OREGON SENTINEL

SATURDAY, APRIL 25, 1885.

SERVICE AT MEDFORD.—The Rev. John W. Sellwood rector of St. David's Episcopal church, East Portland will hold service and preach at Beer's Hall in Medford on Sunday evening at 7:30. The public are cordially invited.

NEARLY FULL.—The county jail is pretty well filled up now there being seven boarders there at present, including the following: Martin and Wm. Mackey, Lewis O'Neil, John Myrtle, W. Taylor, Fred. Frame and Mrs. Amanda McDaniel.

WORK COMMENCED.—The work of building the side track at Central Point was commenced this week and it will not take long to finish it. The warehouse will also be put up at once and local speculators have already commenced figuring on the price of town lots in Beallview. It will be a station for side-tracking freight cars not a stopping place for passenger trains, so we are informed.

SUNDAY SERVICES.—Rev. E. T. Lockard of Oakland, Or. preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday morning at the Presbyterian church. At 2 P. M. the funeral services of Dr. Vrooman of Medford were conducted by the Pastor, Rev. A. R. Bickenbach at the same place. At 7:30 in the evening Rev. E. R. Margraves of Independence delivered an able discourse to a large audience, from Luke 14 and 15 the parable of the marriage feast where the guest "began to make excuses."

MATRIMONIAL.—Mr. Wan Sue and Miss Bee Lun were joined in the tender bonds of wedlock at the County Clerk's office on Thursday last, Justice Fordray tying the nuptial knot. Only a few of the most intimate friends of the bride and groom being present, thus making it a very select crowd. The bride looked charming and the groom was smiles all over. Hearty congratulations followed the ceremony but the old time custom of kissing the bride was dispensed with on this occasion. No cards.

OUR IMPORTS.—To gain some information on the subject of how much freight is brought to Jacksonville we this week examined the freight bills of Geo. Freeman, our main freight man between here and Medford, when we found that he had hauled up 578,811 pounds and the railroad charges on the same were $8 925 78. Kareweski and several other of our sale and retail merchants do their own hauling and the above figures only include what Mr. Freeman has brought here himself, dating from the first of September of last [redacted] his date. Apparently some business is still being done in Jacksonville.

REDUCTION OF FARE.—The members of Oregonian Pocahontas Tribe of Imp'd O. R. M. of this place have secured a reduction of fare over the O. & C. R. R. for those attending their celebration on the 12th of May, and the following letter from E. P. Rogers, general freight and passenger agent will explain itself: "Members and others attending the celebration of Improved Order of Red Men to be held in Jacksonville, May 12th, will pay full fare going over our road to Medford, and will be returned at one fifth fare upon presentation of certificate issued by the secretary of your order, to our agent at Medford. Sample of certificate for you we here with enclose, which should be made out after May 14th, 1885. E. P. ROGERS G. F. & P. Agt.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Elder M. Peterson will preach at Medford Sunday morning and evening....Rev. M. Stratton will hold regular services at the Catholic Church, in this place, Sunday. He will also hold services at Eagle Point on the first Sunday in May at 10:30 A. M....Rev. H. C. Fleming will preach at the Lone Oak school house Sunday, at the usual morning hour....Rev. P. A. Moses holds services at the M. E. Church in Jacksonville next Sunday morning and evening....Rev. A. R. Bickenbach will hold services at Phoenix Sunday morning and at the Presbyterian church in this place in the evening.... Rev. J. W. Sellwood of Eas Portland will hold services at the Presbyterian Church in this place next Sunday. On the following Sunday Rev. Wm. Lund will officiate....Rev. P. A. Moses will preach at the Antelope school house on Friday evening of next week, at Eagle Point on the following day at 11 o'clock, and at the basket meeting in Brownsborough on Sunday.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED.—At the last meeting of the board of County Commissioners a proposition was received from the owners of the Rock Point and Centennial bridges across Rogue River, each offering to sell to county and both asking the sum of $3,000. As we understand, no definite action was taken at the last meeting of the court, but our system yesterday says "the County Commissioners have concluded to buy neither the Rock Point nor the Centennial bridges across Rogue River." Mr. Chenoweth informs us that he has over 600 petitioners on his side asking the Court to buy his bridge the names representing over one half of all the taxable property in the county, and to a man up a tree it looks as if such a petition should be considered favorably. We hope our neighbor is in error in the statement made and that the Commissioners decide on buying the bridge at their next term of court, as a free bridge at that point is a public necessity, and when the taxpayers signify their willingness to stand the expense the court surely need fear no censure.

P. W. Owen returned from a short visit to California this week and can again be found at his flouring mills in Phoenix. He expresses himself well pleased with his trip but is nevertheless glad to get home again.

Mrs. Wm. Miller and daughter have returned from a short visit to Ashland. Mr. Miller is expected back from Portland in a few days and will remove with his family shortly to San Jose, Cal to permanently reside there.

Where is the necessity of giving orders to Chicago tailors when you can get a perfect fit right here and thus keep the money at home. Mr. Baker has a large lot of samples and as a workman he can't be beat.

Appearances indicate that Jackson county will receive a thorough prospecting for quartz this Summer. A boom has started in that direction and some rich developments may be looked for before the season ends.

Miss Fashion Dowell left for Portland on Monday night. We think it possible however that she will not remain there long and that her "Love" of the old home will induce her to return to permanently reside here.

A change of venue has been granted by Judge Webster in the Mackey case and the trial will be held here next month. They will be tried separately this time making it an expensive case for Josephine county.

Capt. Alex P. Ankeny of Portland was here yesterday on a visit to the Sisters in charge of which he is the principal owner. No clean up has yet been made at these mines as they expect to have water for some time to come.

Sheriff C. A. Harvy of Josephine county and George S. Mache son of the same place called on us this week having brought Mackey and son over here to-day. They report crops looking well and everything prosperous in that section.

Rev. E. R. Margraves and wife of Independence have been paying Jacksonville a visit the past week and were the guests of Rev. and Mrs. A. R. Bickenbach. They express themselves as well pleased with Jacksonville and its environments.

A burning flue in the residence of N. Langell brought the fire department out last Tuesday evening but their services were not required. While pulling the engine back all the boys remarked that they did not know that it was so far to Langell's.

At the hydraulic mines on Jackson creek owned by John Muler a clean-up was made this week and the owner informs us that it was perfectly satisfactory notwithstanding the short run. Mr. Muler has lots of paying ground there and if he is once favored with a wet season—say that he can pipe some of it off we expect to see him do well.

The "Portland Standard" of the 21st inst. reviews at length the Mackey-Purcell murder case to be tried here at the May term of Circuit Court. The statement exhonerates the Mackeys but was evidently written by some one directly interested in the case.

Jacksonville, "under the foothills" escaped with a slight frost injuring only a portion of the small fruits here while other sections in the valley, "more favored," will have no fruits of any kind. If nothing worse comes we will have at least a three-fourths crop.

Thomas R. Willard called on us this week and presented us with a copy of his work on Roofs, and How to Cut Rafters which ought to be a handy book for any one engaged in that business. He is a brother of Titus B. Willard, formerly a resident of this valley in olden times.

Fred Frame of Ashland was bound over in the sum of $500 by Justice Eubanks on Monday last and failing to raise the bonds he will remain in jail until the grand jury dispases of his case. He is charged with disposing of a race mare while parties holding a bill of sale for the same. Informal.

The Sisters of St. Mary's Academy on this place intend having a windmill erected on their premises; the work to be done by contract. Specifications and drawings of the building can be seen at Dr. Aiken's office, or at the Sister's Academy. Bids for the contract will be received up to May 4th.

A New Orleans paper refers editorially to the wonderful restoration of health of Mr. T. Posey, druggist, 225 Canal street, the city, who some time ago was prostrated by an excruciating attack of sciatica. After much suffering his wife applied S. Jacobs Oil, which cured him promptly and entirely.

C. A. F. Morris, formerly chief engineer of the Oregon and California Railroad, returned to Portland yesterday. Mr. Morris has been absent since last fall, during which time he visited Europe. There are some who think that his presence here means that construction will be resumed on the O. and C. Railroad.

A large number of the members of Ashland Encamper, No. 3, O. E. of Jacksonville paid a fraternal visit to Applegate chapter, No. 1 of Ashland on Tuesday last. They were handsomely entertained by the Ashland chapter at a sociable and supper at the lodge room, and were afterwards entertained at Mrs. Vining's hotel by the Ashland Brass Band. They were all highly pleased with their visit.

It has always appeared to us that the proper place for mourners or any one else attending a funeral was to follow after the hearse in such order as they may be arranged, but here at a large funeral a number can always be seen in the lead and generally all those who can get ahead of the hearse and carriages. Try and improve on this good do like other communities do and let the hearse and pall bearers be in the lead.

Newman Fisher has just received a complete assortment of summer dress goods comprising Sateens and Pacific lawns, Ulster Cashmere suitings, Kuber cloth, Nonia plaids, etc. in all the most fashionable shades, also, hats and trimmings of every quality and variety. Hats trimmed to order on short notice and satisfaction guaranteed both in workmanship and price. Call and examine them before purchasing elsewhere.

Residents of Josephine county will vote on the county seat question June 1st. A majority of all the votes cast is required and the candidates are Wilderville, Kerbyville and Grant's Pass. If not her gets a majority this time it will again be submitted to the people one year from next June, to be decided by the selection of one of the two places receiving the largest number of votes at this election. It seems to be generally acknowledged that Grant's Pass has the best of it.

Mrs. Prim is displaying in addition to her new and complete stock of millinery, a full line of ladies and misses underwear, and infants and children wardrobes of superior style and material. Oriental lace, ladies and misses aprons, hosiery, skirts and suits, with all of the novelties for the toilet of large eastern importation. She is also prepared to do dress making, and cutting and fitting, and to teach the most popular system now in use. Ladies call and be convinced.

B. F. Miller and J. Henry Goffin of Gold Hill are accompanied by Capt Morgan of Portland to different portions of the county this week showing minor orchards and the advantage of so in raising the best in the land. Mr. Morgan is engaged in the fruit business at Portland and handled a lot of the product of this section last season. His past success with our fruits induced him to come out to make arrangements with other fruit growers in the valley and most of this year's crop will be consigned to him.

Extensive preparations are going forward for the celebration of the 66th anniversary of the founding of the order of Odd Fellows in America. The address of welcome will be made by Mr. N. Fisher, P. G. of Ruth Rebekah Degree Lodge No. 4. Selected reading by S. V. Dee, P. G. P. of Table Rock Encampment. Address by W. J. Pennoyer, P. G. of Jacksonville Lodge No. 10. The song for the occasion is being prepared under the supervision of Miss Alice Dowell assisted by the Misses Ish, Miss Ada Prunk, Miss Ida Fisher, Miss Jennie Moore, J. A. Boyer and N. A. Jacobs. The supper will be served in the lower story of the Odd Fellows building and will be prepared by the ladies of the Rebekah Degree, which insures its being first class in every particular. Odd Fellows and their families, and sojourning brothers are invited to attend.

American Dyspeptics.

Americans, more than other nations in the world, are victims of stomach derangements. This is owing to the hurried manner in which they eat their meals and to the amount and quality of food eaten, rich food being cheaper here than in any other country of the world. There are very few Americans whose stomachs are in a perfectly healthy condition. Most remedies for derangement of the stomach are offered in the form of bitters, cordials, etc., which merely stimulate the stomach and afford temporary relief. De Haven's Dyspepsia Cure is a remedy that supplies what is wanting in the digestive juices of a deranged stomach and is the only remedy offered to the public that cures all forms of Dyspepsia, Indigestion and Flatulency. Free sample bottles at E. C. Brooks' drug store.

JOSEPHINE GRAND JURY REPORT.—The following is the report of the grand jury empanneled for the April term of court for Josephine county: "We have examined all criminal matters brought to our knowledge and passed upon the same as our best judgment dictated. We have examined the county buildings and find them rather poor and not commodious, but kept in as good condition as circumstances will permit. We have also examined the Clerk's, Sheriff's and Treasurer's offices and find everything kept neat and correct.

J. N. GOTCHER, Foreman.

G. Karewski yesterday sold 10,000 bushels of wheat and 100 000 pounds of flour. Experts in the milling business say that his mill ranks third in the State and only one more machine is required to make it equal to the best. The flour made speaks for itself and the demand from the outside shows that it is appreciated.

Will Jacoby the gentlemanly R. R. agent at this place, played a little joke at the expense of the affable good natured George Marksberry, which grated somewhat harshly on George's good nature. It came about after this fashion. A marriage German woman with two babies aged respectively two years and six months. The children were very cross and prevish one the youngest cried itself to sleep. The mother placed the sleeping infant in a tin bath tub. About this time the train pulled in from Ashland. Jacoby noticed Marksberry standing on the platform and said: George, please assist this lady with her child and baggage. I have some express business to look after. George, good naturedly, laid hold of the kid, it at once sent up a deafening yell, poor Marksberry commenced trotting back and forth on the platform trying to quiet it, but 'twas no use it would not be comforted. Jacoby said: George, please help the lady with her bath tub. George trotted up to where it was stationed and on looking in low and behold there was another youngster which at once set up a terrific yell; his was too much. Marksberry fainted on the and spot he says hereafter that Will can look after his passengers himself.

Owing to ill health I offer for sale the property in Ashland known as "Marsh's Planing Mill," as well as the Keen Creek Saw Mill property. I will sell the whole, or one half of either or both properties, at a bargain to the right kind of a business man. This is a rare chance for an active man to secure the best business in Southern Oregon. For particulars apply to the undersigned at Ashland, Oregon.

L. S. P. MARSH.

Take Warning.

All those knowing themselves indebted to the estate of Madame Jane Holt, deceased, are hereby notified that an immediate settlement must be had at once and thereby save costs.
