GENERAL NOTES AND NEWS.

A vote for Tilden and Hendricks is a vote for the people.

Heavy rains have seriously damaged crops in Goose Lake Valley.

Terrible floods are reported from Forest county, Pennsylvania, in which many lives were lost.

Several of the convicted members of the Chicago whisky ring have been released upon payment of fines.

Tenbroeck ran three miles in 5:26½ at Louisville, Ky., on Sept. 23d, beating Norfolk's time by a second and a quarter.

If Sitting Bull could be found, perhaps, Sheridan could make a contract with him to take charge of the Louisiana elections.

In St. Albans, Vt., where Wheeler made his bloody-shirt speech, the Radical vote fell off from 991 to 747, while the Democratic vote increased from 253 to 487.

Hayes seems to have absolutely disappeared from the contest—if, indeed, he was ever in it. Zachariah should tie a string to Hayes or he'll get lost. —Boston Post.

Sheriff Connor on the 13th ult., returned the execution in the Tweed $6,000,000 judgment wholly unsatisfied, he being unable to find any property on which to make levy.

Gov. Whiteaker and Hon. J. K. Weatherford are conceded to be two of the most efficient and popular presiding officers that ever wielded the gavel in an Oregon Legislature.

The Chinese residents of Winnemucca had a grand jolification over the news from Maine. They fear that a Democratic victory will stop Mongolian immigration to this country.

Bull Eagle and his followers refuse to give up their arms. Four hundred Brules have left Fort Sully for the hostile camp. Sitting Bull is but fifty miles away and threatens the fort.

The New York Herald is rapidly coming to the conclusion that the Republican Governor, Chamberlain, and his crowd are more to blame for the Hamburg riot than anybody else.

Alex. Campbell, who has taken his departure for California, has resigned the position of Great Prophet of the Great Council of the I. O. R. M. for the State of Oregon, and Mr. Stearns, of Baker City, is his successor.

General Franz Sigel has declared for Tilden and the gallant German soldiers who followed him in the late war have girded on their armor and taken up the refrain of the old war song, "We goes to fight mit Sigel!"

Hell Gate, New York, was blown up at 3 P. M. on Sept. 24th. The shock was a slight tremor in New York, with a rumbling sound and the upheaval of two columns of water and considerable rock. Everything was successful.

Seven hundred negroes took possession of all the seats pending a political debate at Hernando, Miss., and when asked to give up half, some resisted, ending in a row in which two white men and one negro were killed.

It is supposed that one of the first reforms that Mr. Hayes will demand, if elected to the Presidency, will be the abolition of the uncomfortable system which requires tax returns to be verified by oath.—Chicago Times, (Ind.)

Mr. Wheeler didn't shoulder a musket and fight while the war was going on, but eleven years after the war is over he rises up in Vermont and insists the South shall be subdued. Mr. Wheeler is altogether too brilliant, even to become Vice-President.

Spotted Tail made a long speech before the peace council at the agency on Sept. 22d, upbraiding Gen. Sherman and others with breaking their promises. The treaty was signed by all the chiefs. The Indians want the military agent removed and Mr. Howard reinstated.

The Coos Bay News says: The wire and other material for the construction of the telegraph line between this place and Roseburg arrived on the steamer Empire. The work, we understand, is begun already, and it is expected the line will be in running order in six weeks. One of the first dispatches we expect to receive will be that of the election of Tilden and Hendricks.

Nast, the artist prostitute, has brought out a cartoon in Harpers Weekly, which represents a group of school childen, negroes, whites, and Chinese barring out Tilden, who is elegantly characterized as the wolf at the door, the enemy of the common schools, etc. This reminds us of a squib which is too good to be lost: "That whenever a Republican thief is dug out of his hole, he immediately springs to his feet and yells, "Our common schools are in danger."

THE GOVERNOR'S MESSAGE.

We regret that want of space will not allow us to lay before our readers the Governor's biennial message, which was delivered to the two Houses on the 12th inst. It is an able document and reviews our State affairs in a masterly manner. The following is a synopsis of it:

Lock Bonds have been reduced $40,000. The Soldier's Relief Bonds, due in 1880, have been paid excepting $886. The Governor calls special attention of the Legislature to the fact that the appropriations should not be in excess of the income of the State; that State indebtedness should not be permitted to exceed the amount of $50,000, limited by the Constitution. These suggestions we think are wise ones, and should be heeded by our law makers, for a State, free from liabilities, will soon be on the road to greater prosperity. It is recommended that the State tax be reduced to four mills for current revenue; that one-half mill be collected to pay off the Soldiers' Bounty and Relief Bonds, and for the payment of the warrants outstanding two years ago. By this method the State government can be carried on, and in a short time the debts of the State will be paid. The State for years has not been running behind in her current expenses, but the erection of the public buildings, without an additional tax, has been the chief cause of outstanding warrants, the warrants drawn for the erection of the State Capitol and Penitentiary being more than the present State indebtedness, thus showing that the current expenses of the State are less than the revenue, the excess of which has gone to liquidate warrants on these public building funds. The Governor recommends economy in every branch of the State government; that the Penitentiary appropriation be cut down to $40,000 for two years; the Agricultural College to $5,000, or one-half of what it was two years ago. Also reduction of expenses in conveying the Insane to the Asylum, convicts to the Penitentiary, and in arresting fugitives from justice, etc. The public lands have been nearly all approved to the State, except the swamp lands, which are in course of segregation; that the affairs of the Penitentiary are in a good condition, the discipline excellent, while for healthfulness it cannot be surpassed. The Insane Asylum has been conducted in its usual good and humane manner. The contractor, Dr. J. C. Hawthorne, has done everything in his power to make pleasant and agreeable this unfortunate class of our people. Our common schools are in excellent condition, the fund reaching $225,481.82, besides the distribution of $68,405.75, as interest during the last two years toward the support of free schools. The State University fund since the last Legislature has increased $17,111.83, making the whole fund at present $75,492.20. That the Agricultural College fund will soon reach $40,000. Amendments to the constitution are recommended, giving power to the executive to veto any obnoxious part of a general appropriation bill without impairing the whole bill; also allowing new enterprises to be exempted from taxation for a period of years, so as to encourage capital to flow into the State. He also favors an amendment changing our State election to the first Tuesday next following the first Monday in November. All of these amendments we think are wisely suggested, and we hope they will be heeded.

GOV. HAYES' father's name was O'Toole, and he christened his son Michael. But one day when Michael was quite a small boy, he had rolled up his pantaloons and was going to wade over from his father's house to Mount Ararat. Just then the ark came along and father Noah asked the boy if he wouldn't like to ride over with him. "No," said Mikey, "I'd ruther ford." "Ruther ford, hey?" said Noah in a pleasant way that was natural to the old man. And so Mr. O'Toole called his boy Rutherford Hay. How it got to be Hayes or how the B. got in we don't know, or we should have no objection to telling.

A FRENCH physician makes the remarkable statement that one-half at least of the so-called drowned persons are buried alive, and that they may be brought to life by proper treatment after having been "several hours under water." His remedy is to get out the water, pour in and inject alcoholic stimulants, and use a whip energetically, or hot irons in bad cases. The statement has been partially confirmed by the resuscitation of a man after he had been under water in one of the Seine baths for more than twenty minutes.

MR. COD married Miss Fish in a Connecticut town, the other day. The affair passed off swimmingly, and terminated in a Cod-Fish ball.

HAYES AS A KNOW-NOTHING.

THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR THE PRESIDENCY WANTS TO LIMIT SUFFRAGE TO AMERICAN BORN CITIZENS.

We have received the following letter from Mr. Charles Gardner, of Cincinnati, dated September 3d:

"In your issue of yesterday you say: "Mr. Hayes assures us over his own signature that he 'deeply sympathizes' with a movement for 'an amendment limiting suffrage to persons born in this country of American parents,' and the choice of 'American-born citizens only to official positions.' Mr. Schurz had better announce this to his German brethren and prevent them from being caught with chaff as he has been.

"I don't believe Mr. Hayes over his own signature, or in any other way, ever said any such thing. If you can prove it, do so and make one vote, for, though a Republican, I shall vote for Mr. Tilden if what you say of Mr. Hayes is true."

We think that Mr. Garnder will vote for Tilden. And this is why:

The "American Alliance" adopted a series of resolutions which said of the nominations of Messrs. Hayes and Wheeler that they were "hereby indorsed by the American Alliance Conference," and that the Alliance earnestly "advised all who are in favor of American principles, as advocated and set forth in these resolutions, to give these nominations an active and determined support."

"These resolutions" were sent to Mr. Hayes, who returned the following reply, dated July 6, 1876, addressed to "Samuel J. Tyler, Secretary of the American Alliance:"

"I have just received your letter informing me of my election as a member of your admirable Alliance. Return my thanks to the Alliance, as I deeply sympathize with its principles. I remain your fellow-citizen,
"R. B. HAYES."

Now here is one expression of the "principles" of the Alliance of which Mr. Hayes is proud to be a member and with which he "deeply sympathizes."

"An amendment to the naturalization laws limiting suffrage to persons born in this country or of American parents; the election of American-born citizens only to official positions in this country; opposition to the interference of the Roman Catholic organizations in the political affairs of this nation, and opposition to the formation of political organizations composed exclusively of foreign-born citizens."

We may add to this that ten days ago a foreign-born citizen of Brooklyn wrote to Mr. Hayes asking him if it was true that he held to such Know-nothing views, and that Mr. Hayes has not thus far deigned to reply—or to return the stamps inclosed for an answer.

And now will not Mr. Charles Gardner give us that vote for Tilden?—N. Y. World.

THE GREAT FOUR MILE RACE VS. TIME.—A dispatch dated Louisville, Sept. 27th, says a crowd of people witnessed the run of Ten Broeck to-day against the famous time made by Fellowcraft in the four-mile race at Saratoga in 1874, namely, 7:19½, which has been the best on record. The track was in good condition. Ada and Ten Broeck started together, but after a little the latter horse took the lead and steadily gained, making the first mile in the slow time of 1:52¾. The owner motioned the jockey to go on, and in compliance the second mile was made in 1:45½, and third in 1:46¼. At beginning of the 4th mile a new horse joined in the race, but was left behind, and as Ten Broeck galloped down the homestretch the enthusiasm was immense. The last mile was made in 1:51¾, and the entire distance in 7:15¾, or 3½ seconds quicker than Fellowcraft's time, and 4 seconds faster than Lexington's time. Miles Walker rode the victor, who is the property of Frank Harper. Mr. Harper has refused $120,000 for Ten Broeck.

THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY TO SUCCEED.—We shall succeed. Ohio and Indiana, hitherto repeatedly lost on false issues, will probably both be carried in October by the Democracy. Ohio will certainly be lost to the Republicans, though it is the home State of their candidate. The Democrats cannot but be victorious upon the sound issues of the St. Louis platform and Gov. Tilden's letter of acceptance. I venture the prediction.

After victory will come the harvesting of its fruits, will come the construction of a new and public policy. This will be a work as far-reaching as that of Jefferson at the dawn of the century, but more difficult and affecting ten times as many humans beings for weal or woe.

MANTON MARBLE.
