuesday Luncheon

Women's Society of World Service, under the leadership of Mrs. Ray Ego, is presenting a luncheon on Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors. An interesting program centering around the missionary emphasis is being planned. All ladies are cordially invited to attend.

Miss Joyce Browning, who is employed in the offices of Oregon Mutual in McMinnville, is living at home this week, and driving to work.

Mrs. Harry Schmeltzer returned home on Monday from Wilcox Memorial hospital with her new little daughter, Anona Bell.

Miss Betty Jean Baker spent several days at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Baker, at Manning. She was present to help celebrate their wedding anniversary on Wednesday.
