Detroit Tribune: "And must you say farewell?" she implored. He gathered her to his bosom. "My darling," he answered, "surely you do not want me to be fined for taking liberties with my lines?" Meanwhile the orchestra played fitfully, in imitation of the sound of the fates, silently weaving the woof of destiny.

Here are a few lines which you may read twice without injurious effect:

The country's growin' brighter!
Sing, brethren, every day!
The heart is feelin' lighter—
More roses deck the way.
When all the bells are ringin'
An' stars above us shine,
An' heaven an' earth are singin',
Why shouldn't folks feel fine?

McMinnville Transcript: "We have evidence, produced during the past week, that the Salvation Army barracks is a den of iniquity, and not a fit place for any one to go—much less young girls and ladies. Some of our readers may think that the Transcript is following a line of persecution of the Salvation Army through mercenary notions; but not so. We have said that it is a place for creating hoodlums, and we are now more thoroughly convinced of that fact than ever. Parents, keep your children away from there—especially your girls."

A BETTER JOB.

Promoted From a $11-a-Week Job Driving a Laundry Wagon to a $5,000-a-Year Job in Congress.

Martin L Quinn, who is probably elected to congress from the second Oregon district, was formerly a fellow workman, at Portland, with Wm Mayer, manager of the Eugene ice and cold storage works. Last summer he was anxious to come to Eugene to drive the ice delivery wagon and made application for the job. Mr Mayer says he is very studious and well posted on the political issues of the day, and possesses considerable talent and natural ability. The Portland Telegram of June 3 has this:

"The beauties and the possibilities of American citizenship. From the laundry wagon to the halls of congress; and credit to the man that made the running.

"Martin Quinn, driver for a steam laundry of Portland, through a split in the republican party, which could not but mean defeat and ruin, leaps from the obscurity of a $11-a-week job, handling soiled linen, to the proud eminence of representing the state of Oregon at the capital of the nation, and be it known that Mr Quinn, despite his humble occupation, will in no way bring discredit upon the state, so far as intelligence and ability to express himself is concerned. In fact, his election may be almost attributed to the splendid showing made by him on the platform during the late campaign in the brilliancy of his speeches. Men who were not populists listened to his silvery oratory and in sheer sympathy for the man and his boundless ambition cast their votes for him. As a result the laundry wagon driver goes to congress in precedence of men learned and experienced in the needs of the nation. Truly it may be said that the knock of fortune at Martin Quinn's door was not unheeded. Providing, of course, that the claim of the Mitchell republicans is not substantiated that Ellis comes to Multnomah county with 800 majority, which will be sufficient to elect him. From what source the Mitchellites gather their information is not known, but to counteract it is the statement of the populists that instead of losing, their man, Quinn, will gain votes in the country."

POPULISTS STILL LEAD.

Vanderburg and Quinn Still Have Small Pluralities.

COMPLETE VOTE WILL DECIDE.

Special to the GUARD.

PORTLAND, June 5, 4 p. m.—Quinn and Vanderburg, populists, still maintain small pluralities for congressmen in the two districts. It will take the official vote to decide the matter.

No change in the legislature from yesterday.

[W S Vanderburg, congressman-elect from the first district, represented Coos county in the Oregon senate during the sessions of 1893 and 1895, having been elected as a populist. He was born in Iowa in 1848 and came to Oregon in 1864, settling latter in Coos county. For fifteen years he was engaged in the meat and grocery business in Marshfield. He was chairman of the committee on agriculture in the legislature of 1893. He was nominated in the district populist convention, held at Salem in March last, by Rev J S McCain, now a minister of Coos county and formerly of Eugene.

When the Swallows Homeward

Fly, people begin to ask themselves, "Where shall I spend the summer?" An ocean voyage, an inland jaunt, or a coastwise trip, which shall it be? In either case, one of the most useful traveling companions, one that never fails in an emergency to which it is adapted, is Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which remedies sea sickness, nausea, headache, biliousness and malarial complaints. Dyspepsia, rheumatism, nervousness and kidney trouble are also remedied by this great alterative and preventive. Tourists by sea and land, mariners, emigrants and western pioneers all testify to its defensive and remedial efficacy. Bodily and mental fatigue are counteracted by it, and it prevents maladies which would otherwise be brought on by exposure. No one should start on a summer outing without it. It is the most genial and reliable of summer tonics, and suits the most fastidious palate.

LOCATED.—DuBois & Son, who ran the Hoffmann House, in this city, for five years previous to the lease of the house to Mr Brown, have purchased the leading hotel in McMinnville and took charge the first of the week. Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.
