The Democratic Times.

THURSDAY..... MAY 1, 1890

Democratic County Convention.

A Democratic Convention for Jackson county, Oregon, is hereby called to be held at the Court House in Jacksonville on SATURDAY, MAY 3, 1890,

at 10 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of nominating candidates for county offices and to transact other business that may properly come before it.

The several precincts will be entitled to one delegate each and one delegate additional for every 25 votes and fraction of 15 or over cast for John M. Gearin for congressman in 1888, to-wit:*

Precinct.	Votes cast in 1888.	Del.
Ashland	208	9
Applegate	52	3
Big Butte	33	2
Chimney Rock	34	2
Central Point	89	4
Eden (divided by Talent)		2
Foots Creek	21	1
Florence Rock	6	1
Gold Hill (new precinct)		1
Jacksonville	186	8
Little Butte	74	4
Lost Creek (new precinct)		1
Medford	92	5
Meadows	21	1
Mount Pitt (new precinct)		1
Pleasant Creek	57	3
Rock Point divided with Gold Hill		1
Sterlingville	10	1
Shake (new precinct)		1
Steamboat	8	1
Trail Creek	32	2
Table Rock	92	5
Talent (new precinct)		2
Uniontown	45	2
Woodville	39	2
Willow Springs	58	3
Total number of delegates		72

Primary meetings in the various precincts for the election of delegates to the county convention will be held at the usual places of voting on Saturday, April 26th, 1890, at 1 o'clock P. M.

All persons who favor the perpetuation of Democratic principles and design supporting the Democratic nominees at the approaching election, are cordially invited to participate in the primaries.

By order of the Democratic Co. Committee.

E. DEPEATT, Chairman.

List of Delegates.

The following is a partial list of delegates elected to represent the various precincts in the Democratic county convention which meets next Saturday in this place:

Ashland—Daniel Chapman, J. O. C. Wimer, E. S. Miller, H. S. Evans, M. N. Long, L. A. Neil, I. O. Miller, C. S. Price, J. R. R. Hutchings.

Applegate—John O'Brien, Wm. Bailey and J. H. Knutzen.

Big Butte—Ben. Higinbotham and W. F. Wilkinson.

Chimney Rock—Simeon Farlow and ——Alice.

Central Point—E. R. Owen, G. T. Hershberger, R. V. Beall and Wm. Gregory.

Eden—S. Furry, E. D. Foudray and Jas. R. Reames.

Foots Creek—Samuel Mathis and Thos. Cook.

Florence Rock—R. H. Dean.

Gold Hill—W. J. Marksbury, J. W. Mason and J. House.

Jacksonville—P. Elmer, E. DePeatt, H. Groth, E. B. Stone, Geo. R. Neil, J. D. Wimer, K. Kubli and A. L. Reuter.

Little Butte—John Adipoe, Dr. Rivers, C. W. Taylor and H. R. Brown.

Lost Creek—No report.

Medford—M. Purdin, Wm. Slinger, D. T. Sears, P. B. O'Neil and John S. Miller.

Meadows—H. H. Mitchell and J. B. Welch.

Mt. Pitt—No report.

Pleasant Creek—W. P. Hill's and ——

Rock Point—Geo. Hyland and H. L. White.

Sterlingville—D. J. S. Pearce.

Shake—Melvin Naylor.

Steamboat—no report.

Trail Creek—J. G. Briscoe and J. R. Morrison.

Table Rock—M. A. Hanson, Perry Foster, G. C. McClendon, C. C. Gail and J. L. Rose.

Talent—John Briner, Jeff Bell and A. Alford.

Uniontown—A. Throckmorton and A. Enyart.

Woodville—John Robinson and G. F. Smoulder.

Willow Springs—E. F. Dean, C. C. Ragsdale and D. Feniniger.

School Report.

The following is the monthly report of Applegate school for the month ending April 25, 1890: Number of days taught, 20; number of pupils enrolled, 40; number of pupils present at the time, 36; average daily attendance, 698; average daily attendance, 35; total daily absence, 40; average daily absence, 2. Number of visitors, 4. The following pupils were neither absent nor tardy during the month: Florence B. B. Eugene Burne, Abbie Cantrall, Dora Cook, Alice Cook, Bessie Cook, Lulu Cook, Kate Herriott, Annie Herriott, Jennie Knuhl, Jose Moss, Bird Moss, Rose O'Brien, Lydia Pernell, Fred Britt, Lee Cantrall, James Carcliuff, Clinton Cook, Geo. Herriott, Edward Herriott, Thomas Herriott, Charles Knuhl, Marion Klein, Frank Knight, Chas. Moss, Harry Moss, John Pernell, Willie Stoemaker.

Circuit Court.

The following proceedings have been had in circuit court, Judge Wheeler presiding, since the last report of the TIMES:

J. K. Davis vs. Ira Hedges et al.; to recover money. Leave granted to file certified copies of summons and complaint.

James Wright vs. D. H. Barrowclough; for an accounting, etc. Change of venue to Josephine county granted.

Beekman & Reames vs. Geo. M. Love et al. Objections of one of defendants to confirmation of sheriff's sale overruled, and sale confirmed.

Jos Solomon vs. S. Simpkins; to recover money. Dismissed.

Minnie M. Dezwort vs. E. M. Dezwort; divorce. Plaintiff's bill over-ruled and judgment for defendant for costs.

An Untoward Accident.

On Wednesday of last week W. W. Crapo, the superintendent and general manager of the Grant's Pass Lime Company, was near Woodville was accidently killed at Grant's Pass by being thrown under the wheels and having his head crushed by the wheels passing over it. He was a single man, highly esteemed and a progressive citizen. For some months prior to his death he had been engaged in developing the limestone quarry near Woodville, and had a number of men employed on the work. Operations were necessarily suspended indefinitely, owing to Mr. Crapo's death. Deceased was a man of about 45 years of age, possessed of considerable means, and has no known relatives in this section.

Republican Convention.

The following is the apportionment of delegates among the various precincts, as per call of the central committee chairman in the Republican county convention to be held next Wednesday, May 7: Ashland 13, Applegate 2, Big Butte 2, Central Point 3, Chimney Rock 2, Eden 3, Florence Rock 1, Foots creek 2, Gold Hill 2, Jacksonville 7, Little Butte 5, Lost Creek 1, Medford 5, Meadows 1, Mt. Pitt 1, Pleasant creek 2, Rock Point 2, Steamboat 1, Sterlingville 2, Shake 1, Table Rock 2, Talent 3, Woodville 2, Willow Springs 2, Uniontown 3, Trail Creek 1. Total 79, or seven more delegates than will participate in the Democratic convention next Saturday.

She Wolf's Whelps.

A young man in Little Butte precinct has struck a mine of wealth in a coyote den near his mother's ranch. A sly old female has made her lair among the rocks for a year or more; and whom the young man is unable to capture or slay the mother, he gets there when she is absent and whips with a fifteen foot rawhide. A few months ago he realized $15 in bounties off a litter of six, and recently captured a second litter of seven pups. The old she wolf was feeling quite sore at last accounts. The young man is rendering the community a genuine service by keeping down the increase, even if the old one is too shy for him.

Ashland Improvements.

Among improvements contemplated in Ashland this season the "Tidings" notes the following: Mr. Johnson, Hoag, is having her residence painted. E. V. Mills is preparing to build a $2000 residence on his property on the Boulevard. Fred Vining is having his property on Siskiyou street dened and repainted, preparatory to leasing same to H. C. Myers. G. W. Gardner is preparing to erect a handsome residence on the corner of Granite and High streets. Geo. H. Rhodes will remodel his carriage, planing same on a substructure of brick and stone, with solid granite front.

Ranch Home Burned.

The house belonging to Wm. Bybee, at the south end of Rogue river bridge, took fire from a defective flue on Friday night and burned to the ground, with most of the contents belonging to H. T. Smith. The loss is severe upon the latter, who loses his household goods, provisions, clothing, etc.

Probate Court.

The following business was transacted in this court, Judge Neil presiding, since the last report of the TIMES:

Estate of Wm. Wooley, deceased. A. McNeal appointed administrator. John M. Nichols, S. A. Carlton and A. Pool appraisers.

HERE AND THERE.

Buy a White.

The White is still king.

Advertise your stallions.

Read the new advertisements.

Housecleaning is now the rage.

Stacks of new goods at Hunsaker's

Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers get there.

Horse and jack bills at the TIMES office

Baby lace caps from 25c to $2 50 at Hunsaker's.

Ashland is troubled with a clothes-line thief.

Black undressed kid gloves at Hunsaker's.

Straw hats of all kinds at the S. F. Variety store

A. S. Jacobs was in town on Tuesday on business.

Cleanse your breath with DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

The winning ticket will be nominated next Saturday.

All kinds of sewing machines repaired by J. W. Sowden.

Ask E. C. Brooks what DeWitt's Little Early Risers are.

C. C. Ragsdale of Tolo was on our streets Monday last.

Seed potatoes in quantities to suit at the S. F. Variety store.

Taxes are delinquent and should be settled without delay.

John Butterworth now holds a case on the Yreka "Union."

T. J. Downing of Willow Springs was in town Monday last.

Miller and LeRoy at Ashland and Jacksonville on Saturday.

Ashland had five "vags" in the chain gang one day last week.

We have been experiencing some warm weather during the week.

Fresh bread can be obtained at the S. F. Variety Store at any time.

H. R. Brown of Brownsboro was in town last Sunday for a few hours.

The delegates to the respective state conventions have returned home.

Now is the time to announce for constable and justice of the peace.

Chicken feed in quantities to suit at the S. F. Variety Store, Jacksonville.

W. K. Price was in town Tuesday pursuing the pleasures of the chase.

W. H. Bostwick of Uniontown was in town and called a few days since.

Frank Mangus of Medford was in town on Tuesday behind his span of bays.

Dr. W. W. Rivers and D. T. Ewan of Eagle Point were in town Tuesday.

Wm. Bybee returned Monday from a visit to his springs on Evans creek.

Successful schools are in operation in Rock Point and Gold Hill districts.

Address Jackson & Sowden, Grant's Pass, for a Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine.

A little rain is needed and the prospects are good that some will fall this week.

Griffin & Walker's sawmill on Sam's creek is again in operation, we learn.

His girl didn't go back on him because he used DeWitt's Little Early Risers.

First-class cedar fence posts for sale in quantities to suit at the TIMES office

The blue gravel mines of Siskiyou county are said to be paying exceedingly well.

Straw hats in endless quantity and in every style at the S. F. Variety Store.

Nick Rogers leaves for Little Shasta, Cal., to-day and will be gone several months.

Jon Devevey of Shasta county, Cal., won $500 in a late Louisiana lottery drawing.

A nice assortment of baby bugger robes, also long and short cloaks at Hunsaker's.

Monthly installments of $10 will buy a house and lot in Roseburg for cash.

Kanaah river is said to be very high, caused by melting snow in the mountains.

Old papers, in quantities to suit, for sale at the TIMES office at cents a hundred.

California strawberries are being shipped through the valley in quantities to Portland.

J. G. Crump of Little Butte precinct was in town yesterday and called on the TIMES.

For pure Rogue river whisky, in quantities to suit, call on Captain Caton, Jacksonville.

Ten thousand feet of lumber at Sam Stanley's mill-house for sale by Scott Griffin of Tolo.

R. K. Sutton last week bought Geo. A. Stephens's livery business in Ashland.

J. W. Wisely of Phoenix was in town Monday and paid the TIMES office a pleasant call.

Take a look at those elegant furnishing goods for summer use at the S. F. Variety store.

The convention next Saturday will nominate well skilled and harmonious as well.

Orange blossoms are said to be getting ready to burst in high life in Uniontown precinct.

John Chappell is preparing to burn a large quantity of lime near Gold Hill the coming season.

All the large streams are high, on account of the snow in the mountains melting rapidly.

S. J. Scott, city surveyor of Albina, was formerly employed in Bloomer's store at Ashland.

A most successful school is now being conducted on Forest creek by Miss Lizzie Hermert.

Everybody should turn out and hear Col. Moore and Miss LeRoy at Ashland next Saturday.

Notes, receipts due-bills, drafts etc., in book form neatly and first-class, at the TIMES office.

Most of the mountain streams are still out of and muddy from melting snow in the foothills.

To be happy is to buy your dress goods and fancy goods of E. R. Hunsaker, Ashland, Oregon.

Mrs. Pollock and son of Eagle Point were in town yesterday on business at the county seat.

E. R. Hunsaker selected the very latest novelties in the dress goods department while in the east.

Asparagus, lettuce, radishes and other early vegetables have made their appearance in our market.

Send to Jackson & Sowden, Jacksonville, for designs and prices of monuments, tombstones, tablets, etc.

Stephen Jewell is contducting a most successful school at Pleasant Grove schoolhouse, near Grant's Pass.

I. W. Cox of Gold Hill has greatly improved the looks of his shop by building a business front to the same.

A very pretty convention is promised for next Saturday, as not a single candidate is positive of nomination.

Send the TIMES to your friends East, or at any other place. It assures them better than all the letters you can write.

W. A. Banz, a former mail clerk running into Ashland, is now a leading real-estate operator in Portland.

Fred H. Rowe, the Glendale sawmill man, will open a lumber yard in Roseburg in a short time, says the "Review."

Alfalfa is being cut in some sections of southern Oregon. This is said to be a good crop that ripens well soon fall.

Yreka wants a combined flour and quartz mill. The "Journal" says there is no flour mill nearer than Etna or Little Shasta.

The warm weather of the past week has caused many of the snow-covered mountains to begin to show bare spots.

Fresh buckwheat and graham flour, oatmeal, tricum, farina and other articles in this line at the S. F. Variety Store.

The finest and purest candies, orange blossoms, fruit and other confections just received at the S. F. Variety store.

The best seed potatoes, onion sets, garden seeds, garlic, chives and timothy seed at the S. F. Variety Store, Jacksonville.

We sympathize in earnest in the death of the wife of H. H. Assay of Sam's valley, who died a few days since, after a short illness.

A few copies of the American Settlers' Guide," standard authority on all land matters, may be found at the TIMES office

Canvassings for the offices of school superintendent and assessor will predominate in number at the convention next Saturday.

The Montague "Herald" reports that Col. J. M. Nye, the California horse-buyer, is a cousin of the noted humorist, Bill Nye.

Times were very good in California as may well be in a country where accounts for large cash transaction there to the northwest.

Attention is called to the land office notice of new survey in township 39 south, range 14 west, under head of "new this week."

A pot buyer in Lake county succeeded in buying over 40,000 sheep pelts this spring, and commentary on the past winter.

Alfred Lowe made final proof on his homestead before Judge Neil last Saturday. Wm. Ray and Elijah Smith being his witnesses.

Reeves, Russ and Van Tassel conducted a series of meetings at the Talent Baptist church during last week, with considerable success.

When in Medford don't fail to call on D. T. Pritchard, the jeweler. He will take great pleasure in showing you his mammoth stock of jewelry.

James Brown of Phoenix last week started east with his family for an extended visit in Indiana and Michigan, where they formerly resided.

Candidates are plenty enough now, but harmony will bring high. Lively times are looked for from now until June 21 next, however.

Peter Abley and wife, accompanied by Miss Alexander and Mrs. Winters of Ashland, are at Yaquina bay, their summer residence.

W. H. Parker has the foundation for his new farm residence completed and the work of putting up the superstructure will proceed rapidly.

Mrs. M. Hauser has sold one of her dwelling-houses in town to Mrs. M. Krause, who took possession this week. The price paid was $1000.

Conductor Ryan had quite an exciting encounter with tramps in Ashland some days ago, four of them having attempted to rob him of $4.

Alex. Martin and E. R. Reames started for Linkville this morning. We learn that a change in the firm of Reames, Martin & Co. will soon be made.

H. H. Blecher called Monday, before starting for Sprague river valley, to straighten up his affairs and fences on his fine hay ranch out there.

Jackson, Josephine and Klamath counties had a larger personal representation in the Democratic state convention than ever before. A good sign.

The Odd Fellows of Ashland celebrated the 71st anniversary by a social supper, participated in by members of the order and their families.

Rogue river valley presents a most beautiful appearance now, viewed from either lowland or hillside. Everything looks bright and fresh.

One of the Oregon's hotel waiters at Ashland became stage-struck last week and followed off the Lindsay dramatic company to California.

In all diseases of the stomach, liver and kidneys use, to the exclusion of all other medicines, nature's own remedy, Plunder's Oregon Blood Purifier.

John A. Lowe, who is quite well with his troubles, has gone to Bybees siding on Evans creek, for the benefit of his health. He is wise enough, we know.

The Ashland city council has determined to commence 4.26 acres of ground in that city as a site for the new waterworks, now in course of construction.

Jacksonville will no doubt be filled with delegates from every portion of the county next Saturday. Let it be a Democratic day in every respect.

"Pritchard" can't make a new watch out of an old one, but he can make it run like a daisy. Remember the place, at the Grand Central hotel, Medford, Oregon.

John Clint, recently from Minnesota, has accepted the position of railroad section foreman, made vacant by the promotion of W. R. Lawson as roadmaster.

The Republican primaries will be held throughout the county next Saturday, when delegates to the convention to be held here next Wednesday will be elected.

The Republican county convention meets next Wednesday. Jim Bordeux, M. Muir and Sam Daly are said to be booked for their present positions.

The Yreka "Journal" this week reports nine births at Hawkinsville in Siskiyou county. The springing up of babies is very lively in that section, however.

The largest and best stock of deeds, mortgages and other blanks ever before in Jackson county is kept at the TIMES office and sold at Portland rates.

Parties purchasing goods of E. R. Hunsaker to the amount of ten dollars or more will have their railroad fare paid one way to Talent, Phoenix, Medford or Central Point.

Miss Ada Gaillard of Eureka, Cal., visited the family of her uncle, O. Gaillard of Ashland, while passing through the valley en route to Portland during the past week.

The Democratic primaries last Saturday were very well attended and passed off harmoniously in nearly every precinct. We are glad to hear this, as it is a good augury.

The opera hall in the Gaillard block at Ashland will be fitted up with all modern furniture and convenences, and will be one of the best halls in the state outside of Portland.

Tresspassers upon Rev. Robert Emmy's premises near Jacksonville are hereby warned that they will be prosecuted to the extent of the law, without further notice.

Charges will be prepaid to Jacksonville, Medford Central Point and intermediate points on line of railroad, and all other goods purchased of E. R. Hunsaker, Ashland, Oregon.

Horse and jack bills printed in the best style at the TIMES office. We have the largest assortment of cuts to select from of any newspaper south of Salem. Rates very reasonable.

Don't fail to see that fine, large stock of clocks, watches and jewelry at D. T. Pritchard's. He is constantly receiving new supplies. Call and see him at the Grand Central hotel, Medford, Oregon.

Bohner & Lyle are building a fish trap in Rogue river, below the bridge, and will doubtless be ready to supply the market when the run comes.

The money order list next week will warrant checking off with raising the dues to six in a name on Postmaster's cross was discharged after the preliminary hearing, by Justice Pyburn.

Al. Farrow, the Lakeview correspondent of the Portland "Oregonian," is one of the brightest and ablest of the profession. He is one of the most promising running horses on the government.

A banquet was tendered the Ashland lodge I. O. O. F. & A. Masons, at the Oregon, on Tuesday evening of last week, to a candidate who had just passed through the mysteries of the M. M. degree.

J. R. Evans of Medford precinct was in town on Monday and called in to see us. Sometimes for a few moments. In company with several friends he intends to visit Klamath county in a short time.

It is a noticeable fact that all northbound trains are more heavily loaded with passengers than are the southern-bound cars. Even the tramps are headed with the northbound tide of emigration.

The Willow Springs school-house will be equipped with modern school seats and furniture in time for our second quarter, which begins on the 12th of May. The district is a large one and the improvements have long been needed.

P. L. Packard of Talent intends to remove his family to Portland at an early date, to permanently reside. He is an energetic, intelligent gentleman, and we regret to see him leave the county.

W. B. Grubb and H. E. Spencer came to Ashland from Klamath county one day last week. They report the food nearly clear of snow, though on high north hillsides it still lies fully four feet deep.

A fine and handsome line of gent's furnishing goods for summer wear, including negligee shirts, under-wear, cuffs, collars, neckties, scarfs, hosiery, etc., has just come in via express at S. F. Variety store.

B. R. Stephens of Woodville, lately of Nebraska, is teaching a five-months term of school at Willow Springs with great success, the attendance being large and great interest taken by teacher, pupils and patrons.

The personal efforts of Lieut. Jas. A. Sewell, formerly of Ashland, now stationed at Norfolk, Va., were said at sheriff's sale at Ashland one day last week to satisfy a judgment obtained by C. Mingus against Swift.

There will be a special meeting of Warren Lodge No. 21, F. & A. M., for Wednesday evening, May 7, 1890, for the purpose of work in the F. C. and M. M. degrees. Visiting brethren are fraternally invited.

The trains through the valley are constantly increasing in size as the tide of summer travel sets in, and the light engines on the road have been put at heavy work in the task of handling the heavy trains.

It is said that the proposition to build a road along the line of the Rogue river valley, to provide a road and bridge fund, will carry by a great majority. That county was almost destroyed of bridges during the recent hard weather.

T. J. Sweeney of Dead Indian prairie was in town on Tuesday and called on the TIMES. He reports grass fine in his neighborhood, although there is still plenty of snow in the mountain canyons and northhill slopes.

The Southern Oregon state board of agriculture meets at Grant's Pass next Monday, May 5. The annual meeting of the society takes place the day following, when agricultural asset will be had at Jacksonville the same day.

While the frost undoubtedly did some damage to orchards on low grounds in this county two weeks ago, the percentage of loss was light in proportion to the area, and an increase of crop may be looked for in the foothill belt.

For decoration there is nothing rather than cosmic flowers. Pain balm. The prompt relief which it affords to the tortured victim of neuralgia, the terrible sufferer from catarrh, dyspepsia and nervousness, is calculated to make friends by the thousand. Sold by druggists at 50 cts. and $1 per package.

Geo. W. Bacon, a nephew of Mrs. Wm. Bybee of this precinct, is in the valley looking out a location from which to work the county for a superior quality of asbestos roof paint for which he has the agency. He intends to bring his family to the valley to stay and make either this place or Ashland his headquarters for the summer.

E. O. Packard of San Juan county, Colorado, arrived in the valley last week, and intends making Jackson county his home for the present. He is not at all appalled by the prospect of a foot or two of snow here occasionally, as he passed the winter just ended in a locality where the snow was at least thirty feet deep.

Squire Angle of Medford dropped in to see us while in town last week. He reports the new route will be in condition for travel before fall.

On a recent visit to Iowa, Mr. N. Dalton of Lurez, Russell Co., Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines to show them his six-year-old boy whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy. He says it has an excellent reputation in his vicinity, that farmers come miles to buy it for fear it will not have any of them, like himself, are never without it in their homes. For sale at City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and by Engel Bros., Phoenix.

Religious News.

Rev. George Jones will preach at the Eagle Point school-house on the second Sunday in each month at 11 o'clock A. M.; at Sam's valley on the third Sunday at 11 A. M., and at Antioch on the 4 h Sunday at the same hour.

Rev. Father F. E. Clark late of Roseburg, who is now in charge of the Jacksonville pastorate, will hold regular service at 10 30 o'clock next Sunday morning at the school house in this place.

Simmons' Liver Regulator.

As also the name indicates, a "Regulator" of that great important organ, the Liver. Is your liver out of order? Then is your stomach deranged, the bowels disposed, you have headache, are nervous, depressed and nervous, no appetite, sleep is troubled and unrefreshing. Simmons' Liver Regulator restores the healthy action of the liver.

Not a Symptom in Five Years.

I had scrofula in 1881 and entirely crossed it from my system by taking several bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.). I have had not any symptoms of it since that time. C. W. Wilcox, Spartanburg, S. C. Treatise on blood and skin diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

"Jackson & Sowden have a large assortment of new and elegant designs in monuments, tombstones, etc., which they will sell with prices to anyone wishing to buy anything in that line. Do not fail to see them before you buy.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Ashland Building and Loan Association $1200 was loaned. G. G. Eubanks took $500 at 62 months' advance interest and H. Judge $700 at 55 month's advance interest, says the "Tidings."

J. T. Flynn of Portland, the great rustler, has chartered a Pullman car and will make regular excursions from the metropolis to Grant's Pass. The first trip will be made next Saturday.

Arrangements have been made for circulating subscription papers for funds for building the proposed Presbyterian academy at this place. All those who can should contribute liberally, as it will benefit the whole county.

Mrs. May Van Auken now intends to organize classes in elocution and singing in this place and perhaps in Central Point. She is sojourning in Oregon for her health and expresses herself as being highly pleased with this valley.

Do not fail to attend the Democratic speaking in this place next Saturday night. Col. Robt. A. Miller, Democratic candidate for congress, and Col. A. LeRoy our candidate for superintendent of public instruction, will be the orators.

Jackson county will give a large majority for all the candidates on the Democratic state ticket, especially for Miller, Pennoyer, Webb and LeRoy. The party is united and will receive much help from conservative Republicans.

A dry, hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be had than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, which is both an anodyne and expectorant.

Miss Lida Day of Williams creek is teaching the school at Steamboat, and giving satisfaction.

Wm. Slinger and S. H. Hull, prominent citizens of Medford, called at the TIMES office to-day.

P. I. Packard of Talent will accept a position with the Pacific metal works of Portland next week.

Theo. Engelen Phoenix has returned from a trip to Portland, where he has been arranging his affairs.

Mrs. Annie Ross goes to Seattle, Wash., to join her husband, who has found employment there.

Col. C. A. Cogswell, the genial Lakeview attorney, spent several days in Jacksonville during the week.

Mrs. Mart Childers, who had been visiting in this valley, last week returned to her home in Klamath county.

Walter S. King of Food's creek and Chas. K. Quinn of Talent made Jacksonville a visit the forepart of the week.

W. J. Paul of Yreka, Cal., is in town, being interested in a case commenced in Klamath county last year.

Harry Preston returned to the TIMES office yesterday, after a temporary absence at San Buena Ventura, California.

E. B. Hunsaker of Ashland returned a few days since from San Francisco, where he purchased a large stock of goods.

Alex. Martin, Sr., of Oakland, Calif., came on Monday's evening stage to visit old-time friends and scenes for a few days.

Edward Schagner of California is here looking after the whereabouts of his father, who was a pioneer resident of this section.

Al. Sears, formerly of Ashland, is now in the employ of Chas. Sever, proprietor of the "The Banquet," the finest saloon in Portland.

Hon. P. P. Prim and Chas. Prim will leave in a short time for a tour of inspection through the Sound country and up the Columbia.

J. R. Little leaves for Seattle, Wash., this week, to take a situation in the W. U. Tel. Co.'s office. He has become proficient in telegraphy.

Mrs. Chas. Prim and Miss Nettie Pogue are in charge of Mrs. Prim's millinery store in Jacksonville, while the proprietress is at Central Point.

A wedding party from Sam's valley was in town yesterday, the contracting parties being T. J. Keisse and Mrs. Mary A. Wood. Squire Pymasie tied the gordian knot in the presence of Mart. Perry, A. S. Mason and Miss Maude Gall. The TIMES joins in congratulations.

The board of directors of the Oregon Pioneer Association have selected Portland as the place of holding the annual meeting next June. Hon. H. W. Scott, editor of the Portland "News," has been selected to deliver the annual address and Hon. Rufus Mallory the occasional address.

Many of our Catholic friends cherish the hope that Archbishop Gross will see fit to induce Father F. X. Blanchet to again take charge of the Catholic parishes in this county. His long residence here before he went to the Willamette valley endeared him to the people generally, regardless of creed.

Gaylord intends repairing the dam across Rogue river, in order to resume operations at the Gold Hill flour mills during the summer. The damage caused by the flood was very great, and it will be necessary to put in the dam almost entirely. The property is too valuable to allow it to be idle, however.

A fifteen-year-old son of C. F. Frizell of Ashland had the misfortune to fall from the substrade of the second story of the new house of that place one day last week, breaking his nose and fracturing his wrists. It is a marvel he was not killed, as he fell fully seventeen feet on to a hard board floor.

W. H. Ware, the English millord who graced our county seat precincts with his presence for some weeks during the winter, has compromised with his former employers, Dunbar & Co., and will be set down as a shrewd man. The "Granite" Dunbar never would have been caught had he not run into the great snow blockade.

Geo. W. Riddle of Riddle's station, Douglas county, who exhibited some splendid specimens of his orchard product, both green and dried, at the district fair last fall, is minus to plant trees. He has fully 120 acres in orchard and will not stop until he has 200 acres. His specialties are prunes and pears, and he has large area planted to Winter Nelis pears alone.

Prof. M. G. Royal, formerly president of the Ashland college, who has been the principal of the public schools at Pendleton for some three years past, has been appointed assistant engineer in the state of Washington, and has moved to Olympia with his family. Secretary of State Weir of Washington is an old friend of Prof. Royal, says the "Tidings."

Dr. L. Helm last week sold 38½ acres of orchard land adjoining the Gaby orchard in Ashland precinct to Henry Oliver of Edensburg, Wash., for $5500. It will be remembered that Mr. Oliver last fall bought the Gaby tract for $12,000. About two years ago Mr. Helm purchased the adjoining tract of 38½ acres for $6000. Mr. Oliver will have one of the finest orchard farms in the upper valley.

The Union party organizers are busily engaged in proving their principles to the people of the various towns in the valley, by means of public meetings, addresses, etc. D. H. Hawkins delivered a few speeches at the railroad towns and the county seat during the week. By means of an aggressive campaign the party leaders hope to hold the balance of power in the state after the present year.

The railroad magnates, Huntington and Koehler, inspected the work in the Cow creek canyon last Friday, going north from Ashland by special train. They will finaly determine on the site for the permanent roadbed through the canyon, and the work of construction will be proceeded with. About three miles of new road will have to be built, and it is thought the new route will be in condition for travel before fall.

On a recent visit to Iowa, Mr. N. Dalton of Lurez, Russell Co., Kansas, called at the laboratory of Chamberlain & Co., Des Moines to show them his six-year-old boy whose life had been saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, it having cured him of a very severe attack of croup. Mr. Dalton is certain that it saved his boy's life and is enthusiastic in his praise of the remedy. He says it has an excellent reputation in his vicinity, that farmers come miles to buy it for fear it will not have any of them, like himself, are never without it in their homes. For sale at City Drug Store, Jacksonville, and by Engel Bros., Phoenix.

Republican Notes.

Rev. George Jones will preach at the Eagle Point school-house on the second Sunday in each month at 11 o'clock A. M.; at Sam's valley on the third Sunday at 11 A. M., and at Antioch on the 4 h Sunday at the same hour.

R. V. Fisher F. E. Clark late of Roseburg, who is now in charge of the Jacksonville pastorate, will hold regular service at 10 30 o'clock next Sunday morning at the school house in this place.

Simmons' Liver Regulator.

As also the name indicates, a "Regulator" of that great important organ, the Liver. Is your liver out of order? Then is your stomach deranged, the bowels disposed, you have headache, are nervous, depressed and nervous, no appetite, sleep is troubled and unrefreshing. Simmons' Liver Regulator restores the healthy action of the liver.

Not a Symptom in Five Years.

I had scrofula in 1881 and entirely crossed it from my system by taking several bottles of Swift's Specific (S. S. S.). I have had not any symptoms of it since that time. C. W. Wilcox, Spartanburg, S. C. Treatise on blood and skin diseases mailed free.

SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., Atlanta, Ga.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. D. Hanley of Portland was in town during the week.

John Powers of Ashland took a trip to Red Bluff, Cal., last week.

S. C. Wood left Central Point precinct for Ashland one day this week.

Geo. M. Love has gone to Evans creek to look after his ranch interests.

Frank W. Beach, lately of Lakeview, is now a resident of Portland.

Jas. H. Kincaid, one of Central Point's leading merchants, called to-day.

Miss Mamie Day, who has been quite ill for sometime past, is convalescing.

Mrs. D. L. Minkler and son of Ashland, are visiting relatives in Omaha, Neb.

E. R. Reames of San Jose arrived in town for a short visit last Monday evening.

Al Giddings is mining on Hungry creek, over the state line, in company with J. W. Briner.

Mrs. W. J. Plymale goes to Glendale today for a visit with her sister, Mrs. George Roberts.

D. H. Hawkins, the Union party county organizer, was in Jacksonville Tuesday and yesterday.

Dr. W. L. Colvig of Rock Point visited his daughter, Mrs. H. S. Emery of Ashland, last week.

Geo. Givan of Little Butte precinct called yesterday, having come to town for supplies.

Rev. Father Clark, who will have charge of this parish in the future, arrived here yesterday.

Judge Prim returned from Portland on Sunday, where he has been on professional business.

Miss Lida Day of Williams creek is teaching the school at Steamboat, and giving satisfaction.

Wm. Slinger and S. H. Hull, prominent citizens of Medford, called at the TIMES office to-day.

P. I. Packard of Talent will accept a position with the Pacific metal works of Portland next week.

Theo. Engelen Phoenix has returned from a trip to Portland, where he has been arranging his affairs.

Mrs. Annie Ross goes to Seattle, Wash., to join her husband, who has found employment there.

Col. C. A. Cogswell, the genial Lakeview attorney, spent several days in Jacksonville during the week.

Mrs. Mart Childers, who had been visiting in this valley, last week returned to her home in Klamath county.

Walter S. King of Food's creek and Chas. K. Quinn of Talent made Jacksonville a visit the forepart of the week.

W. J. Paul of Yreka, Cal., is in town, being interested in a case commenced in Klamath county last year.

Harry Preston returned to the TIMES office yesterday, after a temporary absence at San Buena Ventura, California.

E. B. Hunsaker of Ashland returned a few days since from San Francisco, where he purchased a large stock of goods.

Alex. Martin, Sr., of Oakland, Calif., came on Monday's evening stage to visit old-time friends and scenes for a few days.

Edward Schagner of California is here looking after the whereabouts of his father, who was a pioneer resident of this section.

Al. Sears, formerly of Ashland, is now in the employ of Chas. Sever, proprietor of the "The Banquet," the finest saloon in Portland.

Hon. P. P. Prim and Chas. Prim will leave in a short time for a tour of inspection through the Sound country and up the Columbia.

J. R. Little leaves for Seattle, Wash., this week, to take a situation in the W. U. Tel. Co.'s office. He has become proficient in telegraphy.

Mrs. Chas. Prim and Miss Nettie Pogue are in charge of Mrs. Prim's millinery store in Jacksonville, while the proprietress is at Central Point.

John B. Griffin of the Deaf Indian country is in town. He would not be unwilling to receive the Democratic nomination for county assessor.

R. R. Dunn, Stayer & Walker's live agent at Medford, was at the county seat on Monday. He reports business good in the agricultural implement line.

Wm. P. Miller of Klamath county passed through the valley Wednesday, on his way home from Portland, where he had attended the Democratic state convention.

Fred Cronemiller, formerly of this place, is at Baker city, where he is in charge of the Baker city "Blade." We learn he will become proprietor of the same in a short time.

Judge Webster and District Attorney Colvig will leave for Lakeview in a few days, where the May term of circuit court for Lake county commences on Monday after next.

Gen. T. G. Reames, District Attorney Colvig, J. T. Bowditch, D. T. Sears and the editor of the TIMES, who were delegates to the late Democratic state convention, have returned home.

A. H. Maegly and family will go to Portland, to-day, before long. In losing Mr. M. Jacksonville loses an enterprising and successful business man. We wish him success in his new home.

W. H. Parker of this place has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the state convention of Rebekah degree lodges, I. O. O. F., which meets at Portland on the 19th instant.

Fred Pape this week goes to Portland, to take a position under Colonel Eckelson, who is in charge of the surveying now being done by the Willamette railroad company.

L. Carter, of Rathbord, California, is visiting in the valley, the guest of Mrs. M. Morris of Central Point precinct, and was at the county-seat last Saturday in company with Mrs. M. and her son. Mr. Carter was a former resident of this section, and is, of course, a subscriber of the TIMES.

F. C. Homes and family, from Waverly, Illinois, last week arrived at Ashland and took possession of the Talent ranch, bought by Mr. H. last winter. He will make a specialty of raising fine stock, and brought three carloads of blooded horses and cattle with him to stock up his purchase.

Col. Robt. A. Miller returned from Portland yesterday and will commence canvassing the state next Saturday, beginning at Ashland. A. LeRoy, Democratic candidate for state superintendent, will also enter the campaign at the same time and place, and the two gentlemen will travel together.

Rev. F. S. Noel departed yesterday from this place for Roseburg, where he will be stationed for the ensuing year. His successor in this mission has not yet been named. Our friends in Douglas county will find Father Noel a most courteous, christ-spirit gentleman, who cannot fail to benefit the cause in that section.

Geo. W. Bacon, a nephew of Mrs. Wm. Bybee of this precinct, is in the valley looking out a location from which to work the county for a superior quality of asbestos roof paint for which he has the agency. He intends to bring his family to the valley to stay and make either this place or Ashland his headquarters for the summer.

E. O. Packard of San Juan county, Colorado, arrived in the valley last week, and intends making Jackson county his home for the present. He is not at all appalled by the prospect of a foot or two of snow here occasionally, as he passed the winter just ended in a locality where the snow was at least thirty feet deep.

Squire Angle of Medford dropped in to see us while in town last week. He reports the new route will be in condition for travel before fall.

On a recent visit to Iowa, M