Fall wine walk adds to Seaside's festivities

SEASIDE — More than 20 Oregon wineries will be sharing tastings of their award-winning wines at various locations throughout downtown Seaside on Saturday, Nov.14, during the semi-annual Seaside Downtown Wine Walk sponsored by the Seaside Downtown Development Association. Each venue will provide complementary food from various restaurants.

Typically, more than 750 participants enjoy strolling, sipping and shopping from 3 to 7 p.m.

Registration stations, which include ID check, will be located in the Carousel Mall (300 Broadway) and the Elks Lodge (324 Ave. A) from 1 to 6:30 p.m., and at RiverTide Suites (102 N. Holladay) from 2:30 to 6:30 p.m.

The $10 participant fee provides the required commemorative wine glass and ID bracelet as well as entry into a drawing for various gift certificates, including tickets for the Spring 2016 Seaside Downtown Wine Walk. Tickets can also be ordered in advance on SDDA's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/seasidedowntown

The Seaside Downtown Development Association is a nonprofit organization enhancing the environment and economic viability of downtown Seaside for the local community and visitors. In addition to providing the starfish lighting and hanging flower baskets in the area, SDDA annually sponsors two wine walks, two car shows, a charity golf tournament with Seaside Kids, Inc as well as a winter coupon book and Shop Seaside event.
