The Democratic Times.

FRIDAY, MAY 8, 1885.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The TIMES has a circulation of 1,900, the largest enjoyed by any newspaper published between Portland and Red Bluff, Cal., a distance of 600 miles. It therefore offers the best inducements to advertisers. Our list is principally confined to Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties. Business men should take note of this.

MAYTIME IN MIDWINTER.

The world, what is it to you, dear.
And me, if its face be gray,
And the new-born year be a shrewd year,
For the flowers that the fierce winds fray?
Yet smile, and the sky seems blue, dear,
You laugh, and the month turns May.

Your hands through the bookshelves flutter;
Scott, Shakespeare, Dickens are caught;
Blake's visions, that lighten and mutter;
Moliere—and his smile has naught
Left on it of sorrow, so filter
The secret things of his thought.

No grim thing written or graven,
But grows, if you gaze on it, bright;
A lark's note rings from a raven,
And tragedy's robe turns white;
And shipwrecks drift into haven;
And darkness laughs, and is light.

Grief seems but a vision of madness;
Life's keynote peals from above
With naught in it more of sadness
Than breeds on the heart of a dove;
At sight of you thought grows gladness,
And life, through love of you, love.

ALL SORTS.

The Lord Mayor of London died on the 11th ult.

The firemen's entertainment at Salem recently netted the boys $125.

The average charge for the passage of a ship through the Suez canal is $6,000.

The sickness of great men appears to be advertising schemes for the doctors.

It is rather a singular fact that another of the world's great generals, Napoleon I, died of cancer.

Blind Tom, the famous pianist, has been declared idiotic and had a guardian appointed. He is now living in Georgia.

The State Treasurer of Massachusetts has borrowed $800,000 for seven months at 2¼ per cent., the lowest interest a State ever paid.

According to the will of a New Hampshire man his "dear wife" is to receive $10,000 in case she remains single eight weeks after his death.

George H. Durham has been appointed by Judge Deady, Judge Sawyer concurring, as master and examiner in chancery of the U. S. circuit court.

We will milk the cow, while England holds her by the horns and the Russians by the tail. It's an ill zephyr that bears on its bosom no fragrance for any nose.

General Komaroff is a quiet, dark-haired little man, wearing spectacles. His name—Komaroff—means "the son of a mosquito," and he is after the blood of an Afghan.

The gold belt along Burnt river, Baker county, is attracting renewed interest. Railroad men and Eastern capitalists are in the country prospecting. Some ore taken out averages $80 to the ton.

W. B. King pleads guilty of the crime of murder, committed some months ago in Modoc county, and court heard testimony at trial last week in Alturas, Cal., in order to determine the degree for conviction.

There is talk of consolidating the Post-Republican and Critic, all Washington newspapers, into one great, booming Democratic daily. There is no longer a necessity for a Republican paper in Washington.

The ruling passion is strong in death. The last words of Dan. Mace, the horse driver, were: "I have turned into the home-stretch of the last heat of my last race, and I am close to the wire." A few moments later he expired.

Miss Cleveland sets at rest the report that she is a Republican by asserting that she approves her brother's principles, and quite superfluously adding: "He has very strong principles," as several people have discovered.

Col. James M. Morgan, newly appointed consul general at Melbourne, is a native of Louisiana, and after the late civil war was a planter in South Carolina. He also served at one time on the staff of the khedive of Egypt with Stone, Loring and Long.

The Helena (M. T.) board of stock commissioners have memorialized the governor of that territory on the danger of an invasion by British Indians and half-breeds, on the account of Manitoba troubles, and the governor has referred the matter to Washington.

The alkali plains in the northwest territory where General Middleton is following up Riel, the rebel, are worse than the Soudan and Afghan deserts. The English apparently can be singularly unfortunate in getting into desert countries to do their fighting this year.

Not a soldier of the Prussian army has died of small-pox since 1875, and the medical authorities assert that if they could have vaccination as strictly carried out with the other European population as in the Prussian army small-pox itself would disappear in five years.

Engineering skill has achieved in China a notable triumph in the bridge at Lagang, over an arm of the China sea. The structure is five miles long, built entirely of stone, has 300 arches seventy feet high, the roadway is seventy feet wide, and the pillars are seventy-five feet apart.

Five per cent. of all cancers, says a medical journal, are situated upon the tongue. The average duration of life in cancer of the tongue is, without operation, 10½ months; with operation, 16 months. In some cases, after operation, the patients have lived for from two to five years, or even ten years.

During the Spanish invasion of Holland over two centuries ago several victories were won by the native soldiers who, on skates, suddenly moved on the forces of Alva, and as quietly retired to their own camp. For a period of more than 400 years the soldiers have been trained to perform evolutions on skates.

Powers, who was recently appointed to fill a vacancy on the supreme bench of Utah, is a resident of Kalamazoo, Mich., where he has the reputation of being a good lawyer and staunch Democrat. He is the author of a text book on "chancery practice in the State of Michigan," and of "Powers' supreme court practice."

A curious discovery was made recently when a lightning rod which had been in place fifteen years embedded in soft clay was removed, says the Philadelphia Call. There was found attached to it a solid lump of iron ore weighing ninety-six pounds, supposed to have been produced by the conversion of the clay by the action of electricity.

Recently L. J. Gilliland surrendered himself to the sheriff of Merced county, Cal., as an escape from the Texas penitentiary seven years ago. The sheriff notified Governor Ireland of Texas, who replied that the State only offered a reward of $30 for the return of escaped convicts; and that if Gilliland wanted to get back in the penitentiary he must go to it.

Washington, April 30.—The findings and sentence of the court-martial in the case of First Lieutenant James S. Jouett, Tenth cavalry, who was charged with irregularities in the accounts of the post at San Antonio, of which he was in command, have been approved by the president. The charge was sustained, and the court recommended dismissal. Lieut. Jouett is a son of Rear Admiral Jouett, who commands the north Atlantic station.

A new grange, Patrons of Husbandry, has been organized at Willamina, Yamhill county.

A movement is on foot to make Allen G. Thurman the Democratic candidate for Governor of Ohio.

The publication of the revised edition of the Old Testament has been postponed until the 19th of May.

The session laws of 1885 are now in the hands of the State printer and will be rushed forward to publication.

Improvements to the value of $125,000 are expected to be completed in Island city, Union county, this season.

At the last cleaning up on Dream gulch, Coeur d'Alene district, thirty-seven pounds of pure dust was the result.

The Iowa State Press Association will leave Council Bluffs on June 9th, on a visit to Oregon and Washington territory.

General Sheridan expects to leave Washington in a few days on an inspection tour of the military posts of the west.

By an Eastern paper we learn that the office of postal inspector held by Ben Simpson in Georgia has been discontinued.

The body of C. C. H. Smith, who perished with cold on Agency Plains, Crook county, last December, was found a few days ago.

One town in eastern Oregon, Alkali, shipped 3,000,000 pounds of wool last year, and will add another million pounds this.

At Oakland park (Cal.) recently C. F. Gibson won a 100-yard foot race for $500 against J. C. Ryan, by two yards, time 10¾ seconds.

The mines of Virginia city Nevada, paid $100,000 in wages during the month of March. The bonanza mines are evidently not worked out yet.

The state teachers' institute will convene at Astoria on July 6, 7, 8 and 9, and arrangements are being made for a feast of reason and flow of soul.

Some of the eastern Oregon papers are discussing the advisability of dividing the State with the Cascade mountains. This will no doubt be done sometime.

Russia has purchased five steamers in the United States, for cruisers in the Russian service. The pay of Russian sailor has been increased to war rates.

Reports from all parts of Oregon show crops to be in good condition. Late sown grain needs more rain, but fall wheat will make a good showing without.

A letter received from Anaconda, Montana, states that Bridget Gallagher, formerly of Portland, is insane beyond recovery, and her death is looked for soon.

Last week the residence of Wm. Gird, who lives below Monroe, Benton county, was burned and totally destroyed. But little of the contents of the house were saved.

During the month of April Postmaster General Vilas appointed 600 postmasters of fourth-class offices. A majority of the appointments were made to fill vacancies.

The new crop of wool is beginning to arrive in Portland. The News says the clip of the State this year is of good quality and will amount to about 11,000,000 pounds.

Lou Perkins, daughter of a farmer tenant of E. J. Baldwin, has instituted a breach of promise suit of $500,000 against Baldwin. She claims to have his promise in writing.

Russian vessels have been putting into New York harbor for safety, and we suppose a number will seek San Francisco. Russian cruisers may also cause English vessels to do the same.

Cleveland has declared that his entire cabinet were enlisted for the four years; and that when any reports of changes are circulated they are merely unreliable rumors without any foundation in fact.

Madam Barrios, widow of the late President Barrios, of Guatemala, and party, consisting of twenty persons, went East last week over the Central Pacific Railroad, in a private car of Charles Crocker.

At the annual sheep shearing in Vermont the heaviest ram's fleece weighed thirty-eight pounds, thirteen ounces, and the heaviest ewe's fleece twenty-one pounds, nine ounces. This beats the record at any public shearing.

General Grant is now so far improved that he is thinking where he shall spend the summer. The "old commander's" evident victory over his doctors deserves to rank with Donelson, Vicksburg, Missionary Ridge and Appomattox.

An agreement for a glove contest between Charles Mitchell of England and Mike Cleary of New York has been signed. The fight will be four rounds, Marquis of Queensbury rules, and is to take place in San Francisco on May 22.

There are some forty-five thousand head of sheep in Lake county, while there are over twenty-five thousand head of cattle belonging in the county. It is estimated that 340,000 pounds of wool was shipped out of the county last season.

The fortunate owners of the newly discovered gold mine on Burnt river are quite satisfied with the assays made from the vein, and have ordered a stamp mill and other machinery for working the mine. The vein is over three feet wide and assays $800.66 to the ton.

A statement was recently published that while R. K. Bruce, register of the treasury, was in the United States Senate, Secretary Bayard would hold no intercourse with him because he was a colored man. Secretary Bayard has pronounced the statement to be untrue.

Cincinnati, May 1.—A foot race, 125 yards, for $500 a side and the championship of America, was run this afternoon at Chester park by H. M. Johnson of New York and George Smith of Pittsburg. Johnson won by six feet in eleven and three-quarter seconds, beating the best record.

Washington, May 1.—The President to-day appointed Anthony M. Keily as Minister to Austria. The action of Admiral Jouett at Panama is approved by the government, as being judicious and discreet. Telegram received from Jouett says Aizpura has surrendered and peaceful settlement effected between government troops and insurgents.

A dispatch from Tirpul, dated April 23, says that the Afghans are engaged against the British, and accuse Sir Peter Lumsden of deserting them, as the Russians did in 1878. The Afghan member of the frontier commission has made a protest, in which he says that it was shameful for the British to encourage the Afghans to resist the Russians at Pendjeh, and afterwards to abstain from rendering any assistance.

An agreement has been concluded between the English and Turkish governments, by which the latter will allow vessels of the former to pass through the Dardanelles in the event of war with Russia. In return for this favor Turkey will be allowed to send an expedition to occupy the Soudan by way of Suakem, and England will restore Cyprus to Turkey at the end of five years, and guarantees the integrity of the states of the porte.

Destroy that Sign.

One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectually as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man who shows this fatal sign. Parker's Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bald spots covered by using a single bottle.

FINE STOCK.
THE FINE VERMONT STALLION
ECHO
Will make the season of 1885 as follows: Commencing at Vanney's ferry on Rogue river, April 16th, thence to David Pennger's April 19th, Woodville the 21st and Grant's Pass the 23d, returning to each place every ninth day during the season.
Description and Pedigree:
Echo is a beautiful dark bay, 9 years old next September, 16½ hands high, well proportioned and weighs 1,200 pounds.
Echo was sired by Cardwell's Mike, dam by Old Vermont, her dam by Cadwallader's well-known Overbeck mare, a thoroughbred Kentucky Whip. Mike was sired by Col. Vermont, he by Independence, he by Black Hawk, he by Sherman, Morgan, he by Justin Morgan, the founder of the Morgan family. Mike's dam was the Overbeck mare, thus combining the Vermont strain in Echo as fully as it is in Mike.
TERMS—By the season, $20. Any person selling his mare during the season will please remember that the money for service is then due.
Great care will be taken to prevent accidents, but no responsibility assumed.
JOHN WELLS.

YOUNG CLYDE.
Clydesdale and Copperbottom Stallion will make the season of 1885 as follows: Commencing at my stables in Eagle Point, April 1st, he will remain 4 days; thence to J. M. Mansfield's near Willow Springs, where he will remain 2 days; thence to R. V. Beall's, where he will remain 2 days; thence to Jacksonville, where he will remain 4 days; returning every 9th day to his own stables during the season.
Young Clyde was sired by S. G. Reed's celebrated Clydesdale stallion, acknowledged to be one of the best horses ever brought to Oregon. His dam was a thoroughbred Copperbottom mare. She was imported from Kentucky and was one of the best bred mares ever brought to the State. As to his breeding qualities I will refer you to T. F. Beall, R. V. Beall, John Field, J. W. Smith, Levi Adams, A. J. Daley, James Wiley, J. N. Taylor, Robert Potter and others.
It is not necessary to make a great blow. The horse will show for himself. He is large, well proportioned and weighs about 1,900 lbs.
TERMS—Season $7, payable at close of season; insurance, $10, due when mare is known to be with foal.
J. F. DAVIS.

THE FINE DRAFT STALLION
"BRET HARTE"
Will make the season of 1885, commencing April 1st, at Pruett's place, 2 miles east of Central Point, where he will be four days; at I. B. Williams' place on Antelope creek, 2 days, and at Fred Hansen's place at Table Rock P. O., 2 days, returning every nine days.
Bret Harte is a very dark iron-gray, actual weight 1500 lbs. (and all bone); is 5 years old. He was sired by the imported Clydesdale horse, "Old Harry," acknowledged to be the most uniform and best breeding sire ever imported to the Pacific coast. Bret's dam is the Copperbottom mare owned by Dr. Osborne of Gilroy, and considered one of the best brood mares in America. Her weight is 1400 lbs.
TERMS—$8 for the season, or $12 for insurance, payable at end of the season or when the mare is in foal.
Take a look at Bret and judge for yourself, and you will be very liable to breed to him.
PRUETT BROS.

THE STYLISH HORSE,
ARABIAN KNIGHT,
Will make the Season of 1885 as follows:
At Talent on Mondays and Tuesdays, and at the Excelsior Livery, Feed and Sale Stables in Medford the balance of the time, during each week of the season.
TERMS: Single service, $5, payable in cash only, when service is rendered, by the season $10, payable in grain or hay at current rates, delivered, insurance $15. Parties selling or trading mares will be held responsible for the amount due thereon.
Arabian Knight is a beautiful gray, 16½ hands high, and weighing in ordinary flesh 1,250 lbs.
He is three-fourths Morgan and one-fourth Messenger, his grandsire being the celebrated White Prince.
All lovers of fine horses are invited to call and see Arabian Knight, before giving patronage elsewhere.
DAVID PAYNE, Prop'r.

SELIM.
THIS HANDSOME STALLION
Will make the season of 1885, commencing April 1st, as follows: On April 1st and 2d he will be in Jacksonville on the 3d and 4th he will be at Eagle Point, returning to each place every ninth day during the season, and on the other days he will be found at Granville Sears' farm.
Selim is by Scamperdown, he by Norfolk, he by Lexington, he by Boston, he by Sir Archy, he by Arabian Bay. Selim's dam was a Rifleman mare. He is 16 hands high, weighs 1,300 pounds and is eight years old.
TERMS: Single leap, $5; by the season, $10; insurance $15.
I will exercise due caution, but will not be responsible for any accident that may occur.

FIVE FARMS
For Sale or Lease!
640 Acres of rich prairie bottom land on Goose Lake. A. T. Snelling, Lakeview, Oregon, will show this land.
320 Acres near East Portland, of rich garden and orchard land. Overton Dowell, near Willsburg, will show this land.
160 Acres of the Jesse Applegate Donation land claim, near Yoncalla, of rich, black alluvial prairie land, with some timber on the creek.
65 Acres lying immediately south of the Jesse Applegate Donation. About one-third of this tract of land is in fine bearing young fruit trees.
160 Acres, being the Jones' Donation Claim. This land has four excellent springs on it. The soil is red, and the best of wheat, oats or barley land, like the Waldo hills, near Salem, Oregon.
The last three tracts of land lie near Yoncalla station in Douglas county and they will be shown by Dennis A. Sullivan.
These tracts of land all have beautiful running streams on them during the entire year.
