State Horticultural Society.

Mr. George Sergeant, secretary of the State Board of Horticulture, which society will hold its next quarterly meeting here on Tuesday and Wednesday the 11th and 12th of April, 1893, informs us that the exercises will be by no means confined to the fruit industry, but that Prof. Washburne will be here to lecture upon and illustrate the hop louse, its habits and the remedies for it, as well as the insects which bother the orchard. Mr. Dumont, of Lotz, Indiana, an agricultural chemist, will lecture on the soils of Oregon and show a ready way to make an examination of them and determine their constituents and for what crops they are best adapted. A fruit commission merchant will show how to pack fruit both green and dried, a practical orchardist will illustrate pruning, one will talk of evaporating fruits. Mr. Loveridge, a practical vineyardist, of New York will show how to raise grapes.

The ladies are also especially invited to come, for one evening will be devoted to flowers, two ladies coming from Portland to talk on flowers, and Mrs. Prof. Collier will tell what she has accomplished by the cultivation of the wild flowers of Oregon.

This costs nothing for any one to attend. A hearty welcome will be extended to all, and there is no doubt that every man in the country who is engaged in tilling the soil will derive a benefit from being present. The ladies will also learn much about flowers with which to adorn and beautify their homes.

So again a most cordially invitation is extended to every one both far and near to come.

Announcement to the Farmers and Breeders of Lane County.

The owners of "Dawn F," the famous trotting stallion, realizing the stringency of the times, and believing the farmers and breeders of the county should be encouraged in improving the standard of their horses, have determined to reduce the price of service of this great sire, for this year, from $50 to $15 for the season, with return privilege.

"Dawn F," combines the two great trotting families of Nutwoods and Hambletonians closer than any other living horse. His sire, Dawn ( ) of California, 2:18, was by Old Nutwood (600) of Kentucky, 2:18¼, (half brother of Maud S., 2:08¼) while his dam, Daisy F., was by Whipplcton (1883) and he by Hambletonian jr. (1882). The sires of "Dawn F." have produced more famous trotters than all other families combined.

Breeders desiring to take advantage of this offer will find the horse during the season from April 1 to July 1 at the stables of Bangs & Henderson, in Eugene. Those wishing an extended pedigree of the horse, or further particulars regarding his breeding qualities may obtain the same by calling on, or addressing,

We have been asked by numerous subscribers during the past few days why we have not published an account of a lady being killed last Saturday in a runaway. It was the mistake of a minister that originated the report. The lady in the accident was Mrs. Harry Bucknum, who was only slightly injured, and we gave an account of the accident in Monday's GUARD.

Sam Simpson in Astoria Budget: That was an amusing action of the California legislature in voting to submit to the people a proposition to remove the capital from Sacramento to San Jose because a Sacramento paper had criticised the state solons. If the object is to remove the capital to a place where the legislature will not be criticised it should be located in a graveyard.

The cutlery works heretofore run by us will be removed to Fairmount, where in a shop erected and especially adapted to our use, the business will be greatly enlarged and other lines of edged tools manufactured. We propose to make the best cutting implements on the market, and solicit our share of public patronage. The firm name will remain unchanged, G. M. Miller taking the interest of the Messrs. Cardwell.

A Good Advertiser.

E. J. Frasier, of our city, does more to advertise the territory he represents than all others combined in his line of business. His latest proposition eclipses all former ones; it is to sell four lots for $60, only $5 down and the balance in 6 months WITHOUT INTEREST, or 10 per cent discount for all cash. This is virtually giving three lots away, for any one of them is worth the price asked for all four. Those who wish to take advantage of this chance to get a home for a trifle, where they may enjoy the benefits of Eugene's excellent public schools and the Oregon State University can obtain circulars descriptive of this property, together with affidavits by responsible citizens verifying the statements therein, by addressing

A MISS AS GOOD AS A MILE.

E. E. Loofborrow, of Florence Precinct, the Unlucky Victim.

Daily Guard, March 30.

Constable C. B. Morgan arrived this morning from Florence having in custody E. E. Loofborrow whom he turned over to the sheriff having commitment papers from Justice H. M. Chamberlain, of Florence precinct. The facts as gleaned are substantially as follows: The Loofborrows are residents of Glenada where they have lived since last fall. On last Sunday E. E. Loofborrow, aged 28 years, was married to his niece, Mary Loofborrow, who is about 18 years old, by Rev. Robinson. The ceremony took place in Florence at 1 o'clock and about 6 o'clock the same evening he was arrested on a complaint sworn out by the girl's father, Harold Loofborrow, charging him with the crime of incest. It having been urged that his marriage constituted the crime charged he plead guilty and was bound over by the justice. Steps are now being taken to secure a writ of habeas corpus on the ground that he is held by faulty committment papers. The defense he makes for his rash undertaking is that he was ignorant of any violation of law.

In Memory of Judge Deady.

The following resolutions were passed by the University of Oregon:

WHEREAS, It is with profound sorrow that the faculty of the University of Oregon learns of the death of the Honorable Matthew P. Deady; and,

WHEREAS, In the loss of that great man the University of Oregon has lost the able president of its board of regents, the faculty a kindly adviser and the cause of education a zealous friend; therefore,

Resolved, That as a faculty, we tender to the family of our deceased friend our most sincere and heartfelt feelings of sympathy in this our sad bereavement.

Resolved, That his life of self-sacrifice and devotion to the welfare of others, his indefatigable industry, his unwavering integrity and his efforts to elevate mankind make his well-spent life a shining example for the youth of our land. We honor his memory.

By order of the faculty.

At Villard Hall.

Daily Guard, March 29.

The exercises at the university last evening were opened by two numbers on the piano, by Miss Bessie Sawyers, and prayer by Rev. P. R. Burnett. The address by Rev. Arthur J. Brown on "Father Time," was replete with excellent thoughts. Following the theme he especially recalled the important reformations which have marked the history of the world, political and social as well as educational. Villard Hall was nearly filled with the audience and many favorable comments on the address were heard at the close.

Women in Convention.

Daily Guard March 30.

The afternoon of the W. C. T. U convention yesterday was notable for two thing: The thoroughness with which the business in hand was dispatched, and the earnestness and eloquence that characterized the several discussions.

Mrs. Condon gave a talk on the influence of Mother's work in the home, that went direct to the heart of every woman present, and carried with it the conviction that the real power for good lies here, and in the home circle must be laid the foundation of whatever work is done in the temperance cause or for the matter of that, any reform whatsoever.

Mrs. McAllister on "Scientific Temperance Instruction" was clearly practical and every paragraph of her well written paper made an impression upon her listeners.

Miss Trumbull's address entertained a fair-sized audience in the evening and was preceded by some interesting exercises.

Too much cannot be said in commendation of our W. C. T. U. State President, Mrs. Riggs, who devotes time, means and energy to the cause of temperance and purity. Such unselfish labor must count for much in God's sight, and assuredly deserves the loving support of all who are interested in human progress.

Wonder if spring has finally come.

Daniel Parker has returned to the valley from an extended visit to his brother James at Cloverdale.

The sawmill is running on full time now, and the hum of the saw sounds like there is some business in the country yet.

We learn that Henry Matthews of Goshen is intending to erect a large barn the coming summer having placed the bill for the lumber with D. C. Matthews of the Upper Lost Valley sawmill.

W. H. Fenton made a business trip to Eugene Monday, returning Tuesday.

Miss Lucy Higgins, whose father resides in Upper Lost Valley, has gone to California for a short stay, much to the sorrow of some young Fall Creek gentlemen.

Some one has inserted quite a budget of items from this place this week in the county papers. Come again, brother. As this correspondent relates no little interest is manifested in a threatened scandal case just at present, we suggest that our ministers give us a few practical sermons on the disquieting influence of those who disturb the peaceful quietude of our neighborhood.

Lost Valley boasts of a man in the person of Uncle Jo Neet, who at the age of 72 years, has this winter grubbed a measured acre of land from the thick brush. How many men of his age can do this.

W. R. Parker and wife visited friends and relations at Cloverdale Saturday and Sunday.

A number of young men took in the Nye and Burbank show Saturday evening and report an unqualified success. Who couldn't laugh at Bill Nye? REGULAR.

Lung Destroyers.

The law against minors smoking cigarettes is being enforced in Portland. The Oregonian recently tells of the arrest of Martin Hickey, 18 years old, who was arrested on the street by an officer.

There is a national movement perceptible against the deadly cigarette which is eminently fitting if the United States would preserve the vigor of their youth. Washington has passed sumptuary laws and the general government is framing legislation to apply to all the states in the union. Hence it is the duty of local officers to enforce the law at Eugene whenever they see it broken, and the task will be made easier now that Portland has broken the ice.

Daily Guard, March 30.

MISSIONARY ADDRESS.—Rev. R. Mitchell, formerly a missionary to India, and who returns again in August, delivered an address at the First Christian church last evening to a full house. His talk was made especially interesting by his illustrations from maps and by the exhibition of three idols from that heathen land. Mrs. Mitchell's talk to ladies in the afternoon was well attended and highly spoken of.

Daily Guard, March 30.

CONVENTION CLOSED.—The closing session of the Lane county W. C. T. U. convention, was held last evening in the Baptist church. There was a large attendance to hear Mrs. A. R. Riggs and Miss Grace Trumbull and it was made a very interesting meeting.

The Portland Telegram says that George Belshaw of Eugene has sent in a quantity of wheat and other cereals similar to the kind he exhibited at the New Orleans Exposition, and which took the first prize there, for the Oregon display at the Chicago World's Fair.

The fellow who stole four feet out of the bottom of the county well, says the Fossil Journal, should be leniently dealt with. He displayed an ingenuity worthy of a better cause, and a merciful judge when pronouncing sentence will surely take into consideration the terrible risk of drowning the man took while making the steal. The prisoner is locked up in the jail at night and entombed in the well during the day.

A serious situation stares the people of Salem. The district can only contract an indebtedness of $100,000. The present indebtedness is $56,000. It will require $34,000 to run the schools. Two school houses have been voted to cost $30,000. Total, $120,000, which would be illegal. An election is being held today on voting bonds for the new school houses. The directors now call upon the taxpayers to vote down the bonds, unless they want the schools closed for sever years.

The secretary in charge says that Oregon's exhibit will be a marvellous one taking in view that no one was certain that a display would be made till after the middle of April.

O. E. Brady and Judge Davis, San Francisco capitalists, and successors of J. A. Music in the Los Angeles mine in Bohemia, are expected to arrive in Cottage Grove April 1st to make further developments and arrangements to put in a larger mill to begin operations on a larger and more practical scale this summer.

A much larger number of fruit trees are being set in Clackamas county this year than ever before. The Quaker association, of some 30 families, which purchased about 5000 acres of land at Scott's Mills last winter, is putting out 60,000 trees, mostly prunes, and about 20,000 young trees are being set by smaller holders in that section of the county. On Canby prairie a large number of new trees are being put in the ground.

Salem Independent: While in Portland last Monday Superintendent W. J. Culver procured a sample of the vitrified brick that is being used on Stark street, in that city, and also examined the method of laying the pavement. He says that the street is first cut down to the sub-grade and rolled heavily. Cement and crushed rock are then spread over it to the depth of six inches, and then covered with a cushion of two inches of sand. On this is laid the vitrified brick turned on edge. A coating of coal tar is then spread over the whole mass and allowed to harden and enough sand to cover the surface is then laid on.

Train Wreckers.

Friday morning about 12:10 at Rice Hill, five hard looking citizens pounced upon the track walker, knocking him senseless and stabbing him five times, leaving him for dead. They then proceeded to tear up the track for the purpose of wrecking the north bound overland train. The track walker revived enough to allow him to crawl to a position and flag the train. Conductor Wilson then took a light engine with a crew of men and proceeded in advance of the regular train, running at a slow rate of speed, which was derailed where the track was torn up. A terrible wreck was averted. The latest news is that the track walker will die from the wounds. The wreckers should be hung, if detected, without a trial.

CITIZENS' CONVENTIONS.

A Full Ticket Placed in Nomination.

Daily Guard, March 30.

Pursuant to call the citizens' conventions met last night. The ward meetings were held at the places advertised and large numbers of voters were in attendance at each. The following gentlemen were nominated by acclamation, for councilmen:

First ward—Geo. B. Dorris.
Second ward—Wm. Preston.
Third ward—J. L. Page.

Immediately after the ward meetings the voters repaired to the court house and it was completely filled by voters.

On motion Hon. Geo. B. Dorris was elected chairman, and made a short address which was enthusiastically received. W. C. Yoran was elected secretary. P. J. McPherson, L. N. Roney, F. B. Bellman and Dr. W. V. Henderson were appointed tellers.

J. D. Matlock and S. H. Friendly were placed in nomination for mayor. The vote stood: Friendly 98, Matlock 77, with six votes scattering, making a total vote cast of 181. Mr. Friendly, on motion, was declared the unanimous choice of the convention for mayor. The gentleman was called up and made a few appropriate remarks, thanking the convention for the honor conferred.

B. F. Dorris was renominated for recorder, as was B. D. Paine for treasurer, by acclamation. Each thanked the audience for the nomination.

On motion the convention ratified the ward nominations for councilmen.

H. W. Holden made a few remarks and the same were liberally applauded.

On motion the convention adjourned.

RESIGNED.—We regret to learn that President Johnson of the State University has tendered his resignation as president on account of ill health. He has been with the institution since its inception, and students particularly will be sorry to hear of his withdrawal from the school.

Pendleton E. O.: There is promise of a highly-colored sensation among the gossips of Pendleton. The cause of all this prospective excitement was a bow on the street, an interrogation, a tender missive containing warm expressions of love from a married man to a married woman, etc. The parties who are interested for the woman threaten to bring the matter into the courts and make the postage on the letter rather more expensive than Uncle Sam's charges. The letter was sent by the little son of the woman. The letter is still in existence.

The following applications for office were received at the United States treasury department Monday: Anthony Noltner, to be appraiser; A. H. Brown of Baker City, to be collector of internal revenue, and Emanuel Meyer of Portland to be collector of customs at Portland, and Frank G. Parker of Walla Walla to be collector at Port Townsend.
