LOCAL AFFAIRS

SHOT THROUGH THE FOREHEAD.—On Thursday of last week, the dead body of a young man named George Miller, son of Robert Miller, who resides about three miles from Lebanon, was found in the orchard of Mr. Vogle, but a short distance from his home. A rifle lying by his side and a bullet hole in his forehead indicated the manner and cause of his death. Our first information was that deceased had undoubtedly committed suicide; but later information, obtained from Sheriff, R. A. Irvine, would seem to indicate that self murder was not intended, but death was caused by accident. The deceased was about sixteen years of age.

PERSONAL.—Mr. J. B. Sprenger, formerly landlord of the Cosmopolitan Hotel, Portland, arrived, with his family, in this city on Monday. Jake is now open to an engagement in the line of biz, if he can see where the profit comes in. Jake always goes in to win.

Mrs. Delazon Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Burkhart left this city for the East on Wednesday. They go to San Francisco on the steamer California, which left Portland on Thursday; thence by Pacific Railroad.

The wife of Dr. E. R. Geary, of this city left us on Wednesday morning, intending to take Thursday's steamer for San Francisco, thence overland on a visit to the old homestead in the East. Prof. Thos. G. Tayler, late Principal of our public school, also departed for his old home in Pennsylvania, where he expects to remain, much to the regret of his many friends. We wish them all a safe and pleasant trip.

GONE TO SALEM.—Attracted thither by the meeting of the Legislature, the Supreme Court, and the approaching State Fair, all of our big men have left us for Salem, and we are left to plod on as best we can. We hope the Salemites will send them home in good shape and frame of mind, when they have gone through them, otherwise they will make "Rome howl" when they get back—you bet your bottom dollar!

SATISFACTORILY ARRANGED.—Mr. Jas. H. Foster received a telegram from Ben. Holladay the first of the week, which sent him post haste to Salem. Since his return, we learn that matters were satisfactorily arranged between him and Mr. Holladay, and there will be no more trouble about the railroad. We devoutly hope so, at any rate.

SUCCESSFUL.—Messrs. Russel & Perry, real estate dealers of Portland, have sold, during the last five months, lots and tracts in East Portland and vicinity, aggregating in value nearly $100,000. We are glad to hear of the continued success and prosperity of our old friends. Any business entrusted to them will receive prompt and careful attention. See their card on first page of this journal.

Dr. Pierce's Alt. Ext. or Golden Medical Discovery is not a fancy drink made of poor poisonous strychnine whisky, proof spirits and refuse liquors, spiced and sweetened to please the taste and lead topers on to ruin, as are the so-called "Bitters" of the day. It is a pure medical extract of native roots and herbs, and is a speedy, safe and sure remedy for all severe, acute and lingering coughs, loss of appetite, "Liver complaint" or "Biliousness," and Constipation of the Bowels. Nothing equals it for purifying the blood and curing Pimples, Blotches, Eruptions, Salt Rheum, Erysipelas, Scrofulous and all skin diseases. Sold by druggists.

FROM HARRISBURG.—The new dam for the Harrisburg Flouring Mills, owned by Messrs. Moore, Smith & Co., is fast approaching completion. It will cost some $3,000, and will last, our informant said, "forever, and turn to rock." Moore, Smith & Co. have received about 40,000 bushels of the new wheat crop. Business generally good, and with good health the Harrisburgians may consider themselves a favored people.

THE QUESTION SETTLED.—Those eminent men, Dr. Jas. Clark, Physician to Queen Victoria, and Dr. Hughes Bennett, say that consumption can be cured. Dr. Wistar knew this when he discovered his BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY, and experience has proved the correctness of his opinion. 2

ENLARGED.—The Daily Oregon Statesman comes to us enlarged and otherwise greatly improved. We are glad to see the prosperity of our friends, we congratulate friend Clark on this evidence of appreciation by the public.

DAILY MERCURY.—Mr. Upton, late of Corvallis, has removed his print shop to Salem, and is now issuing a daily there. Upton is bound to have a good time even if he don't make a cent.

LEGAL.—See administrator's notice of the estate of James Martin, deceased. Parties interested will govern themselves according to the notice.

PREPARED.—Having eleven or twelve cords of wood sawed and under our woodshed, we are prepared to go into winter quarters whenever the weather shall elect.

PIE CRUSTS.—Our buyers are offering 65 cents per bushel for wheat.

Linn County Fair opens on the 20th—Tuesday.

Friend Wheeler, of Brownsville, has a new special in this issue, which should be read attentively by all. Wheeler's is the place in Brownsville, sure Hilbabidel & Co. are in receipt of fresh groceries, vegetables, etc., to which they ask the attention of our citizens. They are a pretty good lot of fellows to deal with, anyhow.

Wm. Driggs, of the new book store, is always on hand with the latest publications, stationary, etc., at low figures, to all who patronize him.

It is bruited about that a marriage in high life is soon to be consummated in this city.

The very neatest set of bed room furniture we have seen on the coast, is being finished up at Chas. Mealey's furniture ware rooms. It will make your eyes water to look at them.

Mrs. Thos. Monteith, who has been absent in San Francisco for several months, arrived at her old home in this city last week.

Being asked the other day, "why don't you publish poetry?" we answered, "because we are out of "sorts." When received, 'twill do us proud to peotize.

The wheat crop in the vicinity of Harrisburg is largely in excess of last season. Buyers were paying 55 cents on Thursday.

Foster & Co., of Magnolia Mills, has received 11,810.40 bushels of wheat for the week ending September 15th.

Those cantelopes left at our office by a friend of ours were good eating, or we don't want a cent.

In the House we notice that Representative Alexander has been selected as Chairman of Committee on elections, and Representative Helm Chairman of Judiciary Committee.

The Willamette Valley and Cascade Mountain Wagon Road has been accepted by the Governor.

Great activity exists among our mechanics who are getting up articles to exhibit at the coming County Fair.

Watermellons are in greater supply than ever, at reduced rates.

Ben. Holladay swears he will complete the railroad to this city by December—and he'll do it.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. S. Montgomery is confined to his room by serious illness.

As Mr. Blain has returned from San Francisco, look out for slathers of new goods at Blain, Young & Co's.

We enjoyed a splendid supper on the evening of Wednesday, at Mr. F. M. Westfall's at the meeting of the Methodist Sewing Circle. There was a large attendance. The next meeting will be at Dr. Griffin's, a week from Wednesday.

Weather variable, causing more or less sickness throughout the county.

Messrs. Beach & Monteith will finish their mill race by next Saturday, and soon thereafter will be running their mill "by water."

A large band of sheep crossed Pierce's ferry on Wednesday, en route for grass.

Mr. A. Z. Sears has resumed control of Franklin Market. He is a liberal gentleman as well as a neat butcher.

Frank Wood has a new way of "setting" tire that does away with much labor and makes a better job when finished.

The Congregational Sewing Society, which met at Mr. Ed. Merrill's on Thursday evening, was an enjoyable affair. The supper on that occasion proves that Mrs. S. has few equals in the art culinary. For first-class fare and good treatment, recommend us to the Sewing Circles. May they grow and flourish.

Those indebted to us will find us at our office from 7 A. M. to 7 P. M., ready and willing to furnish the necessary receipts. "Delays will kill the oldest man in the world" is about as old as true; therefore be admonished in time.

PEACHES.—Very nice peaches, raised in Linn county, are offered by our grocers at seven cents per pound.

APPRECIATED.—Those luscious grapes presented to us by J. C. Mendenhall They were the finest we have recieved this season.

POSPONED.—The sale of the Mercier property in this city has been postponed to Saturday, October 8th, 1870. The lots are valuable, and spirited bidding may be expected at the day of sale.

SOME MISTAKE.—The Portland dailies of Tuesday announce the death of Mr. Thomas Parsons, followed by glowing obituaries. They state that Tom died of choleramorbus, after a short illness, on Saturday evening, in Albany, Oregon. We are rather anxious to know how the poor, dead man will feel when he finds out he is really dead. He left here for Harrisburg, on Tuesday last, as we supposed, in tolerable health. But it may be it was only his ghost. For a ghost he looked remarkably well.

SUCCESS.—The extensive job and book establishment lately owned by Mr. A. L. Stinson, at Salem, has been purchased by Mr. E. M. Waite. Mr. Waite is doubtless the best job printer on the coast, and we recommend him to public patronage.

The Olympia Standard is now under the editorial control of Beriah Brown, Esq, late of the Salem Press. Mr. Brown thinks the election of Col. James K. Kelly to the U. S. Senate, by the present Legislature of Oregon, is not a foregone conclusion, giving as a reason for this belief that "party politics is fearfuly corrupt in Oregon."

SANITARY FAIRS.—The German Sanitary Fair of San Francisco has yielded nearly $25,000. The French have raised over $24,000, and expect to double that amount at their Fair which commences on the 17th—to-day.

SICKNESS.—The Eugene Guard says there is a great deal of sickness throughout Lane county at the present time.

Resolutions of Condolence.

At a special convocation of Corinthian Lodge No. 17 A. F. & A. M., held on Saturday, Sept. 10th, 1870, the following preamble and resolutions were adopted:

WHEREAS, In the inscrutable dispensation of an Allwise Providence our esteemed brother, Luther W. Doolittle, has been taken from our midst and his soul reclaimed by Him who gave it, and

WHEREAS, It is meet and seemly that we should express our sorrow for his departure hence, and our sympathy with the mourning ones of his bereft household, therefore,

Resolved, That while we recognize the fact that in his death society has lost a useful and upright man, this Lodge one of its brightest and purest moveable jewels, and his family a loving, generous and dear protector, yet we would not call him from the sweet rest of a just soul to the trials and suffering to which all of us are subject, and of which he was a most unfortunate partaker during the long and wearisome illness which preceded his removal to the Celestial Grand Lodge.

Resolved, That as Masons we will ever cherish his memory and good deeds in the brightest chamber of our hearts, and it shall be our highest aim to emulate his virtues, and practice that fraternal charity which was the brighest ornament of his Masonic character.

Resolved, That to his family—those stricken ones, who ever had his first care and kindest thoughts—we extend the warmest sympathy in their irreparable bereavement, and ask them to let the blissful thought that "their loss is his eternal gain," console them in part for his absence, assuage the grief which they must inevitably experience in this great sorrow.

Resolved, That in token of our respect for our deceased Brother, the Lodge shall be draped in mourning for thirty days, and the Fraternity wear the usual badge of sorrow for the same length of time.

Resolved, That the Secretary be instructed to furnish a copy of the foregoing resolutions to the bereaved family, as also copies to the Albany newspapers for publication, and that a copy be retained in the archives of the Lodge for future reference.

THE STATE FAIR.

No doubt a very creditable display may be expected on the grounds of the Agricultural Society during Fair Week, but there is no show in or about Brownsville equaling the splendid assortment of goods on exhibition at Wheeler's store. The stock has been carefully selected with an eye to the wants of all classes of people, and will repay the time expended in an examination.

When you want to buy or look at goods, or talk over the news, go to WHEELER'S.
