Still They Come.

The Chinese are pouring in as rapidly as if there was no Restriction Act. The arrivals of May, says the S. F. "Bulletin," were 1,679 of which 1,130 are direct for this city, and the remainder by a circuitous route, for the same place. The great majority come on Custom House certificates believed to have been purchased in Hongkong from returning Coolies. There is no evidence in their appearance that they had ever been in this country. The examination is said to be so slight that there is no difficulty in getting through. The Coolies who had not the foresight to purchase these certificates work in here by the aid of the courts. They establish "previous residence" by the affidavit mill of the Chinese Consulate, land on pretense of being in transit and stay, other Coolies being forthcoming to fill their places when the time comes. The few who are too stupid for anything prolong the journey to Victoria and return armed with illegal certificates of the American Consul there. We do not know that we have effected much more by Restriction than to set up a new business. Chung, the Imperial Inspector of Customs at Canton, at first had a finger in the pie. But he has been shut out. The departing Coolie is now armed with a piece of paper, which he sells at Hongkong perhaps for more than his passage cost him. Clerks, Marshals, and Attorneys in the Federal Courts are in the enjoyment of a bonanza of fees. But still the Coolies come and every new arrival only complicates a situation grave enough before. The immigration of Coolies to all appearances will soon be as large as it ever was. It is not very much below high watermark now.

Indian Trouble Feared.

A letter under date of May 27th from a gentleman at Paisley, Lake county, states that the Piute Indians are said to be on the war path, and the the settlers in Harney valley are "forting up." There is considerable uneasiness among the people in south-eastern Oregon over the situation, for the Indians, not numerous or strong, might massacre a number of families before anything could be done in the way of interference by troops. The writer of the letter mentioned, says: 'Three Indians have been killed in the vicinity of Burns, Grant Co. Two of them had been stealing horses, were captured and were shot while attempting to escape. The third was killed on suspicion. He was in Happy valley making a good many inquiries concerning the number and resources of the settlers. If this be true, it is not to be wondered at that the Indians are inclined to go on the "war path." It is somewhat annoying to be killed "on suspicion."—"Ashland "Tidings."

Work on the Bartholdi pedestal at Bedloe's Island N. Y., is progressing rapidly, as many workmen being employed as there is room for. The pedestal will be finished by the latter part of July. The statue is expected on July 12th. The steamer Isere, on which it is being transported, will be received in the lower bay by one or more United States men-of-war, and by some members of the Chamber of Commerce and the Pedestral Committee. The Isere will be saluted with twenty one guns by all the forts as she passes them, and when she anchors off Bedloe's Island, Fort Columbia, a war vessel stationed there and the battery stationed on the Island will continue the salute. The officers of the Isers will be received at the pedestral with songs by the French Choral Society. Then they will cross over to the city and be welcomed by the Mayor and the Board of Aldermen. With singular infelicity, the anniversary of the Battle of Waterloo has been selected for the banquet to the French officers.

The Custom authorities at Montreal have seized a large consignment of patent medicines from the establishment of J. C. Ayer & Co. of Lowell, Mass. The authorities claim that the Government has been defrauded of $25,600 a year for the last five years, by a systematic undervaluation of consignments from this firm.

Dr Newman says: "The bane of the age is not love of wealth, but fear of poverty."

Publication of Notices.

The following in regard to the proper place to publish final proof notices was given the Lake county "Examiner," by Judge Truitt, of the Lakeview land office, and is from Copp's Land Owner:

Commissioner Sparks to Registers and Receivers, U. S. Land Offices, April 21, 1885.

"Referring to circular of this office of July 31, 1884, relative to the designation of newspapers for the publication of final proof notices, you are instructed that you have no discretion under the law to designate any other than that nearest the land for such purpose, when such a "newspaper of general circulation" as defined in said circular. But you will in all cases designate the newspaper of general circulation that is published nearest the land, geographically measured. When two or more such newspapers are published in the same town, nearest the land, you may select that which, in your honest and impartial judgment as public officers, will best subserve the purpose of the law and general interests of the public. But in no case will you permit your selections to be governed by prejudice, favoritism or personal interest.

The circular of July 31, 1884, is modified in accordance herewith.

"For the protection of entry-men, you should see to it that newspaper charges do not exceed the rates established by State and Territorial laws for the publication of legal notices, and report to this office should any infraction of this order occur.

Approved: L. Q. C. LAMAR,
Secretary.

Again these Indians have taken up the business of murdering, plundering, and thieving in Arizona and New Mexico. Several times before they have broken away from their reservation and entered upon their murdering trips, but each time they have been welcomed back and installed in their old places. It is to be hoped this time if they come back or can be caught that they will be tried and convicted just the same as white men. The sickish, sentimental treatment now given them should be changed for common sense.

On Wednesday night a fire broke out in the wooden building south of the Postoffice block, in Salem. The building was occupied by Celestials as a wash house, and the "Statesman" says: This building was erected in 1851 by Wm. Rector, now of Oakland, Cal. It was built for a town hall, but in the fifties was used by the Territorial Legislature. It was an old land mark and had quite a history. In it the convention met that framed and submitted to the people the present state constitution.

Cleveland's latest declarations and official acts seem to be displeasing one faction of the Democracy. In allusion to the abandonment of his originally expressed intention to appoint a California United States Minister to China, and the probability of the appointment of some pro Chinese mugwump, the Oakland Times, having got its Irish (John P. Irish) up, asks "if California is not fit to furnish a Minister to China, is she therefore to be used as a dog to try poison on?"

A young lady of Portland, Oregon, while breaking eggs for making cake, a few days ago, found a lizard nearly two inches in length and alive in one of the eggs. The "Oregonian," which tells the story, vouches for the honesty of its informant, who is the father of the young lady.

California, by recent [illegible] dates, claims 862,000 ton[illegible] export, and introduces [illegible] prove it.
