LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Dr. Lowe, an up-to-now optician.

Try L. L. Howell's coffee. 10 pounds for $1.00.

Yes, Dr. Lowe cured my headache with a pair of his glasses.

Mr. J. A. Dow has resigned his position with S. L. Kline.

Prof. B. E. Emerick paid his respects to the GAZETTE a few days since.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitby and son were in town Saturday on business.

Seven thousand dollars was paid for picking the hop crop of Benton county this fall.

Mrs. James Martin, her son John, and daughter, Mrs. Nelson, were shopping in town last Saturday.

The S. P. R. R. will grant a rate to those attending Farmers' Short Course at one and one-third fare.

Jas. Dixon, a prominent rancher near Cardwell Hill, was in town the other day and recognized the GAZETTE man.

Jesse Brown, one of the big Willamette farmers, called on the GAZETTE Saturday and reported 260 acres of wheat sown and looking well.

George Armstrong, of Mountain View, said how do you do to the GAZETTE the other day. George is a breeder of fine Cotswold and South Down sheep.

The GAZETTE feels thankful for the subscriptions that have been paid so cheerfully this fall, and will be glad to receipt to others whenever they desire.

Our old friend and comrade, I. E. Gleason, of Beaver creek, called on the GAZETTE Wednesday morning and spent an hour with us. Come again, comrade.

Rev. L. F. Stevens is the newly installed pastor of the Christian church of this city. Himself and family are domiciled in S. W. Jackson's cottage, second door south of the Christian church.

Our esteemed townsman Wm. Bogue has been doing some landscape gardening, southwest corner 9th and Madison. Joe Dutton was the artist. It's a good job, and when spring comes, it will greatly add to the appearance of Mr. Bogue's home.

The contract for erecting the new O. A. C. Mechanical Hall has been let to H. M. Ely, of Salem, Oregon, for $19,213. The building is to be of stone, two stories, with cement fire-proof roof, and is to be completed April 1st, 1899.

J. H. Ackerman, State School Superintendent elect, Prof. S. I. Pratt, principal of the Corvallis schools, and Prof. George Denman, Benton county's popular school Superintendent, graced the GAZETTE sanctum by their presence a short time on Saturday last.

Geo. W. Thompson, a big Beaver Creek rancher occupying Mrs. C. H. Lee's place, called on the GAZETTE this week and informed us that he had already sown 175 acres of grain and would sow 75 acres more. George is a hustler from Hustlerville and no mistake.

The contract for the power house of the O. A. C. was let on Friday of last week to Flynn & McBride', of Portland. It is to be erected on the old Mechanical Hall site, will cost $1750, and is to be completed in sixty days from Nov. 4th. Work has begun in earnest, and is an example of the prompt methods adopted by the building committee.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Parker of Evergreen were made very happy recently over the birth of a 11½ lb son It is reported by people living in the neighborhood that E. A. was so exhilarated over the event that he seized a large sized American flag and with it in his grasp, he climbed one of the tallest firs in the vicinity and nailed the flag to the very top, and when the act was completed he triumphantly looked out upon the world from his airy perch, and at the top of his voice shouted, Dewey.

What is going to be done about the purchase of the Diller block for school purposes? Our people ought to think about this matter and get ready to act intelligently when called upon to vote. Something must be done before long, as the present school building is entirely inadequate to the demands now made upon it. Now is an opportune time. Money can be had upon bonds at a very low rate of interest, probably 4 or 4½ per cent on long time. Let's take advantage of such rate and build a suitable building.

Former students and graduates of the O. A. C. serving with the Second Oregon, have sent to the college a Spanish flag captured at Manila, August 13th last. The names of our boys who were present at the time of capture have their names on the middle stripe which is yellow, the two outer stripes being red, and are as follows: Co. A, Corporal H. L. McAlister; Sergeants J. H. Gallagher, and E. C. Young, since deceased; Co. C, Private W. C. McGuire, Co. E, Private W. Abernathy; Co. F, Musician G. H. Kronkite; Co. I, Private Lee Harding; California band, Private Don Ray; Co. K, Lieutenant R. W. Terrell; Sergeant J. J. Thurston, Corporal Leigh Noel; Corporal Carl Abrams; Privates E. W. Becker, S. C. Brown, E. R. Carter, M. M. Cooper, A. DeLashmutt, J. DeLashmutt, A. G. Hansen, F. Jensen, H. D. Kelty, W. B. Scott, A. J. Stimpson. The souvenir is very highly prized by the students and faculty as well as by our citizens generally. The O. A. C. always gets there as well on the battle line as in college athletics.

WHERE ROLLS THE OREGON.

Queen State and Mistress of the West,
Where sinks the dying sun to rest,
And casts its last rays upon thy fair hills
As the calm Pacific's vasty deep
Doth lull it as in peace to sleep;
How my fond heart with rapture thrills
To think of thee and thy bright vales;
All else besides thy beauty pales
To nothingness and has no worth
For thou alone art Queen of Earth!

Where glow such colors as bedeck thy sky
And holds enrapt the wondering eye?
Snow-capped and towering Mt. Hood rears
His lordly head o'er thy fair land
As King of mountains, peer of peers,
And with a monarch's hand
Doth rule the zone of changing seasons, Spring,
Summer, Autumn, Winter, bring
At once their fruits in homage meet;
And lay with reverence at thy feet!

The blood-red poppies of the field,
The orchards and their timely yield
Of ripen'd fruit of gold and red.
Sweet-peas within the garden bed,
Carnation rare, of many hue,
The daisy bright, the violet blue,
The blushing rose, the maiden-hair;
And all that's rich and all that's rare,
From teeming treasure of the mine
To maidens beautiful and fair,
Thou dost possess, they all are thine.

Oh! rich indeed art thou, fair State.
Where in earth's bounds is found thy mate?
Where grows such trees as deck thy plains
Where blow such winds, descends such rains
As fertilize thy teeming soil?
And makes life and lessens toil?
Forever flourish fair and free
O! State of States, one state to me!

—Bloomington (Ill) Eye.

Don't throw your eyes away, take them to Dr. Lowe next week.

Wm Bamp, the veteran hop grower of Kings Valley, called this week.

A. S. Pence, the gentlemanly agent of the S. P. R. R. in this city, called on business Tuesday evening.

Uncle John Richard smiled on friends in town recently. He is one of the sturdy pioneers of Willamette precinct,

Mr. Mathews and daughter, of Soap Creek, left a substantial token of respect at the GAZETTE office a few days ago.

Hon. W. S. Hufford, who is having good success in the practice of law in Portland, smiled on us Monday afternoon last.

Mrs. S. C. Whitmore, of Jermyn, Pa., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Radir, and other relatives in Corvallis and Portland.

The subject at the Congregational church next Sunday morning will be "The Divine Voice", in the evening, "Christ Enthroned".

H. M. Robinson, of Beaver, was in town this week with a load of pork and beef for Lee Henkle, raised on Lee's farm in that locality.

Dr. Lowe, the well known optician, will return and spend next week in Corvallis. All persons suffering from eye defects can consult him in the Occidental hotel.

Attorneys from abroad attending our district court are G. M. Brown, district attorney, Roseburg; Kelly & Curl and C. H. Watson, Albany; E. L. Bryan, Philomath; W. S. Hufford, Portland.

Supject at Methodist Episcopal church, Lord's Day, morning: "That Jewel, may it never lose its luster." Evening, "A broken up funeral in the presence of much people, causing a great sensation."

There will be a union service on Thanksgiving day at the United Evangelical church at 10:30 a. m. Rev. Noble of the Baptist church will preach the sermon. All the churches of the city are invited.

S. L. Kline has returned from San Francisco and is now better prepared to meet the wants of his increasing trade than ever before. An investigation of his mammoth stock will convince the most skeptical.

Mr. R. A. Bowman is making an effort to raise money to pay for building a sidewalk from Job's addition to the Catholic cemetery. A very much needed improvement. We hope our people will respond liberally.

There are now enrolled at the O. A. C. 315 students, the largest number ever matriculated in the first term of any college year. The second term has always had the largest number, and it is expected that 350 at least will be in attendance when the second term of this college year begins.

Mrs. Cam. Hemphill died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Rice, in Portland, Monday last. She was buried near Portland on Wednesday. Mrs. Hemphill had been ill for six months or more. She was the youngest daughter of Jacob and Nancy Felger, who for many years lived near Philomath, in this county The GAZETTE joins in condolence and sympathy to the husband and family.

Married—At Missoula, Montana, Sunday, Nov. 6. 1898, at 4:30 p. m., Miss Bertha M. Berry, of Portland, and Mr. Alex Downie, of Missoula. The bride was formerly a student of the Corvallis public school, graduating with the class of '95, and is highly respected here. The happy couple will reside at Missoula, where the groom has employment. Friends in this city extend congratulations.

Last Friday from 2 to 5 p. m. Mrs. Richard Graham, 812 Eighth street, gave an afternoon to her many friends in honor of her sister, Mrs. S. C. Whitmore, of Jermyn, Pa. The cozy rooms of her home were tastily decorated with chrysanthemums of different hues. A delicate lunch was served to the guests, all of whom were friends of Mrs. Whitmore during her girlhood days in Oregon. Those present were, Mrs. W. E. Yates, Mrs Wm. Bogue, Mrs. Rob't Huston, Mrs. Joseph Yates, Mrs. Judge Burnett, Mrs. N. B. Avery, Mrs. S. L. Henderson, Mrs. L. Y. Wilson, Mrs. Minnie Lee, Miss Lane, Mrs. Wm. Crees, Mrs. Helen Mays, Mrs. J. R. Scrafford, Mrs. J. J. Flett, Mrs. Pengra, Mrs. N. R. Barber, Mrs. Adam Radir, Mrs. B. W. Wilson, Mrs. G. R. Farra, and Mrs. S. C. Whitmore. The ladies were becomingly dressed, several richly so. Mrs. Whitmore was gowned in an elegant creation of silk and satin of different shades so arranged as to create a very delightful effect.

Teachers' Institute.

Friday evening last, County Superintendent Demann called the institute to order in the M. E. church of this city.

Miss Lulu Spangler, a popular vocalist, sang a solo.

Mr. George Paul gave a recitation in good style.

President Campbell, of Monmouth Normal school, was then introduced and held the close attention of his audience for an hour while he discussed Horace Mann as a statesman and educator. Familiarity with his subject enabled him to make a good impression. Mrs. E. R. Lake followed with a solo. Miss Helen Crawford gave a reading in pleasing style, which closed the evening's exercises.

At 10:30 A. M. Saturday, the institute met in the public school building, seventy teachers being present. Miss Leon Louis, of the Corvallis schools, read a paper on "Language Teaching." Pres. Campbell followed with a profitable talk on "Child Study". Mr. Swan, of the Corvallis school, advocated corporeal punishment. State Superintendent-elect, Ackerman, explained grade work in county schools, and believed the course could be taken, and the pupils graduated would be admitted to high schools in the state. Prof. Sheak, of Philomath College, gave a brief talk on "Penmanship." Principal S. I. Pratt of Corvallis schools, briefly told of a few of the advantages of vertical writing. Principal Guthrie, of Philomath public school, talked on how to teach "History", giving most attention to civil events. Professor Emerick, of Philomath, urged the necessity of moral training.

A resolution favoring the grading of the country schools was introduced by Professor Horner and received the unanimous vote of the teachers.

The next institute will be held at Philomath.

160 acres on Big Elk. 10 acres under cultivation. Good frame barn, good one story box house, nice young orchard, fine stock range, plenty of oat range. Timber enough on ground to build two more rooms and rustic the whole house. For terms see

Ten acres, ¾ miles west of O. A. C., on Kings Valley road. Good 8 rooms cottage, including pantries. 5 acres in bearing fruit and berries; 2 good wells of fine water. Barn 26x44. Near to school, church and college. Cheap for cash and very desirable.

Three lots on which is a good frame building suitable for a store, living rooms above, at Summit station on the C. & E. R. R. 26 miles west of Corvallis. Also 100 acres of good land ¾ mile from Summit station. Considerable timber suitable for railroad wood. Cheap for cash.

117 acres, mostly bottom land; 12 acres under cultivation; 2 acres bearing apple orchard. Good new $400 frame house and a fair barn. First-class stock ranch. Fifteen minutes' walk from Summit Station, C. & E. R. R. Three-fourths of a mile to school; one-half mile to postoffice. Price, $1250. Small payment down, balance on long time, low rate of interest.

Ranch of 500 acres, two miles south of Philomath. Fair house, new barn 28x40, one mile of new outside fence; 45 acres in prunes, apples and pears, 30 acres bearing; 80 acres of farming, balance oak grub and second growth fir and pasture land; pure spring water at house and barn. This is a fine place for a home. The wood on the oak grub land will pay for clearing. Terms easy.

Eleven acres, situated three-fourths of a mile north of the College, on the road leading to Sol Kings farm, 24 rods from city limits. On this tract are 500 seven year old pear trees, 600 eight year old prune trees, and a few apple trees. Under good fence. Fine place for small home. Good garden ground. The income from the orchard from now on will keep a small family. For terms, see
