Local News.

Swindled by "Bunko" Sharps.

A young man, who lives near Cornelius, went to Portland the other day and was enticed into a saloon by a man named Angel, whom he knew previously in this county, and soon lost his watch and $60 in coin in as nice a little game as ever you did see. And now the Washington county young man will have to expend some more elbow grease at making cord-wood before he can have another such "nice" opportunity to spend his cash. A few days after this another citizen of this county who is counted pretty shrewd at cards got into a quiet little game at Sank Owen's at Portland, for the "drinks" with two pleasant gentlemen who were arrested at our county fair for youthful indiscretions, and known as McDonald and Fagin (probably a cousin of his namesake in Oliver Twist). But Mc. adroitly dealt our citizen a "hand" of three aces; he having at the same time dealt himself a a "flush," and "raked in" $125 from our Washington county friend.

Sidewalks.

On Monday evening at a meeting of the town council a petition was presented to the Board by W. D. Pittenger asking that all sidewalks ordered by the board shall be uniform—six feet wide, with two feet for curbing. At the same time R. Cave made a verbal petition that the majority of the holders of property abutting the street to be improved to decide what kind of sidewalk they shall build. It is the opinion of a majority of the council, we understand, that the sidewalks shall be uniform. But on unfrequented streets people may build such walks as they need, and they will not be liable to disturbance until better walks are demanded.

Mr. Simmons has laid a good piece of six foot a sidewalk on the street leading to the station near D. B. Gosney's place. Mr. Gosney contemplates building a sidewalk in front of his property.

Width of Sidewalks.

We understand that the City Fathers propose to make it a law that all side-walks in Hillsboro shall be uniformly six feet wide with two feet for curbing or eight feet wide. It is the opinion of many here that there ought to be two grades of side walk. On the principal thoroughfares where the crowds go it should be six feet with 2 feet curbing, but on the streets where but few travel, the walks should be made four feet wide without curbing. Then in ten years when the four foot side-walks shall have rotted and worn out a wider walk could be made to accomodate the increased population. In the Grove most of the walks are but four feet and serve as good a purpose as eight foot walks.

Burglars About.

We are informed that within a few weeks several houses at the Grove have been entered by burglars, but so far no money or valuables have been missed. They entered the house of Messrs. Stoughton, Lee, and Powers and Mrs. Robert's dwelling. At Mr. Power's they were discovered after their entrance and beat a hasty retreat. At Mrs. Robert's dwelling and Mr Lee's place they were frightened away before they made an entrance. At Mr. Stoughton's place they hunted around awhile and not finding any thing, left. At the time there was about $200 in Mr. S's breeches pocket on a chair.

Cruel To 'Em.

We overheard a man from Nebraska the other day, talking about the festive but greedy grasshopper. He said they came in there last year in swarms and lit down upon an onion patch of his and "were on them red hot," and in half an hour his onion patch was a thing of the past and the "dog-goned hoppers" were shedding tears and prospecting his wood pile for more. He said that, he had heard "terbacker" spit was sure death to the "varmints" and so he deluged some of them with the saliva, which made them [illegible] in a short time, but the rest [illegible] ones up. He is satisfied with Oregon.

A Child Badly Scalded.

A little girl of D. O. Quick in this county tipped her chair over while sitting at the table one day last week and caught a teapot full of boiling and turned the contents upon herself, so burning her from her cheek to the knee. Drs. Bowlby and Kirkwood both were called. The little sufferer is lying in a critical condition.

Town Council.

The Board of Trustees have passed an ordinance regulating the fees of the Marshal, the Recorder and the city attorney, and an ordinance prohibiting fast driving or riding through the streets; violent or disorderly conduct; resistance to officers; and the throwing of broken glass or any kind of metal into the street.

A DARING ROBBERY.

A Glencoe Citizen Found With $5 In His Pocket! of Which He Was Robbed Villainously, Riotously, Feloniously, and with Malice Aforethought.

GLENCOE, Jan. 5, 1877.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:

The usual quiet of our little town was thrown into a perfect spasm of excitement and indignation yesterday on receiving the startling intelligence that a daring robbery had been committed right at our doors. W. R. Parker, a man noted for his habits of industry and sobriety, our own blacksmith, who has pounded out his coin by hard licks on the anvil, was the innocent victim of this foul conspiracy, diabolical outrage and dastardly robbery, and it is a crime that he should be robbed of his heard-earned money and no effort made by our county authorities to bring the rumptuous rapscallions to condign punishment. In honor to Glencoe and her historic fame for peacefulness, temperance—all the virtues— they should be hanged. Mr. Parker was called to Hillsboro on legal business and was returning home at a late hour, and when between Mr. Corey's, and Elliott's bridge, two powerful ruffians seized him and without a word pulled him from his horse and went through his pockets abstracting $5 and beat him because he had no more. It is generally understood that "Bill" has his pockets pretty well lined with the filthy lucre, hence the miscreants waylaid him.

The above are the facts in the case as I heard them. And now Mr. Editor, let me, through your columns, call upon the authorities of Hillsboro and Glencoe to order and direct that a strict search be made by our ablest detectives, and that an embargo be laid on the shipping in both ports until these villainous villains shall be brought to justice.

Beaverton.

Jan. 8th, 1877.

There was a grand old New Year's party at John Sweek's near Bridgeport, on Monday last.

The Jacob's mill on the banks of the Tualatin has again commenced active operations.

William Tucker mutilated his left hand horribly last week with a "tarnal" hand saw.

Our affable friend Tiberius Humphrey, begins to day to [illegible] the young idea to shoot" at the Beaverton school house. Success to you my [illegible].

The following were duly elected as officers of the Beaverton grange for the ensuing year, last Saturday: M. L. Nicholas, Master; R. F. Wilmot, O; Geo. Hornbuckel, L; S. Brightman, S; Samuel Tucker, A. S; C. Hornbuckel, C; J. B. Eliot, L; J. D. Wilmot, Secy; W. O. Tucker, G. K; Mary A Tucker, Ceres; Mary J. Tucker, F; Maggie Mckay, P; Mary Elliot, L. A. S.

The Beaverton onion dryer has just about finished the "in.era" crop and now the proprietors propose trying some potatoes as an experiment.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:

The roads are very muddy.

There is considerable sickness in this neighborhood. Mr. Jacob Hoover is just recovering from a severe spell of illness.

On New Year's night Mr. Thos. Otchins gave a ball. A goodly number was in attendance, good music was furnished and a splendid supper. Mr. Otchins and his lady know well how to conduct social parties and on this occasion pleased every one.

Mr. A. B. Stewart who lived here formerly has lately returned from down the Columbia river and proposes to put up a blacksmith shop in Glencoe and will make it hot for iron and his competitor. Mr. Stewart started our little town and has helped make it what it is and we hope that he will stay with us.

OBSERVER.

Smallpox.

Several cases of smallpox are reported in Tualatin precinct and one death—probably untrue

CHRONICLES.

Chapter II.

1. And it came to pass on the 5th day of the week, in the month of December, in the year Eighteeen hundred and Seventy-six, A. D., in the seventh year of the reign of Ulysses Simpson the 1st, that a youth dwelling in the Gentile valley of Tualatin goeth unto a certain Jewish city in the valley of the Willamette, which is named Portland, and walketh upon the walls of the city and hummeth unto himself a psalm, and jingleth three pieces of gold in a bag at his girdle, and feeleth happy.

2. And it came to pass that while Felix, which was the name of the youth, lingereth and gawketh at the sights therein, an Angel appeareth in the flesh and spake unto him, saying:

3. "Pilgrim, come thou with me, and I will shew unto thee many strange sights!" And Felix followeth him until they meeteth some Philistines, wicked in morals and practice.

4. And when they were met, the Angel deceiveth Felix and leadeth him astray, and betrayeth him into the hands of the Philistines for a piece of silver.

5. And the Philistines bamboozleth Felix with a wicked game called "bunko," and taketh his gold thereby and mocketh him with sneers, saying, "give unto us thy sun-dial, and we will restore to thee thy money!"

6. And Felix weepeth and giveth his sun-dial also. And Felix was not felix. Then again they jeereth and mocketh him, saying, "wherefore comest thou? From the land of the Hoosier, or the kingdom of "Pukes?"

7. And Felix pulleth his hair and howleth like unto a Dervish, saying, "give unto me a tithe at least, of that which ye have taken from me, that I may journey to the land of my people!"

8. And the Philistines relenteth, and giveth Felix a piece and a half of silver, and he departeth, a sadder but a wiser man. And when he was without the walls of the city, he reproacheth himself saying, "Experience teacheth a dear school, but fools learneth in no other!"

GIDEON.

Beaverton:

January, 2, 1877.

The Christmas tree at Beaverton is a tree that never happened. We took ours, in whirling away the time in tripping of the "light fantastic" at Wm. Tucker's. There was also a party at the Butte Grange Hall. On Friday quite a number of the gay and festive, gave Jas. McKay a genuine surprise and he acknowleged it handsomely.

Saturday night the I. O. G. T., had a tip-top time, an oyster supper and initiated three candidates.

The church going people of McMinnville are making preparations to sit down. A car load of lumber was shipped from the McKay mill, last week to seat the church at that place. In sawing an oak log at the above named mill, on Saturday afternoon, a saw tooth broke and stuck in the log. Other teeth coming in contact with it made the fire fly and things clatter generally. And it somehow came to pass at that particular moment the hands had urgent business just outside the mill. Nor was there any discussion about the order of going. "Distance seemed to "lend enchantment to the view."

A New-year's party at Mrs. Kennedy's last night.

1877! And Leap-year is out and done, and yet there are any number of old "baches" not disposed of. Think of that girls and sigh! Come, let us all weep some.

Correction.

EDITOR INDEPENDENT:

I beg leave to correct an account of Christmas festivities, at Columbia Academy, which appeared in last week,s INDEPENDENT, in which it was stated, that the excellent music of that occasion was conducted by the pupils of the Academy. They were conducted entirely by Messrs. Wethered and Allen, Mrs. Wethered, Misses Allen, Wethered and Hoover.

Officers Installed.

The following Officers were installed at the last meeting of Montezuma Lodge No. 50, I. O. O. F: N. G, C. F. Tozier; V. G, A. W. Luelling; R. S, J. H. Sewell; P. S, T. B. Handley; T, Alfred Luelling; W, A. T. Crocker; C, W. D. Pittenger; I. G, Geo. S. Campbell; O. G, R. K. Eunis; R. S. N. G, T. H. Tongue; S. S. N. G, J. D. Rowell; R. S. V. G, Charles Laughlin; S. S. V. G, S. D. Powell; R. S. S, F. M. Powers; L. S. S, P. Ingram; P. G, G. N. Hale.

A Butter Thief.

Mrs. T. H. Tongue, of this place, went to her butter can this week to get some butter and discovered that about 50 pounds which she had made, and stored therein, had disappeared. Taken in connection with the fact that butter is scarce in town now the person who stole that butter and left some 20 pounds in the can for the owners, is no hog.

The Grove:

January 6, 1877.

Mr. Chester Sloan's father, who lived in New York, and who visited the Grove about 18 months ago died recently, leaving an estate of $5,000 for Mr. Sloan and $1,500 for Mrs. Sloan. Mr. Sloan will probably invest the money in real estate.

Mr. Smith of Dilley, attempted to organize a dancing school at this place, and failed to get a class. He fetched over quite an array of musical talent, but sweet music and the light fantastic have but little charm for the students. Their duties at school, together with their literary society, debates and lectures, take up all their time.

The Grove wore a pretty lively appearance Saturday, Frank Henderson's auction sale beginning on that day. There have been about a dozen of these sales in the last two years. The small groceries do not seem to be able to stand the competition of Messrs. Hinman and Hoxter.

Ben Cornelius with a company of boys and men from this place and vicinity went out the other day on a wolf hunt, but captured none of the "varmints."

O. B. Johnson is preserving a collection of birds for Mr. A. Tyler. He has received an order from the East for a pair of California quails, at $10 for the pair.

The Catholic community on Black's farm have got another priest, a Mr. Herman. He says that he could bring out a large addition to the colony if he could buy good prairie land at $30 per acre, $40 he thinks is too much.

Henry Buxton sold 40 acres of land the other day to a Hollander of the Black's farm colony for $25 per acre. Mr. B paid $12 for the same land less than a year ago.

Ben Cornelins bought 80 acres of land, originally a part of the Emrick donation, for $25 per acre.

Mr. A. Hinman has just received a Hall's burglar proof safe. It weighs 3,000 pounds and costs $665. The Company took Mr. H.'s old safe in exchange at $200.

Jan. 8, '77.

The City election occured to-day with the following result: Trustees, A. Lee, J. W. Marsh, H. Buxton Wm. Kane; Marshal, F. Hubbard; Recorder, L. C. Walker. Owing to the intimidation the vote was light. A man with a strawberry nose and said to have $5000 of the Oregon corruption fund to buy up votes for Tilden was present. A small riot occured on Cypress Street and over 100 fine cypress trees were destroyed by pistol shots and Radical bayonets.

O when will this cruel war be over?

College Notes:

School has again resumed, all the students have returned with few exceptions, which is more than made up by new students. Mr. Robert Putnam of Amity, Mr. Davis of Vancouver, Leabo, Shipley and others head the list. Students have resumed their studies with renewed energy. The Senior class will hold forth next Monday night in the Congregationalist church, exercises consisting of orations, essays, etc, interspersed with music.

Mr. Carter formerly of your town has been visiting friends at the Grove.

The Cong. ch., choir has been reorganized, and under the excellent supervision of Mrs. Dr. Marsh, with the addition of Prof. Robb, Miss Mack, Miss Jennie Waggoner and others of the best voices in the Grove, insures good music for the coming year. Miss Ella Scott presides as organist.

Miss Sadie Bowlby has charge of the choir in the M. E. church which is also composed of some of the best singers and furnishes excellent music.

The party given last Tuesday eve by Misses Mary and Ida Hinman was a genuine success, as many students can testify.

The Gamma Sigma society at their last meeting discussed the question, "Resolved, that Gov. Grover in his action toward Dr. Watts was unconstitutional and truly despicable." Young America waxed warm and the question was hotly contested, Messrs. Stott, McCoy, Goodell and Harrison handled the subject with political skill that would have done credit to the honorable Governor himself. Professor Lamson (visiting) gave a sound exposition of the law on the subject. Decided in the negative. Prof. Hayes has a large class in penmanship. He teaches all styles, including ornamental, and is undoubtedly the best penman that has ever taught in the Grove.

The diptheria still continues. Mrs. Roberts buried her third and last child to-day. Miss Sallie Teal a student of Portland is confined to her room with the same disease.

"Sinbad"

"Sinbad the Sailor" lectured on whales and whale fishing at the Court House on Monday evening. He said that a whale is not a fish but an animal, from which we infer that a fish is not an animal! He said that the throat of a whale is small and that the story about the whale swallowing Jonah is a humbug. But the American cyclopedia says that the sperm whale has a throat large enough to swallow a man. Sinbad is a bad sinner. He is a pleasing talker and tells many things that are interesting.

Sound and True.

We are glad to see that good old family newspaper, the NEW YORK OBSERVER, out boldly in opposition to what it calls the "Two Great Foes" of the country—Infidelity and Romanism. It strikes some heavy blows at these enemies, and tells some honest facts that should be widely known. Every lover of his country that would be posted should read it. A good family newspaper is the cheapest luxury that can be enjoyed, and we can heartily recommend the NEW YORK OBSERVER as such a paper. $3,15 a year post-paid. S. I. To the Officers and Members of Cornelius Lodge No. 40, I. O. O. F.

Dec. 30th, 1876.

Your Special Committe appointed to draft, Resolutions Expressive of the sense of this Lodge, upon the death of Brother Thomas Francis, would respectfully beg leave to submit the following:

WHEREAS, our dearly beloved brother, Thomas Francis, has ceased labor amongst us, and in answer to the gavel of time has severed the links that bound him so closely to the hearts of his brethern: and

WHEREAS, through the mercies of providence, brother Francis has been the first, summoned from that faithful band of true brotherhood from Washington county, to that mysterious realm from whose bourne no traveler returns; therefore be it

Resolved, that in the untimely summons which deprives us of the society of our brother, we recognize the wisdom of providence, the uncertainty of life, and certainty of death. For having fulfilled his mission amongst us, he has taken his departure to enter into higher labors in the Grand Lodge above.

Resolved, that in the death of brother Francis, this Lodge has lost a true and faithful member; the Order a sterling advocate of its principles; the brethren a social and genial companion; the society and advocate of right and justice, and the poor—a sympathizing, benevolent and honest friend.

Resolved, that in memory of the deceased our Insignia, Lodge Room, emblems, and the deceased brother's seat in the Lodge be draped in mourning for 30 days:

Resolved, that the brethern of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for 30 days:

Resolved, that in view of the fact, that our deceased brother, was of foreign birth, and had no blood relatives on this continent, to aid or attend him. That this Lodge tender a vote of thanks to those friends and neighbors of the deceased. To the Patrons of Husbandry, to brother Phillips for furnishing to him a last comfortable home and to all of those kind people who aided us in watching and relieving the suffering of our deceased brother:

Resolved, that this Lodge tender a vote of thanks, to the members of Our Sister Lodges, for their aid and presence at the funeral and grave.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread on the record books of the Lodge and that these resolutions be printed in the county paper and copies of the same forwarded to the relatives of the deceased in England, to the Patrons of Husbandry and to our sistor lodges.

Respectfully Submitted.

Committee { John Nestor, Wm. E. Smith, J. DeLetts }

The melted iron was thrown around him in a perfect shower, and he was burned dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me, by him, about eight weeks after the accident:

NEW YORK, April 7, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder. I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal. I tried Holloway's Ointment and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true and any body can see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 21 Avenue.

J. HARDY, 119, Goerch Street.

Extracts from Various Letters.

"I had no appetite; Holloway's Pills gave me a hearty one."

"Your Pills are marvelous."

"I send for another box, and keep them in the house."

Dr. Holloway has cured my headache that was chronic."

"I gave one of your Pills to my babe for cholera morbus. The dear little thing got well in a day."

"My nausea of a morning is now cured."

"Your box of Holloway's Ointment cured me of noises in the head. I rubbed some of your Ointment on behind the ears, and the noise has left."

"Send me two boxes, I want one for a poor family."

"I enclose a dollar, your price is 25 cents but the medicine to me is worth a dollar."

"Send me five bottles of your pills."

"Let me have three boxes of your Pills by return mail. for Chills and Fever."

I have over 200 such testimonials as these, but want of space compels me to conclude.

FOR CUTANEOUS DISORDERS.

And all eruptions of the skin, this ointment is most invaluable. It does not heal externally alone, but penetrates with the most searching effects to the very root of the evil.

Holloway's Pills

Invariably cure the following diseases:

Disorders of the Kidneys.

In all diseases affecting these organs, whether they secrete too much or too little water; or whether they be afflicted with stone or gravel, or with aches and pains settled in the loins over the regions of the kidneys, these Pills should be taken according to the printed directions and the Ointment should be well rubbed into the small of the back at bed time. This treatment will give almost immediate relief when all other means have failed.

For Stomachs Out of Order.

No medicine will so effectually improve the tone of the stomach as these Pills; they remove all acidity occasioned either by intemperance or improper diet. They reach the liver and reduce it to a healthy action; they are wonderfully efficacious in cases of spasm—in fact they never fail in curing all disorders of the stomach and liver.

Holloway's Pills are the best remedies known in the world for the following diseases:
