LOCAL AFFAIRS

FALSEHOODS.—The junior quillist of the Democrat, a paper of China-phobia proclivities, printed in this city, the proprietors of which were "overslawed" in a recent intellectual contest with a colored barber, gets off several little falsehoods in its last issue. It is "informed" that Dr. Hill did not promise that the Committee on Printing would call on us before the meeting of the next Council, and get our bid for the city printing. The Dr. did make that promise, and did not fulfill it. The "junior" was misinformed. The implied charge that a Republican Council established a precedent for giving the printing to the party paper, regardless of price, is false. The charge that the Republican Council of 1867 did not "give a Democratic paper a chance" at the city printing, is shown to be false, when it is known that the Democrat had the contract and received more money from the city than the Journal during that year. The money received by Mr. Pickett in 1867 was for printing the "Revised Ordinances," and was let to him because his bid was lower than the bid offered by the proprietors of the Democrat—Abbott & Brown. We are informed by Mr. J. C. Mendenhall, a member of the City Council of 1867, that Mr. Pickett generally attended the meetings of the Council, took notes of the proceedings, which he published, and did not ask or receive one cent for such publication. In every city where Republicans have control, the city printing is done by contract, the lowest bidder doing the work, as it is the sworn duty of the members to act for the city as they would for themselves. If it can be shown that it is worth $50 more to the city per year, to have the Council proceedings printed in the Democrat than it is to have them printed in the REGISTER, then we have no case; if this cannot be shown, then tax-payers are virtually robbed of $50, by this action of the Council.

FLAX SEED.—We call attention to the article under this head from the pen of Mr. E. Cartwright, agent for the California Oil Company. The Farmer, of February 19th, substantially charges that Mr. C. has been furnishing Linn county farmers with California raised flax seed that was foul with weed seeds. Mr. Cartwright denies emphatically that he ever furnished a pound of California raised flax seed to our farmers, and that he ordered the first bag of East India seed, about three years ago, directly from New York; that flax seed ordered by him came in the original packages. Mr. C. thinks that the Farmer would not intentionally do him a wrong by thus mistating the case, and, therefore asks that it publish his statement as printed in our columns to-day.

THIRD GROWTH.—The lack of rain last Summer was unfavorable to the growth of potatoes, and when "digging time" came round, it was found that generally there were no potatoes to dig—all tops. The late Fall rains, however, gave the potatoes a new start, and these "second growth" fellows were large and fine looking, but when tested proved to be watery and not up to the standard. In consequence of this fact, some of our farmers did not deem it worth while to dig them at all, but let them remain in the ground. Two weeks since, one of our friends living a short distance from the city, upon examination found that his potatoes had kept on growing all Winter, and he is now luxuriating on splendid new potatoes of the third growth.

COLLECTOR.—The card of Mr. Wm. Davidson, collector and real-estate dealer of Portland, will be found among our specials this morning. Mr. Davidson is one of the best collectors on this or any other coast, and we have yet to hear of a bill put into his hands for collection upon which he has failed to make a return. Business entrusted to him is not postponed to a "more convenient season," but is attended to at once, and immediate returns made. For punctuality and indefatigableness we commend him to the public.

DRY GOODS, HARDWARE, ETC.—At Mr. John Conner's, on First street, you will find an excellent assortment of general merchandise, clothing, boots, shoes, hardware, etc., which he is closing out at low rates. His stock of iron and steel is large and varied, and he is constantly making additions to it. All articles sold at low rates. If first-class goods and low rates will effect sales, Mr. Conner will soon have empty shelves. Read his advertisement, and call at the fire-proof brick and examine for yourselves.

PRODUCE SHIPMENTS.—The shipments from Messrs. Beach & Monteith's wharf in this city for the month ending February 28th, 1870, are as follows: Eggs—half bbls., 3, boxes, 219; butter—boxes 18, kegs 35; dried apples—hf bbls 35; bacon—cases 76, gunnies 39; lard—cases 9, hf bbls 7; merchandise—cases 32; wheat—sks 301; hides—pkgs 8, and 8 kegs lager beer.

Messrs. S. S. Markham & Son shipped during the same time: Wheat—bushels, 7,936; oats—bushels 2,500; eggs—boxes 66; bacon—cases 7; lard—kegs 3; butter—kegs 2.

PORTLAND WEEKLY COMMERCIAL.—The Weekly Commercial, the first number of which was issued on last Saturday, is a neat eight-column journal, filled with bright and sparkling paragraphs such as only Mr. O'Meary, editor-in-chief, can indite. Jim is a worker, and the subscribers to the Commercial will get their money's worth, and more too.

JEWELRY.—Attention is directed to the new advertisement of Mr. J. D. Titus. His fine stock of Jewelry, watches, clocks, leather goods, etc., still attract all who have an eye for the beautiful, and his reputation as a repairer of jewelry and renovater of time-pieces keeps him as busy as a bee. He richly deserves his great success.

"A CARD"—In the last Democrat, signed "R. E. Publican," is equal in wit to anything ever written by the wearer of the five-inch hat. The signature is supposed to mean that the writer was once a Republican. As he never amounted to anything in the party, the Democracy were badly "bilked" in him, even if he did go over without a cent.

SEWING SOCIETY.—The ladies sewing society connected with the Methodist church, meets every two weeks. The next meeting will be on Tuesday, the 15th inst., at the residence of Mr. F. M. Westfall. All are invited to attend. The ladies are expected to arrive about ten o'clock A. M.; the gentlemen about noon. A dinner will be served, for which gentlemen are charged twenty-five cents each.

RIVER.—The Willamette has been in good boating stage as far up as Harrisburg for two or three weeks past, and part of that time to Eugene City. The boat that leaves Portland in the morning arrives at Albany about ten o'clock P. M. of the same day. The Albany came down from Eugene City last Sunday.

NEXT WEEK.—Messrs. Kuhn & Co. are receiving and arranging their heavy stock of hardware, iron, steel, etc., and will be ready for the reception of customers next week.

FLAX SEED.

ALBANY, March, 2d, 1870.

EDITOR ALBANY REGISTER—Dear Sir: In a recent issue of the Willamette Farmer, there appeared an item stating that the flax seed being loaned out among the farmers in the State, was full of California mustard, and other foul seeds.

In relation to the matter, it will be no more than just to say that the flax seed distributed by the Pioneer Oil Company and myself was never grown in California. The first bag of East India seed was ordered by myself, from New York city, for our own local mill at Salem some three years ago. About a year ago I brought up from the mills of the Pacific Oil and Lead Works of San Francisco, the seed for sowing nearly one thousand acres, every sack of which was just as it came on shipment from the East Indies.

Some two or three years ago, Messrs. H. Nickerson and Houston, jointly imported from California seventy-five pounds of the same kind of seed, and have since been sowing and re-sowing that seed and its annual yields, until this last Fall, when the entire crop was sold to the Pioneer Oil company, at Salem, for contracting purposes. I am not aware that the seed imported by Messrs. Nickerson and Houston was ever grown in California, nor that the seed produced so profitably by these enterprising gentlemen contained any whatever of the California Mustard, or any other foul seeds.

I admit the appearance of two kinds of rape, with a large quantity of radish seed, in that brought to the State by myself. The first are small, round, black seed, called severally the "Brassica rapa," or common turnip; the second, the "Brassica napus, navew," or French turnip. This last wild rape, or French turnip seed, is nearly all oil, producing three gallons to the bushel—more than twice as much as flax seed. The common turnip and radish are both extensively grown in the East Indies by the natives, for food. The wild French turnip also, for its rich oil, and is used in mixing their bread, and on their salads and meats.

Some eighteen months ago, Dr. Keil, of Aurora, Marion county, sent to our mill, at Salem, eighteen bushels of this wild rape, or French turnip seed, grown on his farm, for crushing. Directions were given for working it, and the result was 52½ gallons of pure table oil. Those who ate at the Larman tables on the Fair grounds, or happen to get a good dinner at Dutchtown, on the road to Portland, will at once acknowledge the good qualities of this French turnip seed oil. Both kinds of the turnip, and radish, as well as the flax seed, are necessary and valuable crops in that foreign country; and we can readily account for their mixture with the flax seed—just as our wheat is mixed with oats, barley, etc., when we allow it to be so.

Last harvest my attention was called to the fact that California mustard was growing among the flax. I asked the gentleman if California mustard had not grown on the farm before flax was sown. He promptly admitted that the mustard had preceded the flax on the farm. I take great pleasure in saying that I have not offered a single pound of flax seed grown on that farm to any man in the State.

There is now no need of any man's sowing foul seeds with the flax. Our new fan and screens, always on hand for everybody, will clean the seed perfectly clean. Throw a peck of French turnip seed with one flax seed into these screens, and the result will be that the flax seed will be saved, and the rest thrown away.

The object of our operations in this respect is not to injure the good and valuable farms of the State, but to enrich and benefit them. Oregon will yet reap millions of dollars for her flax seed and fiber. Willamette Farmer please copy.

Yours respectfully,
E. CARTWRIGHT.

Council Proceedings.

ALBANY, Feb. 24th, 1870.

Regular meeting of the Council. Present—Mayor Stanard, presiding; Councilmen Alexander, Gradwohl, Myer and Riley.

On motion, the Marshal was instructed that the crosswalk crossing Broadalbin street from the southwest corner of block 17 to the corner of block 16, must be raised six inches above the level of the street as graded, and to full hight of sidewalk at the ends.

Councilman Hill came in and took his seat.

Committee on Finance asked further time to report on bill of Montgomery & Barnes, referred to them at the last meeting of the Council.

Ordinance relating to dogs was taken up and passed.

Ordinance relating to the taking up and disposing of stray horses was taken up, read second time, and on motion, referred to special committee consisting of Hill, Alexander and Riley.

Alexander introduced an ordinance relating to contracts for hauling dirt and gravel, which was read and adopted.

Gradwohl introduced an ordinance relating to keeping gunpowder, which was read the first time.

Ordinance relating to crosswalks and passing over sidewalks was offered, read first time, and on motion, was adopted.

On motion, Committee on Drainage was instructed to employ some person to drain a pond near Mr. Mealey's.

On motion, the Marshal was instructed to notify the owners to substantially cover or secure all the wells that are open or in a dangerous condition within the city limits.

An amendment to section 5th of chapter 4th of ordinance concerning offences against city police was, on motion, adopted, making it to read not less than $2 nor more than $20.

Councilman Riley moved to reconsider the letting of the city printing, and let it by contract. Vote being taken the motion was lost.

Petition of Cundiff, Gray, and others, was presented, asking that a sidewalk be built on the north side of Third street, from the southeast corner of block 16 to the southeast corner of block 13. A remonstrance against the same was presented by Irving, Schlosser, and others. On motion, petition and remonstrance were referred to committee on sidewalks.

On motion, the Marshal was ordered to put down sidewalks on Third street, opposite lots the owners of which are unknown.

On motion the Recorder was allowed until the firs meeting in April to complete assessment.

Adjourned. A. C. JONES, Rec.

TALENT RECOGNIZED.—Our late townsman and old friend, Mr. Chas. E. Monteith, was one of the principal vocalists in the great musical festival that transpired in San Francisco on the 22d, 23d and 24th of last month.

PREMIUM LIST.—We expect to furnish our readers next week, with the list of premiums to be given to successful competitors at the next County Fair. The premiums have been enlarged and there are more of them.

CEREALS.—The price of wheat here remains as heretofore quoted, and no immediate hope for a change for the better. Oats are in the same category. No improvement noted in California.

DANGEROUSLY ILL.—Mr. Presley George, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Linn county, it is reported, is lying dangerously ill at his residence near Lebanon.

"Shoo, fly, don't bodder me!"—Democrat.

A few quotations from Ben. Butler each week, in the Demograt, might give that weakly concern some little tone. Anything to keep it from falling back on its mother-tongue.

SOME EGGS.—There were shipped from the wharf of Messrs. Beach & Monteith alone, during last month, more than five thousand dozen eggs, or eleven tuns measurement.

CIRCUIT COURT.—Circuit Court convenes on the 28th of the present month.

A revenue officer at Buffalo reported "a barrel of whiskie seezed by me for not bein stampt has been stoll by ruffins with fases dysguyssed with kraip."

MRS. DUNIWAY has just received a number of Bartram & Fanton Sewing Machines, direct from New York. It is claimed for these machines that they are simple in construction, easily understood, make an elastic stitch, fasten their own ends, adjust their own needles, are easily moved about on castors, (a convenience no other machine possesses), have extra attachments for all kinds of fancy work, and are always in running order. They will seam, hem, fell, quilt, cord, ruffle, embroider, braid, tuck or gather; run without noise, will not soil the operator's clothes, and are sold at lower prices than any other table machine in use. Price of machine, with black walnut table and drawer, oiled and waxed, fifty-five dollars. 23-3m

SEWING MACHINES.—Messrs. Blain & Young are agents for the sale of SEWING MACHINES, and all the fixtures necessary thereto. This enables those who wish to purchase any of the first-class machines to get what they order at the lowest cash price, and if anything should be lacking, or should get out of repair, these gentlemen will take pleasure in furnishing the missing article, or put the machine in running order, without extra cost—quite an advantage, as those who have purchased machines at a distance, have learned by sad experience. No household is complete without one of these labor-savers, and if you want to be sure of getting what you order, at the lowest price, and have it delivered to you in complete running order, call at Blain and Young's and leave your order. Nuff ced.

THE HOME BOOK OF WONDERS.—This book is a complete Museum, Descriptive and Pictorial, of the World's Wonderful Phenomenon. It is something wonderful in printed facts, and is a work containing nearly everything that everybody should read, study and know, and as a book of reference it has no equal. The work is now in press, and will be sold only to subscribers. Mr. G. B. Blood is the gentlemanly agent for the State, and is at present canvassing Linn county for subscribers. It is really the most valuable work that has been issued from the press for years, possessing all the interest of the best romance, and, at the same time, the ripe instruction of the book of travels, or the work of science and descriptive art, and no man that can read should be without it.
